Checked Cotton Gown

Cool and pretty.

by VERA WINSTON

WITH US AGAIN is a night-gown that is so pretty it might double as an evening dress. This one has a pretty camisole top, so popular just now, and the halter straps form a halter neckline. The midriff is form-fitting. The skirt, using the yellow and white checked sheer cotton on the bias, is gathered to the waist, and a string belt marks the base of the snug midriff.

Ilma Thum Presides Over Grand Chapter

Ilma Thum, worthy grand matron, and Rex Hartley of Jefferson, worthy grand patron, of the grand chapter of Oregon, Order of Eastern Star, presided over the sixteenth grand chapter held last week in Portland. The Willamette Valley was the theme of the meeting, and was carried out throughout the meeting, with a background of the Willamette river and covered wagons, depicting the days of '49.

Mrs. Thum was appointed grand lecturer by the incoming worthy grand matron, Edna Thorne.

On Wednesday evening the local chapter exemplified the initiatory work, with Isabelle Gates, worthy matron, and Jack Dillon, worthy patron, presiding and all officers and team present. Their candidates were Miss Jeanett Workman and Miss Helen Axley, both of Cottage Grove.

Also on Wednesday evening the local chapter honored the worthy grand matron and worthy grand patron with an addendum, again carrying out the '49 theme with a donkey laden with gold from the Bohemia Gold Mine and bearing gifts for the worthy grand matron and worthy grand patron.

On Tuesday afternoon all 50-year members and older were honored. There were about 30 in this group, and Anna Graham of the local chapter, had been a member longer than any other member, 59 years. They were given a degree by the pages, who represented the group, and Mrs. Graham was presented a star-shaped corsage.

A large group from the local chapter assisted in the work and on committees. Mary Workman is grand electa; Ruth Smith, grand representative of Nebraska; Jack Dillon acted as assistant grand sentinel; Isabelle Gates, grand page; Bonita Wikoff of Roseburg and daughter of the worthy grand matron, was also a page; Miss Eunice Vandenberg served on the return subordinate chapters committee and Helen Dillman served on the credential committee.

The installation of officers was held on Thursday night. At this time worthy grand matron Ilma Thum was presented with a past grand matron jewel and many other gifts.

Mrs. Thum, accompanied by her husband, will attend the general grand chapter to be held at Toronto on August 7.
