Miss Sara Bjorset August Bride In Garden Ceremony

In a setting of natural plantings of red and white geraniums and white petunias on the terrace of the home of Mrs. Georg Bjorset, her daughter Sara Colleen became the bride of Lynn Anderson Hamilton, Sunday afternoon, August 21, at four o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Georg Bjorset and the late Georg Bjorset of Cottage Grove, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hamilton of Eugene. The Rev. Frank Brown, pastor of the Methodist church, read the single ring ceremony.

Clyde W. Osborne of Portland, close personal friend of the bride's father, gave Miss Bjorset in marriage. Her gown was of white eyelet embroidery, colonial style, with tight fitted bodice, cascade down front, elbow length sleeves, and with deep ruffle eyelet skirt flounces draped in back to form a short train. Her illusion veil was held in place with a shirred bandeau. For something old and borrowed she carried an antique silver bouquet holder in which were her flowers, white geraniums and verbenas. The holder was loaned by Mrs. Frank Connell of Eugene.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. John E. Duffy, of Richmond, California, and bridesmaid was Miss Marie Lombard of Cottage Grove, both wearing identical dresses of white organdy, shirtwaist style, Peter Pan collar, short sleeves and flared skirts. Their large white organdy picture hats had geranium red chiffon trim, and their colonial bouquets were of red geraniums.

Robert Hamilton of Eugene acted as best man for his brother. Another brother, William Hamilton, also of Eugene, was usher.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Scott Adams of Portland, and sorority sister of the bride, sang "Ave Maria" (Gounod) and "I Love Thee" (Grieg), accompanied by Miss Betty Bagley, who also played the wedding march.

A buffet smorgasbord was served at the reception which followed with Mrs. C. C. Cruse as hostess. The reception music, piano and violin, was played by Arthur Hendershott and Mrs. Robert Carmichael.

Mrs. W. H. Daugherty cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Clyde W. Osborne poured. Mrs. H. W. Lombard presided at the buffet table and Mrs. Norman Newman of Aberdeen, Washington and Miss Choris Roberts of Portland presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving were Miss Beth Basler, Portland; Mrs. Dan Dunn, Reedsport; Miss Joan Rambo, Portland; Miss Gloria Johnson, Eugene; Mrs. Wilbur Workman Jr., Cottage Grove; Mrs. Marvin Thomas, Eugene; Miss Martha Crick, Glendale, Calif.; Miss Naomi Fulton, Portland and Miss Jean Fidler of Salem. Mrs. Richard Taggesell of Portland had charge of the guest book.

For a wedding trip to the coast the bride wore a blue and white checked suit, navy taffeta blouse and navy accessories. They will make their home on Marquam Hill, Portland, where he will enter the University of Oregon medical school in September.

The bride and groom graduated with the 1949 class at the University of Oregon where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority, and he was affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hennessy, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Basler, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dryden, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Taggesell, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. John E. Duffy Jr., Richmond, California; Miss Martha Crick, Glendale, California; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Minor, Sutherlin; Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Dunn, Reedsport; Misses Joan Risley, Beth Basler, Joan Rambo, Beverly Miller, Choris Roberts, Nancy Starkweather, Naomi Fulton and Mildred Chetty, John Anderson, Ralph Stratford and John Rambo, all of Portland; Carol Bartel, Redmond; Mrs. Donald Graham, Miss Julia Graham and Miss Mary Graham, all of Prineville.

Milking Time

Average time for milking a cow by machine is 5.3 minutes; by hand it's 8.7 minutes per cow.

Marriage Vows Read Thursday, August 18, for Couple in Floral Setting at First Baptist Church in Albany

Baskets of Corona gladioli, deep pink asters, white candelabra with a background of palms made an attractive setting in the First Baptist church at Albany, Thursday, August 18, at eight o'clock for the double ring wedding ceremony of Miss Arlene Norma Grotenhuis to Gordon Evans Schrenk. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arle Grotenhuis and the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Schrenk, all of Albany.

The couple plighted their troth before three hundred and fifty relatives and friends, Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson, pastor of the First Baptist church of Salem, read the ceremony.

Mrs. Gordon Walker of Roseburg, played the traditional wedding marches, and accompanied the soloist, Miss Clara Hansen, of Olympia, who sang "At Dawning," by Cadman; "Because," by D'Hardelot and "The Love of God" by Lehman.

Candlelighters were David Grotenhuis, brother of the bride, and Douglas Rigg of Portland.

The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father. Her gown was of white slipper satin, lace trimmed net yoke with an off-the-shoulder effect and the skirt terminating in a full court train. Her three-tiered fingertip veil was held in place with a Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of rubrum lilies and stephanotis in shower effect.

Miss Rena Huntamer of Olympia, Washington was maid of honor. Her gown was orchid shaded taffeta with lace under flounce. Her costume was offset with mits to match her dress, and she carried a nosegay of purple asters tied with green ribbons and matching headdress.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jane Luther of Roseburg and Miss Margaret Clem of Albany, both in identical gowns of pale green taffeta and carrying nosegays of pale pink asters with orchid ribbons. Their gowns were fashioned after the maid of honor's dress.

Little Miss Christine Groat was flower girl in a dainty pale yellow taffeta gown, made like the other attendants. She carried a miniature basket filled with rose petals.

Master Phillip Crocker was ring bearer, carrying the rings in a rubrum lily.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length dress of wood violet shade with bead trim and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a floor-length dress of periwinkle blue with bead trim and corsage of burgundy shaded gladioli.

Best man was Earl Roth of Portland, and ushers were Robert Hansen of Olympia, Washington; W. C. Martin Jr., Cottage Grove and Leo Schlegel and Gale Walker, both of Albany.

The reception was held in the church parlors, decorated with asters, roses and gladioli. Mrs. Clarence Chestnut of Grants Pass, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Ben Vick of Albany, cut the wedding cake which was in the form of a cross. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. E. T. Stiles and Mrs. N. I. Notquist. Assisting with the reception were: Mrs. Ladonna Horstman, Misses Betty Clausen, Janeth Buchner, Ruth Govier, Phyllis Dallas, Mrs. Lou Spreen, Mrs. Pearl Coleman, Mrs. T. I. Pearl, Mrs. Ivan Kenagy, Mrs. Earl Pollock, and Mrs. Ralph Harman. Mrs. Earl Roth was in charge of the guest book. Providing music for the reception were Miss Ruth Mix, Miss Bonnie Vick and W. C. Martin Jr.

For the wedding trip to the coast the bride wore a red dress with navy topcoat and accessories to match, and a red carnation corsage.

After September 1 the couple will be at home in Portland, where Mr. Schrenk is employed by the Chas. H. Lilly Seed Company.

The bride attended high school at Junction City and one year at Whitworth college, and graduated from Multnomah School of the Bible, Portland, in June.

The groom attended Cottage Grove grade school, Albany high school, Multnomah School of the Bible and Pacific Business College and served 20 months in service of World War II.

Attending from Cottage Grove were: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Martin, W. C. Martin Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cruse, Mr. and Mrs. George Foster, Mr. and Mrs. William Pruitt, Mrs. Albert Helliwell, Mrs. K. K. Mills, Miss Lola Howe and Miss Lena Zendon.

REBEKAHS ELECT V. GRAND

At the regular meeting of the Rebekahs Friday night in the IOOF hall Mrs. Jackson Godard was elected vice grand to fill the vacancy recently made by the resignation of the regular vice grand. Mrs. Godard will be installed at the next meeting.

The charter was draped in memory of Mrs. George Sweet, using the beautiful Rebekah ceremony.
