VFW Auxiliary Host Spring Convention

Cottage Grove Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary was host to District No. 17 at the spring convention held at the local armory Friday night when 60 delegates and members from Oakridge, Junction City, Marcola, Creswell, Springfield and Eugene gathered for the meeting.

At the election of officers, Mrs. Ross Beeson of Willamette Auxiliary, of Eugene was unanimously elected president.

Other officers named to serve with Mrs. Beeson are: Mrs. Orville Rhoades, Springfield, senior vice-president; Mrs. Robert Hill, Eugene, junior vice-president; Mrs. George Larson, Junction City, treasurer; Mrs. Lloyd Cameron, Eugene, chaplain; Mrs. Harold Johnston, Creswell, conductress; Mrs. Lee Duffy, Cottage Grove, guard; Mrs. Charles Ingersoll, Springfield, secretary; Mrs. William Dawson, Eugene, assistant conductress; Mrs. Rose Orr, Oakridge, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Basil Smith, Creswell, flag bearer; Mrs. Warren Wright, Cottage Grove, banner bearer; Mrs. Jean Hicks of Junction City, Mrs. Lloyd Shaw of Marcola, Mrs. Charles A. Humphreys of Eugene and Mrs. Thomas Sharman of Springfield, color bearers; Mrs. S. S. Stiverson, Eugene, musician.

Installing officer was Mrs. Herbert Dana, Portland, national council member and past department president, assisted by Mrs. William Ashworth of Portland, department conductress who served as installing conductress, and Mrs. Carl Oberg of Portland, department chaplain, who served as assistant conductress. Installing color bearers were Mrs. Allen Jensen of Eugene, Mrs. Clifford Johnson of Marcola, Mrs. Harry Allen of Springfield, and Mrs. Jack Hartman of Springfield.

Reports from six of the seven auxiliaries of the district were read and Mrs. Robert Taylor of Springfield, who recently was officially designated as Oregon Mother, was presented to the convention.

Mrs. George Pike of Portland, wife of the department service officer, was among the guests from outside the district, a number of others coming also from Corvallis.

Following the convention the sixty auxiliary visitors and members of the posts were served refreshments in the armory dining room by a committee composed of Mrs. Lee Duffy, new president of the Cottage Grove Auxiliary, Mrs. W. B. Patten, Mrs. Colin Garoutte, Mrs. Roy Sherman, Mrs. Warren Wright, and Mrs. Max Bird.

M. P. G. CLUB ENTERTAINED
Mrs. C. C. Cruse entertained the M. P. G. club Tuesday with a one o'clock luncheon and afternoon of needlework and visiting. A combination of wisteria and lilacs made attractive decorations. Mrs. A. W. Helliwell will entertain the club at the next meeting, May 17.

Those elected to office were: Past president, Velma Forrester; president, Mae Tennis; vice president, Maude Wilson; chaplain, Elsie DeYoung; conductress, Laverna Pitcher; secretary, Lula McCullough; treasurer, Frances Stout; lodge mothers, Eleanor Partin and Eliza Booher; outside guard, Mabel Bassett; inside guard, Leona Brock; trustee, Edna Pitcher; drill captain, Wilda King; musicians, June Johnson and Fern Anderson.

Initiation was held for Virgie Duer, Vickie Nowak and Ada Pitcher.

The next meeting will be May 17 and will be the Auxiliary birthday party. At this time all past presidents and charter members will be honored guests, and the Eugene Auxiliary will be invited.

N. OF W. PRESENTS MOTHER'S DAY PROGRAM

Julia Bartels, newly elected guardian neighbor, and her staff of officers presided at the regular meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft Tuesday evening when a Mother's day program was presented. Mary Lou Wolfard rendered several piano numbers; Fannie Leabo sang "That Wonderful Mother of Mine"; Jean Thiel gave a reading, "A Tribute to Mother."

Mrs. Thiel presented corsages to the oldest mother present, Eva Hatch, to the youngest grandmother, Julia Bartels and to the mother with the largest family, Nellie Blackmore.

Announcement was made that the next social meeting will be May 17 at 8:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. B. Hill, 60 W. 17th street, in Eugene.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by Adelia Hatch and Eva Hatch with the tables decorated in keeping with Mother's day, using May baskets and candles.

Hostesses for the next meeting will be Mary Duffy and Martina Cooley.

Bees have a sense of smell. They can distinguish between various odors.

GIRL SCOUTS ENJOY SKATING PARTY MAY 3

The Girl Scout troop No. 94 and leader, Mrs. John White, and assistant leader, Mrs. Ruth Grewele and troop No. 48 and leader, Mrs. George Woolery, enjoyed a skating party Tuesday night in the local armory. Giving the party for the Scouts were their sponsors, the Business and Professional Women's club and the American Legion Auxiliary.

After skating they enjoyed refreshments by candlelight in the Girl Scout room, where the tables were attractively decorated with purple and white lilacs. Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. Prescott were present and assisted in serving the refreshments.

B. & P. W. NAME DELEGATES TO CONVENTION

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club was held Monday night in the city library. Delegates to the state convention to be held May 13-14-15 in Salem are: Lottie Lee Lamb, Edna Piller, Hazel Tohlen and Ella Beers. Alternates are: Alice Breedlove, Edna Burleson, Dorothy Wert and Ethel Krauss. Adelia Hatch, president of the local club, is a member of the state board, and will also attend the convention.

During the business meeting two new members were welcomed, Ethelmae Denhart and Mary Alyce Bryson. It was voted to contribute $20.00 to the city library fund.

The next meeting will be a dinner meeting at the Rainbow cafe. The program being in charge of Catherine Sedergren, chairman of equal rights committee. There will be a guest speaker, and Albert Davies of the forest service will show the film "Realm of the Wild."

Eighth Graders Are Visiting CGUHS

Today eighth grade boys and girls who will enter the freshman class next fall visited the local high school, approximately 175 in number. Included in the district are the following schools: Jefferson in Cottage Grove, Culp Creek, London, Delight Valley, Disston, Dorena, Latham, Lynx Hollow, Saginaw, Silk Creek and Blue Mountain.

This was an all day affair with a general inspection of the buildings, visiting of classes, play activities, assemblies and a noon luncheon.

At a special assembly guests were greeted by Supt. Virgil Kingsley. Student leaders discussed the many activities carried on in the high school and explained student government.

English and mathematics placement tests were administered as an aid in placing pupils in their freshman classes, and pre-registration was completed.

Guests were entertained at a student body assembly presented by the public speaking class.
