Good Service

Our United States Post Office and mail deliveries are often taken for granted until a special instance calls our attention to its efficiency. Recently a letter came from Africa with no name but the address of B. B. Route, Cottage Grove, Oregon. The letter was delivered promptly to Miss Betty Clark, London community. Miss Clark has a hobby of pen pals and apparently the only person through this post office receiving so many letters from foreign countries. Another of her letters came from Cambridge, England, with her address complete except for Oregon. This letter went to Wisconsin, the only other state with a Cottage Grove, but was found to have no B. B. Route, so it was delivered in due time to here. Betty has a list of 16 pen pals she has received letters from, which includes two African natives, and some from the Philippines, Hawaii, Finland, England, Africa, Sweden, New Zealand, and two in the U. S. A. She has written others on her pen pal list, she is waiting answers from.

George Clark, Betty's younger brother has an interesting stamp album, with collections from his sister's mail.

Quick Recovery

Proving the efficiency of modern surgery, Jane Anne Haynes, eleven year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Haynes, had her appendix removed in a local doctor's office Wednesday evening of last week. She went home the same evening, was up the next morning and out playing Friday. The doctor agrees she is doing fine.

Bill Cantwell rode a bicycle race out from Cottage Grove one evening recently, just to see if he could beat his brother, David's, time of one hour and 15 minutes. He beat him by two miles. That is, Bill rode two miles farther, making 15 miles in the one hour and 15 minutes. However, he did not pedal back, but hitched a ride home.

Word has been received here that Bobbie and Jimmy Fletcher, 7 and 9 year old sons of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fletcher who lived here for about three years, now of Woodburn, have both been stricken with polio with the paralysis in their legs. They were expected to be hospitalized at the Shriners hospital in Portland this week.

William and Wana Fay Sugg returned home Saturday, from a week in Springfield with their grandmother, Mrs. Alvin Patton, and picking cherries on River Road.

Barbara Banton left Monday for Salem, to get located for employment there with Pacific Telephone Company July 5. She will attend the Cherry Festival there this week.

Mrs. M. J. Beagle of Portland visited several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Paul Prescott.

Harvey Beatty of Sweet Home visited Monday with his sister, Mrs. James Quigley. Many of the community men folk are several hours up on daylight saving time, arising to greet the 3 a. m. summer dawn in order to get to work at the "Hoot Owl" hour of 4 a. m. to beat the humidity that menaces their regular working hours.

Fourth of July vacation for logging crews all next week is a welcome diversion and will see many on trips or just recuperating at home.

Mrs. Frank Haynes has been enjoying a visit from her niece, Mrs. John Bailey from Ohio. Mrs. Haynes will accompany Mrs. Bailey to Ohio sometime next week for an extended visit of about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ewing and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Ewing visited the House of Mystery, a museum near Medford, Sunday.

Wild blackberries are reported ripening on the hills, but retarded by the cooler weather.

Mrs. E. M. McEwen reported traces of light frost Monday morning.

Mrs. Emma Porter and son of Cottage Grove spent several days last week at Blackbutte, visiting Mrs. Fred Mills.

A helicopter, winding its way slowly over the community Monday was an unusual sight bringing folks to their windows and porches. It is probably the first helicopter to come up this way. It continued on South.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Miller were out from Eugene, Sunday to enjoy country style strawberry shortcake ala cream, at Mr. and Mrs. Gale Robys.

Aloma Garman has accepted employment in the Daugherty Lumber Co. office in Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garman spent Saturday and Sunday in Eugene visiting their daughter, Mrs. Geo. Johnson and attended a surprise baby shower for Mrs. Johnson Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Mildred Webb.

4-H Mother's Club London 4-H Mothers' club met at the club house, June 22, at the regular meeting, conducted by Mrs. Esther Banton, president. A treasurer's report was made by Mrs. Lawana Sugg, secretary-treasurer. Correspondence was read from the Lynx Hollow group, postponing their acceptance to the invitation to visit the London club until fall, when seasonal activities at home are not so rushing.

A salad and cake luncheon was held at noon and the afternoon was spent quilting. Pollyanna gifts were received by Mrs. Fred Mills, Mrs. Marie Stein and Mrs. Emma Kelly.

Cedar Creek

Clyde Clark took his mother Mrs. Hattie Clark and her sister, Mrs. Davis of Utah who is visiting here, to Klamath County near Klamath Falls recently to visit his brother.

Malcolm Clark returned Sunday from Seattle where he has been visiting a cousin.

Earl Murry broke his wrist Sunday when he fell while pruning a tree. It was necessary that he go to a Eugene hospital to have his wrist put in a cast.

Mrs. Henry Cooper and children are home from picking berries at Newberg.

Alice White has written her mother, Mrs. Alfred White that she likes her work at Anchorage, Alaska, where she is in the C.A.A. office there. She is staying with a sister Mrs. W. H. Morris for the summer.
