POTLUCK PICNIC AND SOCIAL BY SDA MEMBERS

About fifty members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church were present at the picnic and potluck supper held Sunday afternoon and evening, August 21, at the E. E. Bartruff home. The event was sponsored by the Sabbath school officers under the leadership of the superintendent, Mrs. E. C. Dye.

The afternoon's entertainment included circle games, relay races, and volleyball.

Two guests from Kingston, Jamaica, Miss Lee Henriques and Miss Patricia Stockhausen, were present at the gathering and told many stories of the growth of the Seventh-day Adventist church and medical work in their country. They said that there is a Seventh-day Adventist church for every mile and a half of Jamaica, which is 140 miles long. Miss Henriques and Miss Stockhausen plan to return to their country after some work and study in Seventh-day Adventist hospitals in the United States.

After the evening of visiting and more games and volleyball, refreshing ice-cold watermelon was served by the Bartruffs.

MEETING OF NEW SCOUT TROOP AUGUST 30

A meeting of the new Scout troop sponsored by the Knights of Columbus will be held Tuesday evening at 7:00 o'clock in the basement of the armory.

Any boys 11 to 14 are invited to attend and become charter members of the new troop. Bob Gierau, scoutmaster, Harry Sturges, assistant scoutmaster.

Wife Preservers

If you want to get an extremely high luster on a piece of furniture, try the type of hard wax used for automobiles. Also use the same cleaning preparation used on autos before applying the wax.

Chiffon And Crepe

Pretty nightgown with lace trim.

By VERA WINSTON

TWO FABRICS are sometimes better than one when plotting a particularly pretty design be it for street or intimate wear. This dainty nightgown uses flesh colored chiffon for the bodice and matching crepe for the skirt. Alencon type lace is posed over the chiffon bodice, and an inset band of satin terminates in a bow in back. Short satin sleeves extend from the dropped shoulder line. This is a charming gown for a gift or for self-pampering.

Delicious Dessert Recipes

By ALICE DENHOFF

LET'S splurge today, in print, anyway, and start off a feast of goodies with variations of that luxury dessert, Baked Alaska.

Individual Gingerbread Alaskas come first. To make 8 servings empty contents of quick prepared gingerbread mix into a mixing bowl. Add 1/4 c. cold water or milk to mixture. Stir vigorously until free from lumps then stir in 1/4 c. more milk or water gradually. Pour into large sized, greased muffin pans or 8 individual baking cups. Bake at 375 F. for 25 to 30 min.

Remove From Pan

Remove muffins from pan; allow to cool thoroughly. Carefully cut a cone from center of each muffin. Fill cavity with vanilla ice cream. Top with meringue made by beating 2 egg whites until stiff, then adding 1/4 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. vanilla and 1/4 c. sugar gradually. Continue beating until mixture is fine grained and will hold its shape. Return to hot oven (425 F.) for about 3 min. or until top of meringue is lightly browned. Should be served at once. Graham Baked Alaska comes next and one doesn't have to be a super sleuth to guess that this version is made with graham crackers! Start off with the meringue for this one. For 2 servings, beat 2 egg whites until stiff but not dry. Add 1/4 c. sugar gradually, beating constantly. Roll 3 graham crackers to make fine crumbs; fold into meringue. Then prepare a "base" by spreading 2 graham crackers with jam or jelly and topping with 2 more graham crackers. Place "sandwiches" together on baking sheet. When ready for dessert, heap vanilla ice cream frozen very hard, in center of top of cracker sandwiches, keeping the ice cream 1/2 inch inside of edges. Cover ice cream and edges of crackers completely with the meringue. Bake in preheated very hot oven (500 F.) 2 to 3 min. or until meringue is slightly brown. Cut in halves, and serve at once. Half a pint of ice cream is sufficient for this recipe.

For a quickly-made dessert here is another recipe that relies on cookies, this time, those good, old fashioned ginger snaps. Arrange the ginger snaps in alternate layers with apple sauce or stewed apples in individual serving dishes. Chill until ready to serve and accompany with cream or custard or lemon sauce. Try crumbled ginger snaps in making regular baked Apple Betty, too, for the ginger flavor does "snap up" the apples.
