

GRAHAM-CALLANTINE NUPTIALS AT WALKER

Mrs. Norma A. Callantine of Saginaw became the bride of Norman E. Graham of Canyonville, Oregon at an impressive double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock held in the Little Church on the Hill at Walker. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Sherwood Smith. Two songs "Because" and "Always" were sung by Mrs. Sherwood Smith of Cottage Grove.

Candles and baskets of pink gladiolas and white carnations were used in the decorations of the church.

The bride wore a beige suit with blue and white accessories and her flowers were an orchid corsage. She carried a nylon lace-trimmed handkerchief, a gift of the matron of honor.

Mrs. Luke Hindman of Saginaw, matron of honor, wore a dress of pink linen with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The maid of honor, Norma Lou Callantine of Saginaw, wore a blue linen dress with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Best man was Luke Hindman of Saginaw, and Charles Sharon, also of Saginaw, served as usher. Hal Callantine and Jimmie Williams were the candle lighters.

A reception was held in Saginaw at the Drinkwater residence which was attractively decorated with gladiolas and white carnations.

The bridal cake and punch were served by Mrs. George Getty who was assisted by Mrs. George Drinkwater and Mrs. Luke Hindman.

Mrs. Harley Williams presided over the guest book.

SENIOR BIRTHDAY CLUB
 The Senior Birthday club met Tuesday, July 14 in the lovely yard of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shanda and held a potluck luncheon. The purpose was to entertain former members of the club which was organized February 7, 1935. The club has met continuously since that time, but some of the members have moved away but were able to be present at this time.
 At this time plans were made for the annual picnic to be held in August in the Shanda yard at which time the members will entertain their husbands.
 Mrs. Teich and Mrs. Shanda presented each member with a year-book containing the history of the club which will be treasured.

BRIDAL SHOWERS FOR LAVAUGHN STOKES

A bridal shower honoring Lavaughn Stokes was given by Or-lena Martin and Bette Thomas Friday evening July 15 at the Martin residence south of town.

The evening was spent in playing games.
 Delicious refreshments were served and the tables decorations were of sweetpea nosegays.

Miss Stokes received many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Myra Macready entertained in her home Thursday evening, July 14 with a surprise bridal shower in honor of Miss Lavaughn Stokes who is to be married to Lt. Fred Lionberger August 16.

Decorations for the shower were very lovely. Placed on the mantel of the fireplace was a beautiful bride doll on a white pedestal and on each side was a bouquet of red and white roses. Other bouquets of flowers were placed in various places to add a touch of color and beauty. Bridesmaids of rose, green and yellow were presented to each guest with their trays of refreshments and honoring the bride to be, a bride doll of white crepe paper with a picture of the bride was presented to Miss Stokes.

Many friends of the bride were present and honored her with many lovely gifts.

MT VIEW EXTENSION UNIT

The Mount View Extension Unit gathered on July 12 at 1:30 p.m. at the Swanson picnic grounds on Row river, with Francis Swanson as the hostess. Those being present were Lela Perini, Edna Brumfield, Ethyl Seaver, Mabel Cochran, Ermece Dykstra, Helen Cochran, Ethyl Hands, Helen Chezena, Florene Bales and Frances Swanson.

Edna Brumfield, the chairman, called the meeting to order. The afternoon was spent selecting project leaders and committees for the beginning of next year's unit work.

Plans for raising funds for the Azalea House and 4-H club scholarships were discussed.

Afterwards all enjoyed visiting. Delicious refreshments were served by Edna Brumfield and Meda Downs.

REBEKAHS BEGIN NEW TERM

Rebekahs met Friday evening, July 15, for the first meeting of the term with the new officers, recently installed, in the chairs and a good attendance of members.

Routine business was transacted and the noble grand, Gladys Hatch and vice grand, Dorothy Hayes, named their committees for the term.

At the close of the meeting those present adjourned to the dining hall where they were served refreshments of melon and cold beverage by the committee which was composed of the officers. The tables in the dining room were decorated with branches of myrtle, ferns and bowls of sweet peas.

The noble grand had previously passed out clippings which she had gathered from various sources—some informative, others humorous—and these were read while still at the tables and were well received.

The next meeting of the lodge will be held Friday evening August 5.

NEWLYWEDS HONORED

Mr. and Mrs. Lauback were pleasantly surprised at their home on Thursday evening of last week by friends and relatives of the happy couple whose marriage of June 11 was the motive of the party.

The friends served ice cream and cookies to those present and presented a gift to the honored guests. During the reception the guests sang appropriate songs for the event.

 About fifty were present.

DEAR MARY,

As friend to friend, I had to write and tell you some good news I just heard. Starting AUGUST FIRST we can all get those MONEY SAVING, VALUABLE, S & H GREEN STAMPS, when we buy HOME HEATING OILS from R. L. (BOB) SEDERGREEN, distributor of Union Oil company products in Cottage Grove, Creswell and Drain fields.

PERSONALLY, I'M TELEPHONING 76 today and giving my order and knew you would want to do the same.

Sincerely,
 June.
