COTTAGE GROVE, LANE COUNTY, OREGON THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1949

NUMBER 45

LONDON

There was a good attendance at the London Church of Christ basket dinner held Sunday. Regular morning and evening services were held by Altheaton Crowson with special song service in the afternoon. Visitors came from Lorane, Roseburg, Cottage Grove and Eugene and Springfield.

Vacation Bible school program will be Thursday evening at the church for the parents and completing the Bible school session.

Mr. Crowson will conclude his evening lectures Wednesday and leave Thursday night for his home at Roseville, California.

School Election

All registered voters will vote at the school house, 8 p.m. June 20, at the annual London school meeting at which time a new school board director will be elected.

The usual seasonal changes in a logging camp brought moves of several families from Woodard's Blackbutte camp recently. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Perry and family moved up McKenzie way and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Kirkpatrick of Kirby, Oregon moved to camp, Sunday, bringing the number of families in camp back up to eight. Mr. Kirkpatrick is a car operator.

Three days of low humidity last week brought the men in out of the woods at noon. Good haying weather, however, while it lasts.

A number of community farmers are taking advantage of the sunshine by getting early grass and clover hay crops cut and stored this week.

Many On Trips

The warm summer days have lured many families on trips to the beaches and mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mills of Blackbutte spent Friday till Sunday on the coast visiting Walport.

Odd Fact

A soldier stationed at an Air Force base in Texas has to have army shoes specially made for him because his feet are too small to fit any regular army issue shoes.

WESTERN TEXTILE FASHION SHOW JUNE 21 TO 24

"Western Textile Fashions", a 4-day show which the public is invited to attend and which promises to hold much appeal for anyone interested in textiles and how they came to be, will be held in the Portland Oregonian's Hostess House from June 21 through June 24, from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. each day.

Additional opportunity to view the show, which will present a retrospective picture of textile production in Oregon, as well as the current exciting picture of what is being done through the state, will be provided Thursday night from 7 to 10 p.m.

The story of how raw wool is translated into finished cloth of various weaves and colors, of how that cloth is translated into suits, coats and other garments, will be told, also.

Suede Shoes

When suede shoes become dirty, be sure they are thoroughly dry before cleaning.
