MISS NORA COOP WEDS MAX FAE TREADWELL

Miss Nora Grace Coop became the bride of Max Fae Treadwell Thursday, June 30 at four o'clock at a quiet home ceremony at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Coop, with her father, an elder of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, officiating. Mr. Treadwell is the son of Lee Treadwell of Oakland, Oregon and Mrs. Bertha Ross of Los Angeles, California.

Special wedding music was played by Mrs. Fred Dompier. The bride wore a black wool crepe suit and white accessories. Her corsage was of Rubrum lilies. Mrs. Lowell Shultz of Cottage Grove was matron of honor. She wore a blue suit and corsage of pink carnations. Best man was Vernon Coop, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Coop wore a navy blue dress and corsage of orange glads for her daughter's wedding.

At the reception which followed at the Coop home Mrs. Martha Dobson and Mrs. L. D. Shultz served the refreshments.

Their wedding trip was spent on the Oregon and California coast. They are now at home on Bennett creek.

The bride is a graduate of Grace-land college, Lamoni, Iowa and is a teacher. Mr. Treadwell is employed at a local mill.

Miss Charleye Wood Is Bride of Cpl. Jack Bradford, July 2 in Floral Setting

Miss Charleye Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Wood, Cottage Grove, became the bride of Corporal Jack E. Bradford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doss Bradford, Cottage Grove at eight o'clock Saturday, July the second. The couple plighted their troth in a double ring ceremony at Mills chapel, Cottage Grove. The chapel was beautifully decorated with tall wicker baskets filled with white glads and a smaller basket of the same flowers formed a background against which white tapers burned in wrought iron candelabra at each side of the altar. W. C. Martin of Cottage Grove played the prelude and wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Wright Randolph from San Bernardino, California, who sang "Forever and Ever." The ceremony was read by I. E. Wilkerson, minister of the Church of Christ, Tacoma, Washington.

The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father. Her gown of traditional white satin was fashioned with a fitted bodice, long sleeves which came to a point at her wrists and a lace yoke in front scattered with seed pearl formed a design on upper front of waist. The full skirt fell into a court train. Her finger length veil of white net fell from a tiara trimmed with pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of pink rose buds with white satin streamers and centered with an orchid corsage, which she wore on her going away suit. The bridal tradition was kept by wearing something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue and a penny in her shoe. The white silk handkerchief she carried for something old and borrowed was one the groom's mother carried at her wedding. The penny in her shoe was one the groom had given her friend.

Mrs. Max Bradford was matron of honor and Miss Shirley Hughes bridesmaid, both of Cottage Grove. They wore dresses made alike of organdy over satin, one in pale blue, the other in yellow fashioned with fitted bodices, low round necks with collars opening in back. The skirts were flares. They carried arm bouquets of pale pink glads with pink net streamers. Six year old Mary Ann Burkhardt was the flower girl, and special friend of the bride and groom. She was dressed in orchid organdy over satin with ruffles edged with pink satin ribbon. She carried a basket filled with rose petals.

Max Bradford, brother of the groom, was best man. Laddie Goodwin was groomsman and Rufus Bryant and Kenneth Westfall were ushers and candle lighters.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered with a lace table cloth over white with a large bowl of white ribbon on side of table. For the center piece a crystal bowl filled with white lilies surrounding a tall white candle with smaller candles in crystal holders on either side. At one end of the table was a three tiered white wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. A crystal punch bowl was at the other end of the table. Mrs. T. C. Burkhardt cut the cake and Mrs. J. B. McCall poured. Lavonne Jones was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's going away suit was of dusty pink gabardine, hip length coat with loose back. Her accessories were navy blue. After their wedding trip to points along the coast the bride will resume her work at the First National Bank and the groom will report to the base in San Francisco for duties overseas. Both the bride and groom are graduates of the Cottage Grove high school.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Britt and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wright Randolph and daughter, of San Bernardino, California, friends of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Wilkerson, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lemons, Tacoma, Washington; Pfc. A. H. Wooster and Cpl. Harry Fillingame, of Fort Lewis, Washington, all friends of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Burkhardt of Eugene.

REVEAL JUNE WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Barbara Lutz of Corvallis to Glenn L. Ems of Cottage Grove, which took place June 3, at the parsonage of the Monroe Avenue Church of Christ, has just been revealed. The ceremony was performed by G. H. Cassell, minister of the local church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lutz of Corvallis and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Felix T. Ems of Cottage Grove.

Beachcomber

Denim clam-diggers with shirt.

By VERA WINSTON

FOR ROUGHING IT on the beach or for fishing there are sturdy little outfits that aren't without a touch of smariness and a sort of boyish charm. This one goes in for clam-diggers that are of white-striped gray denim. There's a back pocket and two hip pockets. A rope slipped through loops is used for a belt. A black cotton T shirt and a matching hat of the denim complete the outfit.

MISS DOROTHY HUBBELL METHODIST CHURCH BRIDE

Miss Dorothy Lynette Hubbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hubbell of Yoncalla, and James Hamilton Madden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Madden, of Westfir, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, July 2, at seven o'clock at the Cottage Grove Methodist church. The Rev. Frank Brown read the wedding ceremony.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of haze blue with white accessories and white hat with veil. Her corsage was white rosebuds and white baby glads.

Mrs. Quentin Rychard of Yoncalla was matron of honor. Her afternoon dress was pink and accessories were white. Her corsage was pink rosebuds and white baby glads.

Best man was Quentin Rychard. The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of avocado green with beige accessories and corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Madden chose black and white for her dress and black accessories for her son's wedding. Her corsage was red rosebuds.

A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, by the bride's aunts, Mrs. Lenora Pyburn, Mrs. A. Holt Grimes and Mrs. Ercehl Anlauf. Yellow rosebuds, white baby glads and white snapdragons decorated the rooms.

The couple will be at home at Yoncalla after July 15.

Mrs. Madden attended the University of Oregon and Oregon College of Education at Monmouth, and Mr. Madden attended Oregon State college.

Wedding guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Madden, Westfir; Mrs. Ralph Hinkle, Eugene, sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Hubbell and daughter Myrna of Yoncalla; Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Rychard, Yoncalla; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Kilbreath, Los Angeles, sister of the bridegroom; Rev. and Mrs. Frank Brown, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson and Dottie Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Ercehl Anlauf and Linda Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Holt Grimes and Richard, Mrs. Lenora Pyburn, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow M. Hubbell, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson D. Hubbell and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Hockett, all of Cottage Grove.
