SENIOR GIRLS GUESTS OF BPW CLUB MONDAY NIGHT

The senior girls of the local high school were guests Monday night of the Business and Professional Women's club when the club met in the school library.

The guests were welcomed by the president, Adelia Hatch, and the program was in charge of the education and vocation chairman, Dorothy Wert, and committee, Lenora Langston, June Neal, Jean Olson and Ethel Krauss. Ruth Stewart Caldwell, music chairman, introduced the boys' trio, Don Eastburn, Scott Wilson and Albert Martin. They sang "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," "A Little Wish," and "O Mary, Don't You Weep." Miss Louise Walther played two selections on her accordion.

For the remainder of the program different members spoke on the various professions and vocations for women with Lenora Langston introducing the speakers and also speaking on "Telephone Employment"; Jean Olson told "The Requirements of a Teacher"; Lucy Ranny gave "The Viewpoints of a Saleslady"; Joan Gallo spoke on "Preparation for Secretarial Work"; Elizabeth Rohde Bullington gave her ideas from a nurse's standpoint and Nelda Merrill, a local telephone employee, read a poem, "We Are the Unseen."

Refreshments of punch, cake and coffee were served by the committee in the room beautifully decorated with lilacs and apple blossoms.

The next regular meeting will be Monday night, May 2, at 8:00 p.m. in the city library. All members are asked to be present as this meeting will be the winding up of the year's business.

RAINBOW GIRLS TO DANCE

At the regular meeting of the Order of Rainbow for Girls Monday night in the Masonic temple, plans were completed for their annual spring semi-formal dance to be held Saturday night, April 30, in the Masonic hall. Dance programs will be filled out at 8:30 o'clock and the dance will start at 9:00 o'clock. Each Rainbow Girl is to bring her boy friend and can invite another couple.

A short program will be given during the evening and refreshments will be served. The next regular meeting will be May 9, at 7:30 o'clock. There will not be initiation so girls are not to wear formals.

N. OF W. REGULAR MEETING

The regular meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will be held next Tuesday night at 8:00 o'clock in the IOOF hall.

GRAND OFFICER RECEPTION

Ruth Smith, grand representative for the state of Nebraska, was honored Friday night with a reception in the Masonic temple when members of the local chapter of Eastern Star entertained for her.

Besides Mrs. Smith, other grand officers honored in the East were Mary Workman, grand electa, and Bess Hopper of Glendale, grand representative of Indiana.

Guests were present from various chapters of Oregon, including worthy matrons and worthy patrons: Mildred Folsom of Blue River chapter of Eugene; Nellie Sutton of Oakridge chapter; William Cyphert of Oakridge; Fern Shuey of Mills City chapter and Lila Johnson of Cascade chapter, Springfield.

For the evening's entertainment Claude Gerlach showed moving pictures of the Masonic home; Billy Veatch and Malcolm Scott rendered musical numbers on the piano and trumpet, and the local officers presented an addendum honoring Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Smith gave a talk on the state she represents, and she was the recipient of gifts.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting with Grace Cruson chairman of the committee. Approximately 100 attended the reception.

LOCAL COUPLE WED APRIL 21

A wedding of interest to their many friends was that of Elsie Wiese to Kenneth H. Waro, Friday night, April 21, at 7:30 in the church parlor of the new Methodist church. The Rev. Frank Brown read the service before a small group. Attractively arranged spring flowers decorated the parlor.

The bride was attired in a gray suit with mauve accessories and an orchid corsage.

She was attended by her daughter, Mary Louise Wiese, as maid of honor, and best man was Vernon Kerr of Creswell.

Those witnessing the ceremony besides the attendants were the bride's two children, Alvin Earl and Earline, and Miss Norma Macomber.

The couple left immediately for a trip to the coast and California, and are now at home at 1420 West Main.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS MEET

Royal Neighbors met Tuesday night in the Eagles hall with Oracle Fern Anderson presiding. Mrs. Abbott, a Neighbor from Kansas, was a guest.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by Margaret Keene, Julia Prescott and Lillian Stanton.

A special practice was announced for Wednesday, May 4.

VFW AND AUXILIARY INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

Following a potluck supper by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary Friday night in the IOOF hall, officers of both organizations were installed into their respective offices for the ensuing year.

Ada Oakes acted as installing officer for the Auxiliary and installed the following officers: president, Mary Duffy; senior vice president, Garadine Crane; junior vice president, Margaret Woodrume; secretary, Lorraine Garoutte; treasurer, June Bird; chaplain, Helen Sherman; patriotic instructor, Elsie Patten and guard, Mary Barton.

The newly elected officers installed for the VFW were: Roy Sherman, commander; Warren Wright, senior vice commander; Lew Hart, adjutant; John Lamb, quartermaster; Colen Garoutte, chaplain.

Mrs. Esther Ashworth of Springfield, district president, was a visitor. Other visitors from Springfield were: Mrs. Theresa Sharrman, Mrs. Lee Epperson and Mrs. Helen Allen; Mrs. Charlotte Withers from the Marcola Auxiliary and Mrs. Hattie McKay from Alberta, Canada.

The district meeting was announced for Friday night, April 29, in the local armory when members are expected from Oakridge, Junction City, Marcola, Creswell, Springfield and Eugene. The meeting will start at 8:00 o'clock, and Cottage Grove will be host to the other members.

MRS. RALPH AUBREY HEADS LOCAL P-TA ASSN.

Mrs. Ralph Aubrey was elected president of the Parent-Teachers Association Monday when election of officers was held for the coming year. Mrs. Ronald Gray was elected first vice president; second vice president, Principal Elmer Fleming; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Richard Thwing.

Attending the state convention Tuesday through Thursday this week in Eugene are Mrs. Aubrey and Mrs. Gray, Mrs. L. L. Burkhardt and Mrs. Darrell Eastburn.

At Monday's meeting it was voted to contribute $17.00 toward Day Camp for Girl Scout Troop No. 104, which the P-TA sponsors. This amount gives $1.00 each for the 17 girls.

The Girl Scouts of Troop No. 104 presented the program and their mothers served refreshments.

The P-TA decided to sell ice cream and cake at Open House at Jefferson school the night of May 6.

GUILD PLANS SILVER TEA

The Junior Guild of the Methodist church met Thursday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Jim Hendricks and planned a silver tea for May 9. The tea will be held in the church parlor from 7:30 to 9:00 in the evening, and is planned for a "get acquainted" affair with members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Service Guild being invited.

Mrs. Hendricks, president of the Guild, was in charge of the meeting, and also led the devotionals, and Mrs. Bill Workman presented the lesson, which was followed by a discussion.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostesses, Mrs. Hendricks and Mrs. Robert Frye.

The next meeting was announced for May 19 in the church parlor.

CLUB PLANS THEATRE PARTY

At the regular meeting of the Tuesday Evening Study club held Tuesday night in the city library it was announced that the officers will entertain the members with a theatre party followed by refreshments at the home of Mrs. S. L. Mackin for the next meeting.

At the meeting Tuesday night Mrs. Joe T. Smith reported on Guatemala and Nicaragua, and Mrs. Warren Snapp reviewed the book "Eliza," written by Patricia Campbell.

MAY 5 SET FOR MEETING

The Constellation club has set May 5 as the date for the next meeting which will be a covered dish dinner in the Masonic hall, at 12:30. A good attendance is urged.

The club is planning a luncheon and bazaar for Saturday, April 30, in the Masonic hall, for the public.

MRS. MILLER IS HOSTESS

The All-year-round Birthday club met April 22 with Mrs. Bill Miller. After the hostess opened her many gifts and took her guests on a tour of her new home, she served delicious refreshments to the twelve members present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Hugh Nixon.

CIRCLE THREE HAS MEETING

Circle Three of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. C. E. Dillman with Mrs. Eva Holderman as co-hostess on Wednesday afternoon.

Betty Manock presided in the absence of Blanche Short. She also had charge of the devotions and program on the work of the Presbyterian church among colleges. Thirteen members and four guests were present. It was decided that the month of May will be work month for Circle Three.

The hostesses served refreshments at the tea hour.

Theta Rho District Convention Here

Approximately 100 Theta Rho Girls from the clubs at Eugene, Roseburg, Springfield, Marcola, Lane, Creswell and Cottage Grove gathered here Saturday for the annual district convention, which was held in the IOOF hall. Miss Donna Porterfield, president of the convention, presided over the meeting.

During the morning session the Roseburg lodge exemplified the initiatory work, initiating two candidates from Roseburg and two from Cottage Grove, Wilma Crane and Yvonne DeMoss. Lane lodge won the obligation contest, and the Eugene lodge won the prize for the best entertainment during the luncheon, which was served by the Rebekahs.

The entire convention was in candlelight. A special guest was Mrs. Viola Jones, chairman of the board of control of Theta Rho Girls.

Election of district convention officers for 1950 was held in the afternoon with honor of president going to Dalene Mitchell of Lane; vice president, Una Lee Overton, Creswell; secretary, Jo Ann Peterson, Lane; treasurer, Betty Reed, Roseburg; marshal, Betty Roark, Roseburg; chaplain, Shirley Witters, Cottage Grove; conductor, Marilyn Stamm, Eugene; warden, Donna Donahue, Roseburg; RS to president, Patty Coats, Cottage Grove; LS to president, Barbara Jenkins, Lane; RS to vice president, Lillian Tew, Lane; LS to vice president, Delores VanMatre, Cottage Grove; first herald, Lucile McDaniell, Eugene; second herald, Beverly Larky, Lane; third herald, Marilyn Nickens, Roseburg; fourth herald, Virginia Cyrus, outside guardian.

Rosalie Harold, Creswell; inside guardian, Wilma Gaiving, Lane; past president, Donna Porterfield. The Cottage Grove lodge installed the newly elected officers. It was voted to hold the 1950 convention at Lane.

In a special drill two little flower girls, Susan Harris and Vicki Malcolm, dressed in formals, and attended by Beverly Asher and Shirley Witters, presented the convention officers with corsages, also Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Wells.

another member of the board. The Cottage Grove lodge presented Mrs. Jones and Donna Porterfield with gifts. The Majority degree was conferred on Joyce Lyon, and she was presented with a gift and honorary certificate and bouquet of tulips.
