The Mothers club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Woodworth instead of at the Blue Mt. school lunch room. A double pink and blue shower was given Mrs. Mable Bassett and Mrs. Letha Myres. Pumpkin pie and whipped cream and coffee were served for lunch. The honor guests received a lot of dainty gifts. The next meeting will be at the lunch room at which time members will sack the Christmas candy for the school tree.

Callers Sunday at the Harry Castle home were Mrs. Ethel Davis and son Raymond and Lawrence Palmer and Ted Seward, all of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. George Duerst of Gresham were callers Sunday evening at the Arnold Duerst home. They had spent several days at the home of Mrs. Duerst's father, George Layng, who has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mainwaring of Hood River were visitors last week of Mrs. Elsie Mainwaring, mother, and Mrs. Harry Patten and Mrs. Hack Wooden, sisters of Mr. Mainwaring.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Woods of San Pedro, Calif. are spending the holidays with their daughter and son-in-law and family. Mr. and Mrs. George Woodworth of Blue Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Ward butchered four pigs last week and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Castle killed two.

Frank Brumbaugh of The Dalles spent one night this week end with his sister, Mrs. Floyd Jones. He came down to attend the homecoming game in Eugene Saturday.

Up to this date there have been 12 cougars killed on Mosby creek this fall, Mr. Groat and Mr. Hadley each getting one the past two weeks.

As it has been such a nice fall Mrs. Arnold Duerst has a flowering quince in bloom and the blue bells are out in the woods.

Russell McGuire stayed with his grandmother, Mrs. Harry Castle, Sunday while his mother, Mrs. Berta McGuire and Bill Jerrard visited in Portland with Mr. Jerrard's daughter Francis.
