

BLAST THAT ROCKED JERUSALEM

BECAUSE IT WAS CONSIDERED too dangerous to move, and equally dangerous to keep around, three tons of TNT are set off in Jerusalem. The resultant blast shook the city. Just behind the steeple of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, a smoke cloud rises from the explosion. The TNT had been stored for use during the recent hostilities. (International)

DELIGHT VALLEY

(Mrs. E. D. Sherrill, reporter phone 6284)

A pleasant surprise was afforded the Sherrill family on Wednesday by the unexpected visit of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rusk of Empire, before leaving for their home, on Thursday morning, a trip to the new dam was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Reed and daughter, Joan Kelly, spent four days in the Portland area last week, visiting with Mrs. Reed's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lindeman. While here, Joan had the pleasure of visiting former schoolmates and teachers at the Milwaukee high school.

At the regular weekly meeting of the 4-H Delight Valley Breakfast club, on Tuesday, Jean Eller Sherrill was elected official reporter for the 4-H paper, a monthly edition to all clubs. So far, the new cooks have learned the art of making toast, cereals, and are now concocting milk dishes.

Joe Gnos had the misfortune of falling from his horse on Saturday and suffered a painfully sprained ankle and a cracked rib, but is well on the mend again.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Norris motored to Portland over the past week end. They were accompanied as far as Oswego by Mrs. W. A. Hemenway and her granddaughter, Marjorie Hemenway, where they visited at the home of Mrs. H. E. Inlow.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Oster and family visited in Eugene on Saturday at the home of Mrs. Oster's aunt, Mrs. Frank Brown, who has been confined to her bed for the past eight weeks following a heart attack.

Mrs. Davidson, school clerk for this district, has just completed the school census with 53 registered.

Ralph Davidson had a very good day's fishing at Florence on Sunday, bringing home two dandy salmon, weighing eleven and twelve pounds.

MT. VIEW

(Mrs. C. A. Peterson, reporter phone 18-F-11)

Mt. View P-TA will hold its meeting at the schoolhouse Thursday evening, November 10 at 8 o'clock.

Mt. View Extension Unit will be held at the Lawrence Chapman home Thursday at 10 o'clock.

Ramona Nerlie and Janice Swanson were co-hostesses at a bridal shower given at the Nerlie home, honoring Edna Ann Peterson, Thursday night, Nov. 3. There were 14 guests present. The evening was spent with a few games and the opening of the gifts after which cake, jelly and cider were served.

Neighborhood Neighbors club will meet at the home of Mrs. Mabel Cochran at 10 o'clock, Nov. 16 for an all day of hard work. Members are asked to bring thimbles, thread and scissors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith of eastern Oregon and Mrs. May Warrington of California were week end visitors at the home of their father, S. V. Dudley.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Brock and small daughter of Culp Creek, spent Wednesday night at the Clinton Dilbeck home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Hodges of San Raphael, Calif. were Saturday and Sunday guests at the Clinton Dilbeck home.

Oregon's millions of acres of forests, which add vast expanses of sylvan beauty to scenic allure, produce annually up to seven billion feet of timber or 23 per cent of the nation's lumber production. The three Pacific coast states produce 34 per cent.

"MESSIAH" BILLED AGAIN

AT OREGON STATE COLLEGE

Handel's "Messiah" will be given its third annual performance here Sunday, December 4 at 8 o'clock, sponsored by the music department. Combined with the college chorus, symphony orchestra and a group of soloists, with R. B. Walls, head of the department, as conductor. Last year the program was broadcast by KOAC and may be again if schedules permit.

To be perfectly just is an attribute of the divine nature; to be so to the utmost of our abilities, is the glory of man.—Joseph Addison.
