Mildred Collier Wed On 29th Anniversary Of Her Parents

For her wedding day Miss Mildred Collier chose her parents' twenty-ninth wedding anniversary, Sunday, June 12, at two o'clock at the Methodist church when she plighted her troth to Norman John Newman. The Rev. Frank Brown read the ceremony before one hundred and twenty-five guests as Mr. Collier gave his daughter in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Collier of Cottage Grove and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Younger of Aberdeen, Washington. Her white slipper satin gown was fashioned with fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves, portrait neckline with lace ruffle, full skirt with lace-trimmed peplum and long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a headdress of stephanotis, and she carried her white Rainbow Bible on which rested an orchid with satin streamers knotted with stephanotis. As a gift from the bridegroom she wore a ring with aqua-marine setting which he brought from Germany following World War II.

Miss Sara Bjorset was maid of honor. Her gown was light peach color and floor-length, the neckline similar to the bride's gown and skirt with bustle back. Her mitts were of same material as her dress, and her bouquet and headpiece were of delphiniums.

Best man was Roy Randich of Aberdeen, Washington, and the groomsmen were Lee Collier, brother of the bride, Jack Spease Jr. of Portland and Martel Brown of Aberdeen.

Little flower girl was Lynda Allen of Oakridge, cousin of the bride. Her gown was yellow sheer and she wore yellow rosebuds in her hair. Ring bearer was Robert Lee Collier of Portland, cousin of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue sheer with white accessories and the groom's mother chose a grey crepe with navy accessories. Both had identical corsages of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Christina Trapalis sang "Because" and "I Love Thee," accompanied by Mrs. Boyd Allen, organist, who played the wedding marches. Baskets of peach gladioli and delphiniums and candelabra decorated the church.

At the reception which followed in the church parlor Mrs. H. B. Bebe and Mrs. O. H. Howerton, aunts of the bride, served the three-tiered wedding cake flanked at the base with pansies, the bride's sorority flower. Assisting were Mrs. Lee Dungan, Mrs. George Bjorset, Mrs. Herbert Lom-

EAOLEAN CLUB CONCLUDES MEETINGS

The Eaolean club concluded the club meetings with a program and wiener roast at the Bales home in Delight Valley recently. Club members are students of Prof. Elbert DeMoss of Eugene and have had a very successful year studying composers' and orchestra practice one evening per week. Mrs. George DeMoss was a guest one evening and showed the group a candle holder, which originally belonged to the mother of P. P. Bliss and had been given the DeMoss family years ago. Bliss was the composer being studied at this time and Mrs. DeMoss played several piano selections of his.

Other composers of great interest to the members have been Carrie Jacobs Bond, Stephen Foster, Francis Scott Key and others.

On May 15th the members from Cottage Grove accompanied by their parents and friends went to Skinner's Butte, where they participated in an outdoor concert with the students of Prof. DeMoss from Springfield and Eugene. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent and the students are looking forward to going again next year.

The students also appreciate the interest of Mr. and Mrs. Richmond on South 8th street in permitting the club to meet with them. The club will resume meetings in the fall and carry them thru the winter.
