MISS BLACKMORE IS BRIDE OF PARK HARTZELL

Miss Anna Blackmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blackmore of Cottage Grove became the bride of Park Hartzell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lackey, formerly of Cottage Grove, now of Eugene, at a 1:30 ceremony Saturday afternoon July 23 at the local Methodist church. The Rev. Frank Brown read the ceremony before the immediate members of the families of the couple.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of smoke gray and a baby orchid corsage.

Her matron of honor and only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Perkins Miller, who also wore a medium gray suit dress and corsage of rosebuds.

Best man was Donald Blackmore, brother of the bride.

After a short wedding trip to the coast the couple will be at home in Delight Valley.

Mr. Hartzell is employed at the Cottage Grove Lumber Company.

Those who helped celebrate the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Long and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Bridges and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harlin Chapman and baby, Mrs. Jay Burleson and family, Mrs. Dale Chapman and family, Dean Chapman and Julius Schoen of Cottage Grove, Henry Whetham, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Chapman, Alma, Milo, Ronald and Richard.

Miss Ada Carter Is July Bride At Double Ring Candlelight Ceremony

The Methodist church was decorated with tall baskets of white glads and white carnations Sunday evening, July 17, at eight o'clock for the wedding of Miss Ada Carter to Leo Roberts, both of Cottage Grove. White flickering tapers in candelabra on either side completed the decorations. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Derrell F. Carter of Raymondville, Texas and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Roberts of Cottage Grove. The double ring candlelight service was read by the Rev. Frank Brown, pastor.

Mrs. Boyd Allen, organist, played the traditional wedding marches, and accompanied the soloist, Miss Martha Roy, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, George Woolery. Her gown was of white slipper satin with fitted bodice, bertha collar with fitted bodice, pointed sleeves, and a full skirt ending in train. A coronet of waxed orange blossoms held her fingertip veil in place, and her bridal bouquet was of white gardenias and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid corsage.

Maid of honor was Miss Chloris Roberts of Portland, sister of the bridegroom. Her gown was floor-length peach sheer. Her headdress was of flowers matching her old-fashioned colonial bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Funk and Miss Thiela Murrell, both in blue sheers, with flowers in their hair matching their colonial bouquets.

Little flower girl, in peach sheer and carrying an old-fashioned colonial bouquet, was Brenda Hamby of Dorena, and her brother Douglas was ringbearer.

Clarence Atwood acted as best man, and ushers were J. D. McCoy and Benjamin McCall.

Wedding Kiss

CROONER Dick Haymes and red-haired Nora Eddington, former wife of actor Errol Flynn, combine a kiss and cake cutting after their marriage at Haymes' home in Beverly Hills, Calif. They will honeymoon in Honolulu. (International)

The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua crepe dress with brown and white accessories and the bride's sister, Mrs. George Woolery, wore a smoke blue linen with navy accessories. Both had corsages of pink carnations.

Approximately 87 attended the reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Woolery. Mrs. Gustav Walther was in charge of the reception with Mrs. Curby Rippey cutting the three-tiered wedding cake. Miss Louise Walther and Miss Della Gallo presided at the punch bowls and Mrs. William Helliwell poured coffee. Miss Betty Sheets had the guest book and Miss Norma Bradley was in charge of the gifts. Pink rosebuds decorated the bride's table and sweetpeas and glads were about the rooms.

For going away Mrs. Roberts wore a winter white gabardine suit with navy blue accessories and a white orchid corsage. Following their honeymoon trip to the state of Washington and British Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will be at home in the Omer Apartments.

The bride attended the Junior College at Brownsville, Texas and is employed in the Maynard Wilson law offices. Mr. Roberts served three years in the United States Army Air Corps and is now employed at Beck Motor Company.

AD LIBITUM CLUB PICNICS ON MCKENZIE

Members of the Ad Libitum club motored up the McKenzie last Thursday for a picnic dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Woolley. In the afternoon they toured the Woolleys' rose gardens which they reported beautiful.

Besides the regular members present there were Mrs. May Cooper of Springfield, a charter member, Mrs. Ransom Cone of Baker, and a sister of Mrs. Woolley, who is visiting at the Woolley home.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED WITH TWO SHOWERS

Miss Bonnie Russell, bride-elect of Harold Skelton, of Oakdale, California, was honored at two bridal showers recently. A miscellaneous shower was given her Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Ralph Spain and Mrs. Betty Bushnell at the home of Miss Russell's mother, Mrs. Walter Russell. Her home was beautifully decorated with cut flowers.

After an afternoon of appropriate games and the presentation of many lovely gifts to the honoree, the hostesses served the 17 guests delicious refreshments. Gifts were sent by many who were unable to attend.

The wedding date for Miss Russell and Mr. Skelton has been set for August 11.

On Thursday evening of last week the Misses Carolyn Moore, Cleo Stroh and Shirley Huff entertained for Miss Russell at the home of Miss Moore. The honoree was the recipient of many useful and lovely gifts, and refreshments were served the guests: Miss Bonnie Russell, Mrs. C. W. Moore, Mrs. W. G. Russell, Mrs. Lois Carpenter Montgomery, Barbara Miller, Betty Russell, Dixie Wallace, Dolores VanMatre, Sydney Sheets, Jean Rickard and the hostesses.

TEEN-AGE DANCE SUCCESS, ANOTHER FRIDAY NIGHT

The Teen-age dance held Friday night in the Jefferson gymnasium was such a success it was decided to have another one Friday night. Approximately 125 teen-agers turned out for the affair.

The program during intermission consisted of piano numbers by Morris Culver and a quiz. Music for dancing was furnished by records. Chaperones for the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dusenberry, Mrs. Harold Hicks and Mrs. Pat Chadwell.

Another teen-age dance is planned for Friday night, July 29, at 8:00, in the gym. The theme will be "Room Full of Roses." The program during intermission will be a novelty dance by Sue Chadwell; humorous reading, Pauline Dyksterhuis and a surprise musical number.
