

"Something Old, Something New, Borrowed
And Blue, Carried Out at Wedding

"Something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue" was carried out in the wedding of Miss Helen Huff to Clyde Davidson, when the couple repeated their "I do's" Wednesday night, October 12, at 8:00 o'clock in the Church of Christ, Sixth and Gibbs. For something old she carried a lace-trimmed linen hanky belonging to her paternal grandfather, which had been a gift to her on her eighteenth birthday anniversary. Also in the some-

TWO-YEAR-OLD HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY
Little two-year-old Elizabeth Mills celebrated her birthday anniversary October 20 when her mother entertained 10 little guests and their mothers. The little tots enjoyed games and refreshments of ice cream and individual little cakes, each inscribed with the name of the guest. Elizabeth received many gifts, and each guest was given a toy balloon as a favor by Elizabeth's mother, Mrs. Robert Mills.

The little guests present with their mothers were: Dennis and Deanne Fraser, Ronnie Boyer, Marilyn McCormack, Mark Holaday, Catharine Weeldreyer, Nancy Keep, Buzze Guggler, and Roger Randall.

HALLOWEEN PARTY FOLLOWS LODGE SESSION
After the regular business session Tuesday night of the Royal Neighbors in the Eagles hall, Halloween party was enjoyed with several members in clever costumes.

For entertainment a skit "The Auto Age" was presented by Carl Forger, Margaret Lasater, Elsie DeYoung, Agnes Henderer and Nellie Blackmore; Fern Anderson and Elsie DeYoung gave readings and Myrtle Neet a piano solo which was followed by a whistling contest. The program closed with a square dance with Nellie Blackmore at the piano.

Halloween decorations were carried out in the dining room and lodge hall. Pumpkin pie and coffee were served by the members at a late hour.

RAINBOW GIRLS ADOPT OLIVER GILBERTSON
At the regular meeting of Rainbow for Girls held Monday night it was voted to adopt Oliver Gilbertson as their grand daddy. Mr. Gilbertson resides at the Masonic and Eastern Star home at Forest Grove. Girls interested in corresponding with their new grand daddy, please contact your mother advisor, Mrs. Malcolm.

Sandra Sue Carlson was installed as nature at this meeting. Plans for the Rainbow Girls party on November 19 are to be discussed fully at the next regular meeting, which will be November 14, and will be formal initiation.

MRS. McLAUGHLIN HOSTESS
Mrs. L. J. McLaughlin was hostess to the Utopia club members and guests Thursday at a dessert course and social afternoon. Arrangements of chrysanthemums were about her rooms. Special guests were Mrs. Julia Powell and Mrs. Horace Taylor of Lorane. Each member brought a bottle and presented it to the hostess to add to her bottle collection. During the afternoon names were drawn for the Christmas gift exchange.

The November meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Vinal T. Randall Sr.

LATHAM SCHOOL CLUB SETS MEETING
The Latham School club will meet Tuesday night, November 1 at 8:00 p.m. at the school house. All parents are urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. George McQueen Observe
Golden Wedding Anniversary, October 16

Mr. and Mrs. George W. McQueen celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, October 16, in the afternoon at a reception held at their home, when their children and niece entertained 150 guests in their honor. Entertaining for them were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wilkinson of Portland, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George R. McQueen of Cottage Grove, and niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Neet, also of Cottage Grove.

Many bouquets of gold and silver adorned the living room, and the refreshment table was beautifully decorated with a three-tiered cake with 50th anniversary ornament in gold, surrounded by gold chrysanthemums, gilded ivy and gold tapers. The couple received many lovely gifts, cards of congratulations and felicitations.

Serving the cake were Mrs. William Bartels, Mrs. Fred Bartels and Mrs. Mae Griffin. Mrs. Eugene Dove, Mrs. William Reeves and Mrs. Elbert Bede poured the coffee. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. William Norris, Mrs. Byron Dow and Mrs. Dale Kintzley. Mrs. Anna Adams was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. McQueen was dressed in gunmetal grey for the occasion, and wore an orchid corsage.

Out of town guests here for the reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bede and daughter Ruth, William McQueen, Mrs. Nell Sprouts, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. George Berks and son Kin of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hill and son Donnie, Mrs. Zaida Morrell; Mrs. Byron Dow, Mrs. Eunice DeLassus and children Tomi and Elaine, Mrs. Fred Bartels, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Neet, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ward, all of Springfield; Mrs. Dale Kintzley and son Ronnie of Fall Creek; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Bangs, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Wilkerson, all of Eugene; Mrs. Norman Brown and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilkerson of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dove of Milwaukie; Mrs. Mae Griffin of Anchorage, Alaska, and Mrs. Lettie Good of Creswell.

George McQueen and Bertha Griffin were married October 15, 1899 in Cottage Grove at the old Griffin home, where the Gibbens brothers now stands. Mr. McQueen was born in Doon, Iowa, and came to Cottage Grove in 1891, and has been in active business ever since.

Mrs. McQueen was born in Malad City, Idaho, and came here when a small child. They have two children, Mrs. Kathryn Wilkerson of Portland and George R. McQueen of Cottage Grove and three grandchildren, James and Thomas Wilkerson of Portland and Dennis McQueen of Cottage Grove.

COOLEY HILL CLUB MAKES HOSPITAL CONTRIBUTION
Members of the Cooley Hill club gathered at the home of Mrs. Arthur Dugan Thursday for the regular monthly meeting. It was announced at this time that Mrs. Jack Godard was the winner of the quilt the club members made and quilted, and from the proceeds it was possible for the club to contribute $75.00 to the Cottage Grove hospital fund. The club is very thankful to all who helped make this possible.

Mrs. Dugan served cider and doughnuts at the close of the afternoon. The next meeting will be November 17 at the home of Mrs. Claude Allen.

CLUB HAS DESSERT
The LaComus club was entertained Tuesday by Mrs. Frank Gierau at a dessert and social afternoon of bridge. An additional guest was Mrs. Robert Boyce Jr. High score was received by Mrs. Gierau.

Mrs. George Jacobsen will entertain the club at the next meeting.

CLUB STUDYING "WORLD EVENTS"
Mrs. Charles Hall was in charge of the program presented Tuesday night at the city library by the Tuesday Evening club. Her topic was "American Interests in the Middle East." The club's topic for the year is "World Events." A discussion followed the program.

FM STATION TO RECORD BAND, CHORUS NUMBERS

A radio station operated by the Eugene Vocational School will record three high school band and a chorus number at the high school auditorium next Monday, it was learned today. The offer to record the program by special arrangement came as a surprise and school officials said they did not have too much information on the program as yet. The Vocational School operates an FM station.
