

CITY BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Thies were called to Pendleton by the sudden death of Mrs. Thies' brother, Charles Homer Dickerson, who passed away April 16. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dickerson of Lorane route, Cottage Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson were visiting a daughter in The Dalles at the time. Mrs. Dickerson, who had been ill, remained in The Dalles with her daughter, and

Mr. Dickerson returned home with Mr. and Mrs. Thies.

Mrs. Lila Veatch is reported ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bert Hatch.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dugan and son Kenneth of Newberg visited over the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dugan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Graham spent last Sunday vacationing at coastal points, returning home Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Merrick went to Portland Tuesday to be gone the remainder of the week, where Dr. Merrick is attending medical lectures and Mrs. Merrick is visiting relatives.

The Rev. and Mrs. Frank Brown and daughters Bobbie and Vicki spent several days last week in Portland. Mrs. Brown attended a two days training class for leaders of Junior camps, which will be held in various parts of the state. The training classes were held at the First Methodist church in Portland.

Mrs. Peniston and Gary will spend two weeks visiting in California with her folks in Vallejo and Mr. Peniston's folks in Los Gatos.

Mr. Peniston will leave Thursday night for Washington, D. C. to attend a seminar on Social Education and Action. Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon will be one of the many speakers. This will be an interdenominational meeting. Mr. Peniston will be gone for about two weeks.

Mrs. Jean Long, who has been ill at her home the past three weeks, is leaving to make her home at Sweet Home with her son Wade Mosby and family. She will be glad to hear from her friends who can write her at Box 1015, Sweet Home, Oregon. Mrs. Long has made her home in Cottage Grove for the past 50 years, and will be missed by her friends.

Mrs. J. R. Cooley returned home Saturday evening from Seattle, Washington where she had spent the past seven months with her sister, Mrs. H. A. Stowe. Her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cox, of Portland brought her to Cottage Grove and spent the night with her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Beagle and two sons Gail and Larry of Vancouver, Washington and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beagle of Yoncalla spent the week end here with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Beagle, father of J. D. and C. A. Beagle. A. H. Beagle is reported recovering from a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric E. Bartruff Jr. and daughter of Long Beach, California arrived Wednesday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bartruff.

RANGER JOE ELLIOTT TRANSFERRED TO JOHN DAY
Ranger Joseph E. Elliott, Jr. is being promoted to a staff position and transferred to the Malheur Forest it was announced today by M. M. Nelson, Forest Supervisor. In his new assignment, effective May 15, Elliott will have charge of fire control and improvements with headquarters at John Day, Oregon. He will work under Supervisor Cleon Clark, who was formerly in Roseburg as assistant supervisor of the Umpqua National Forest. Assistant Ranger Don Allen, from Tillamook, Oregon, will be promoted to fill the vacancy left by Elliott.

MRS. ARMSTRONG RETURNS

Mrs. C. P. Armstrong arrived home from Lake Andes, South Dakota, where she spent two months during the illness and death of her father. She was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. Iona Parker and her two children, of Mott, North Dakota, who will make a visit here.

Bohemia Nuggets

Reports have been received by local mining men that the moratorium on mining assessment work will be passed again, but Congress has not as yet acted on the measure. There is considerable opposition to a further extension of the "no assessment work needed" law.

50 Years Ago (From the Nugget) Stocks & Harlow have drifted 200 feet in very rich ore, and will do nicely in the spring run of their mill.
