

LONDON

A special meeting for the voters has been called for Friday evening 8 p.m., July 29, at the school house to vote on the use of surplus money in the general fund to be used for re-building on the old school building.

Baby Day at 4-H Mothers Club
Babies were the order of the day Wednesday, July 20, at the London 4-H Mothers club meeting at the club house, when nine small babies were visitors and by an unusual coincidence, all babies were dressed in blue. Babies attending were: Judy Lynn, and mother Mrs. Don Ewing of Cottage Grove; Sally and Connie Bradley, granddaughters of Mrs. Mae Anderson; Linda Jean and mother, Mrs. Wilbur Thorpe; Patrick and Michael and mother Mrs. Ed Miller; Ray and Danny and mother, Mrs. Wallace Thorpe; and Barbara Lee and mother, Mrs. Harold Thorpe of Yoncalla.

Besides the babies, ten other small children attended, and seventeen members and visitors, quite the best turnout of the busy summer season.
Darlene Paul and Anna Reeves were also visitors.
A covered dish cafeteria style luncheon was held at noon with the children being served in the nursery play room.
A summer bouquet of purple cantebury bells, red poppies, yellow calandulas and white sweet-peas was brought by Mrs. Emma Kelly. Housekeepers were Mrs. Mae Anderson assisted by Mrs. Harold Thorpe and Mrs. Wallace Thorpe.
A new quilt was put in the frames for Mrs. Jeanne Morton, an elaborate hand applique.
A business meeting was held in the afternoon, conducted by Mrs. Gale Roby, acting president, in the absence of Mrs. Esther Banton, president. A treasurer's report was given by secretary-treasurer Mrs. Lawana Sugg and report on money received from the last quilt. A report was made by Mrs. Morton on the 4-H club camp and that one scholarship was not used by Margy Newton, alternate for Susie Perry, who won two scholarships for camp.

A thank you note was read from George Clark in appreciation of his scholarship to 4-H camp.

Gladys Kelly was asked to see about material for a set of quilting frames for the club. Lawana Sugg was appointed to buy a hot plate, voted to be purchased by the club for use on warm club days.

Ilia Sibley was unanimously elected vice-president of the club to complete the year in place of Mrs. Shirley Wood, who moved away.
Next meeting is August 3.

Merrymakers Meeting

A mid-summer noon luncheon and a social afternoon of cards was held July 21, when Mrs. Zelma Small entertained the Merrymakers club at her home. Receiving prizes for high score was Mrs. Dorothea Hess, cake decorator set; for second, Mrs. Lawana Sugg, rubber dish mat; and for low, Mrs. Gladys Kelly, spice rack set.

Four pairs of beautiful hand embroidered pillowcases were presented the hostess.

Mrs. Sugg will entertain at the next mid-summer meeting at the club, August 11, at her home at Woodard's camp.
