Wedding of Former Cottage Grove Man At McMinnville, 31st

A wedding of interest to his many friends here was that of Lewis Sturges, a former resident, who exchanged wedding vows with Miss Mildred Jean McMahan Sunday, July 31, at St. Barnabas Episcopal church, McMinnville. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. James Stuart McMahan of McMinnville and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Sturges of Gresham, former Cottage Grove residents. The Rev. L. Franklin Evenson officiated at four o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white marquisette over satin, with a train. She wore a fingertip veil of lace-edged illusion, held by a headpiece of seed pearls, and carried a bouquet of rubrum lilies.

Miss Frances Glibert of Eugene, maid of honor, wore a gold taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of lavender gladioli. The Misses Norma Cass and Mavis Eggens, both of Salem, were bridesmaids. They wore similar frocks of pale green taffeta and carried bouquets of gold gladioli. The attendants are sorority sisters of the bride.

Harry Sturges of Cottage Grove was best man for his brother, and ushers were Robert Hartley and Robert Huddle. Joe Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Richards of Eugene, sang "Holy Matrimony" before the ceremony.

Miss June Malcolm is First Bride In New Church of Christ, July 30

Courtesy Kessel-Ella Studio

Miss Lola June Malcolm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Malcolm, and Louis Sanford Wiese, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wiese, all of Cottage Grove, were the first couple to be married in the new Church of Christ, Sixth and Gibbs Avenue. They pledged their troth at a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening, July 30, at eight o'clock, beneath an archway of ivy with baskets of pink and white gladioli on either side. The double ring ceremony was performed by F. Sherwood Smith, pastor of the church.

Mr. Malcolm gave his daughter in marriage. Her street-length dress was of slate blue satin and accessories were white. She wore a rhinestone necklace, a gift of the groom, and for "something old" she wore her paternal great-grandmother's engagement ring. Her flowers were white carnations, pink rosebuds and a single orchid.

Maid of honor was Miss Mae Malcolm, the bride's sister. She wore a dress of aqua crepe and had a halo headpiece of aqua and gold lace and lavender sweetpeas. Her bouquet was of lavender asters, sweet peas and aqua and gold ribbons.

The bridesmaid was Miss Vera June Mason, who had a gown of archid-colored crepe, an orchid and gold halo headpiece and bouquet of lavender asters and sweetpeas with orchid and gold satin streamers. The Little flower girl was the bride's sister, Vickie Lee, who wore a yellow taffeta dress and pink rosebud corsage. She carried a basket of rose petals, which she scattered as the bride and her father approached the altar.

Stanley Wiese was his brother's best man. Ushers and candlelighters were the bride's brother, Wesley Malcolm, and Kenneth Westfall.

Roy Aubrey sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Jerry McCormack, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. Mrs. Alfred Odom, the bridegroom's aunt, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Don Lyon presided over the punch table. Miss Mary Ann Hall had charge of the gifts and Miss Donna Funk was in charge of the guest book. Miss Patricia Wiese assisted with the gifts and Miss Helen Huff, Miss Elva Thies and Miss Patricia Aubrey assisted with the refreshments.

The bride's table was centered with the wedding cake and other table decorations were gladioli.

Following a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches the young couple will be at home in the Hagen apartments.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. W. L. Kennedy, of Bellingham, Washington; her great-aunt, Mrs. J. E. Faulkner, also of Bellingham; Mrs. Alfred Odom of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Foster Odom and daughter Judy Ann of Arlington, Washington and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson of North Bend. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Faulkner attended the bride's parents' wedding twenty-one years ago.
