cap with shoulder-length veil. Her flowers were a white orchid, gardenias and stephanotis with shower of satin ribbon and stephanotis. Mrs. Claude Hensley of Drain was matron of honor. Her dress was fashioned after the bride's in yellow taffeta. She carried a bouquet of rosebuds. Candelights were Barbara Marsh, sister of the bride, and Maxine Blue.

Virgil Newton, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The bride's mother wore a black taffeta dress and the bridegroom's mother also chose black for her son's wedding. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

Miss Martha Roy sang "Always" and "Because," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Roy Reed.

The H. A. Marsh home was decorated with yellow mums for the reception that followed. Mrs. Charles Marsh cut the wedding cake, and Mrs. Charlene White presided at the punch bowl.

For going away Mrs. Newton wore a green plaid suit, black accessories and her wedding orchid. They are now at home on West Main.

The bride graduated from the local high school in 1948, and is employed at the local telephone office. The groom attended the local high school, and served in the Navy. He is now employed by the county with the road department.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were: Mrs. Ella White and Mrs. Charlene White of Sweet Home; Mrs. Lela Wolfe of Hard River; Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Newton of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Satterfield, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ingram, Eugene and Miss Esta Garrett of Sacramento, California.

BRIDAL SHOWER HONORS MISS HELEN HICKETHIER

At 8 p.m. October 21 friends and classmates of Miss Helen Hickethier, bride-elect of Earl R. Rose met at the home of Mrs. Ann Adams, 330 Third street, and surprised Miss Hickethier with a miscellaneous bridal shower.

Those attending were Mesdames Ann Adams, H. C. Hickethier, Misses Ruth Long, Jackie Lee Fox, Marjorie Pynch, Laurita Lundborn, Romona Nerlie, Elsie Hickethier, and hostesses Miss Louise Walther and Florence Hickethier. The honoree opened many useful and lovely gifts after which cake, punch, jello and dinner mints were served.

WORLD WIDE GUILD GIRLS HOLD FALL RALLY

Sixty World Wide Guild Girls and counselors from Baptist churches in the Uniqua Association met last Friday and Saturday in the Baptist church at Cottage Grove for their regular fall rally. Sessions were presided over by Dolores Goddard, student at the University of Oregon, who was president of the group. Mrs. Bernadette Holton of Eugene, who is the Association director, and Mrs. J. Hammerly of Portland, who is the state director, were both present to help the leaders of local guild chapters with their plans for the coming year.

Missionary speakers for the meeting were Rev. and Mrs. Wm. W. Sutterlin who prior to coming to the present pastorate in Cottage Grove, served as Northern Baptist missionaries in Swatow, China for several years. On Friday evening Mr. Sutterlin showed moving pictures of the mission schools in this area which has only last week gone under communist control. Mrs. Sutterlin spoke at the closing service on Saturday on the rally theme, "A Life Worthy of the Calling."

Also featured on the program was a "Model Guild Meeting" presented by the girls from the Willamette Chapel in Eugene.

Delegates were entertained overnight in the homes of members of the local Baptist church, and ladies of the Dorcas Circle served the luncheon on Saturday. New officers elected by the group to serve this coming year include Phyllis Ware of Eugene, president, and Betty Parrett of Cottage Grove, vice-president.

REBEKAHS HOLD WHITE ELEPHANT SALE

Cottage Grove Rebekah lodge met Friday evening, October 21, for the regular meeting with the noble grand, Gladys Hatch, presiding. There was a small attendance as several officers and members were absent because of illness. Routine business was conducted and first nomination of officers was held at this time. The members voted to donate $10.00 to the local Halloween Recreation program.

The noble grand announces that September, October and November are the Harvest Festival months during which time the members are requested to bring donations of canned or preserved foods to the Odd Fellows hall and they will be packed and sent to the IOOF home in Portland.

After the meeting the members retired to the dining hall to enjoy hot-luck refreshments and a white elephant auction sale was conducted with Harry Lewis acting as auctioneer. More than $22.00 was realized from the sale and will be used to purchase plastic table covers.

The next meeting will be on November 4 when second nomination of officers will be held.

CIRCLE FOUR REPORTS ON RUMMAGE SALE

Circle No. 4 of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Bert Hatch on Monday evening, October 24. Mrs. James Racknor was assistant hostess. Chairman Cleone Gawley presided at the business session during which time the results of the rummage sale were announced. The circle realized $256.18 from the sale and this amount has been added to the funds of the Association.

The program chairman, Eve Thwing, was in charge of the program and gave an interesting article concerning the prophet Amos. This was followed by general discussion, after which the hostesses served refreshments.

The next meeting will be held on the fourth Monday evening in November.

NOV. 1 SET FOR N. OF W.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold the regular business meeting Tuesday night, November 1, at 8 o'clock in the IOOF hall.

Bride Carries Lace Hanky From First World War, at Church Wedding Ceremony

Miss Myrtle Alice Hanks carried a dainty lace handkerchief sent from France by the groom's father to the groom's mother during World War I as she was escorted to the altar by her father at a pretty church wedding, Saturday night, October 23, at eight o'clock in the Methodist church. The Rev. Frank Brown read the ceremony as Miss Hanks and Ralph Floyd Allen exchanged wedding rings in a candlelight service before a large group of relatives and friends. The altar was decorated with large white chrysanthemums, and flickering tapers burned in the nave windows. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hanks and the bridegroom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Allen, all of Cottage Grove.

The bride wore a white velvet gown, fashioned in princess style with long sleeves pointed at the wrists and a sweetheart neckline. She wore a three-strand necklace of pearls. Her three-quarter sheer veil was held in place with a heart shaped headress. She carried a white Bible and white orchid.

Miss Rosemary Hanks, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her floor-length gown was of light green taffeta, fitted bodice, puff sleeves, sweetheart neckline and full skirt with bustle effect. She carried a bronze chrysanthemum colonial bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Miss Pat Scott and Miss Laura Porter. Miss Scott wore gold satin fitted bodice, cap sleeves and gored skirt, and carried a bronze mum colonial bouquet. Miss Porter's gown was of green taffeta with lace yoke, Peter Pan collar, cap sleeves, and full bustle back skirt. Her colonial bouquet was of lavender mums.

Little Judy Allen, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl in a pink organza floor-length gown fashioned with fitted bodice, Peter Pan collar and full gathered skirt.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of brown taffeta and gold accessories. Mr. Allen's mother chose a green gabardine street-length dress with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of gardenias and rosebuds.

Boyd Allen was best man for his brother, and ushers were Charles William Hanks, brother of the bride, Jerry Tennis and Damon Scott. Abe Hanks Jr., brother of the bride, and Charles Blue were candlelighters.

Soloist was Miss JoAnn Palleske of Eugene, who sang "My Happiness" and "O Promise Me," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Boyd Allen. Mrs. Allen also played the traditional wedding marches.

The church parlor was decorated with lavender mums and candles for the reception, and of the gifts, and Mrs. George Harker of Corvallis had the guest book.

For a wedding trip the couple went to Crater Lake, and they are now at home at 322½ South Second street. The bride wore a grey box jacket suit with navy accessories and her orchid on their wedding trip.

Out of town guests here for the wedding and reception were: Mrs. Stella McArthur of Cashmere, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hanks, Clackamas; Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hanks, Jean and John, Portland; Mrs. Lowena Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. George Harker and John VanNortwick, all of Corvallis; Harry Hanks, Mr. and Mrs. G. Moxley, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Palleske, JoAnn Palleske, Edward Kierchoff and Mrs. Kierchoff, all of Eugene; Ralph Hutchison, Miss Betty Dyksterhus and Carol Nash, all of Portland; Miss Mickie Snapp and Eugene Dyksterhus of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. John Wykowski, Yoncalla and Mr. and Mrs. Gale Lebow and Susan of Duxton.

Louise Hanks, cousin of the bride, entertained for the bride couple Friday evening following the wedding rehearsal, at her home. A miniature bride and heart-shaped cake graced the table at which dainty refreshments were served.
