

New $20.00 Bills Not Counterfeit

M. E. Eakin, vice president of the First National Bank said Saturday that the bank had had numerous requests regarding the authenticity of the new $20.00 bills. Following is a news release from the federal reserve board made at San Francisco last week.

"The picture of the White House which appears on the reverse of all $20 bills has been brought up-to-date, the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco reminded the public today, following inquiries from many persons who believed the new currency of that denomination now coming into circulation to be counterfeit.

The design heretofore in use showed the south front and grounds of the White House as they appeared in 1929. The new engraving was made from a photograph of the White House south front and grounds as they are today.

"Comparison of the two pictures will reveal the presence of additional trees and shrubbery and of heavier foliage, so that the grounds are a deeper green in the current design. Structural changes in the building include the balcony which has been added at the second floor level, and four chimneys in place of the two in 1929.

The White House flag, which blew straight out in 1929, hangs at an angle from its staff in the new picture, taken on a windless day. The bottom portions of the windows are of a color, giving the impression that they are open. Lettering beneath the building has been changed from "White House" to "The White House."

"There has been no change in the design for the front of the note."

Temperatures in the community hovered at 99 and 100 degrees all afternoon last Thursday. Monday was cool enough for sweaters.

Four couples from the community joined in an adventuresome deep-sea fishing trip at Winchester Bay, Saturday, but rough weather on the coast prevented them going out over the bar and fishing was unsuccessful. Two of the party became seasick and Mrs. Jack Long miraculously escaped serious injury when she caught her foot in a floating dock. Others in the party were: Jack Long, Mr. and Mrs. Monte Kuskie, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Easley and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barkemeyer.

Mrs. Furl Hardisty of Boise, Idaho is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Mills, Sylvia Stimmel accompanied Mrs. Hardisty from Idaho to spend the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Mills.

Evelyn Garman returned Friday night from Eugene where she has spent three weeks attending the school of music at the University. Hebron Christian church Bible study group met Tuesday evening and the young people's meeting was held Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Garman during the absence of Mrs. P. M. Campbell who was in Washington with her sister.

Mrs. Campbell returned home Saturday night.

Doris Hald is spending two weeks at St. Helens and Portland visiting relatives.

Mrs. S. T. Clark and children are picking berries again this year at Coburg. Betty is staying at home here caring for the two smaller children.

Bob Blackwell is flying to work these days, since completing a private landing strip at Dorena dam for his plane.

A cougar was seen on the clay mine road on Hobart Butte just above the bridge, Sunday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Quigley. The Gilham hounds were set on the trail but so far as is known he wasn't found.

A number of deer have been seen in early mornings recently along the roads by hoot-owl crews going to work.

Bean picking will start at the P. M. Campbell field next week.

Dwarf Fruit Trees
In planting dwarf fruit trees, there are two things to watch. Be sure to plant the trees at exactly the same depth as they grew in the nursery. Then they should be sturdily staked for the point of union between the graft just above the dwarf roots is vulnerable to breakage.

CURTIN
(Mrs. Grace Thompson, reporter Phone 1276)

Mrs. Flora Holt and Mrs. Grace Goins, Emily and Leslie, left early Friday morning for Eugene on the Shasta Daylight for Ferndale Washington, where they will visit with the Elmer Becks and will also meet the Harry Holt family who are cruising in nearby waters with their yacht, the Wanda Belle, and go on a short excursion trip with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Galdabini and children spent Friday night at the Earl Ritchie home at McKenzie Bridge. On Saturday both families motored on to Wickiup and Bend returning to their respective homes on Sunday.

Mrs. Ada Redifer was hostess Wednesday to a group of neighborhood women holding a potluck dinner at noon and a Stanley party in the afternoon.

Mrs. Morris Billings is confined to her home with the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lynam spent a few days in Portland last week.

The Verle Miller house has received an exterior coat of siding.

Gene Remington is suffering from a severe case of poison oak.

Much concern is felt by the Curtin community over the fire hazards and since last week's high temperatures and low humidity the situation is more critical. Several spot fires have occurred recently it is reported—two beyond the veneer mill besides two small conveyor fires. The Curtin Lumber company had a grass and sawdust fire Thursday evening and another one in about the same locale again Saturday afternoon which had gained considerable headway before being discovered.

The water pump was practically surrounded by fire and in a short time the heat would have been so intense one couldn't have reached the pump house, but the pump was started and the fire was soon brought under control by nearby residents. Others soon gathered when they saw the black smoke billowing skyward. Another fire Sunday burning along the railroad toward the veneer mill was being watched by several for fear the sparks would carry elsewhere.
