

ROYAL NEIGHBORS TO ELECT OFFICERS DEC. 13

The regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors will be Tuesday night, December 13, in the Eagles hall, at which time the annual election of officers will be held. This will be followed by the Christmas tree and gift exchange, gifts to cost between fifty and seventy-five cents. The refreshment committee is composed of May-Tennis, Mable Funk, June Bird, Irene Graham, Nellie Blackmore and Bertha McQueen.

N. OF W. HAS DINNER

The Neighbors of Woodcraft entertained their families Tuesday night with a 6:30 covered dish dinner. Mr. and Mrs. George Keibelbeck of Eugene, members of the local circle, were also present. Decorations were in keeping with the Christmas season.

Julia Bartels, guardian neighbor, presided at the business meeting which followed. At this time plans were made to have initiation at the next meeting.

Miss Keibelbeck is Bride of Ohio Man

Miss Florence Ann Keibelbeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Keibelbeck, of Black Butte route became the bride of Sylvester F. Knippen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Knippen, of Route 3, Delphos, Ohio in a ceremony performed Wednesday, November 23, at 9:00 o'clock in the morning at St. John's Catholic Church, Delphos, Ohio.

The Rev. Carl F. Reineck, pastor, performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial high Mass before an altar decorated with white chrysanthemums. The children's choir sang the Mass with Miss Helen Stallkamp at the organ.

The bride wore a gown fashioned of white bridal satin that featured a fitted bodice. The v-shaped nylon net yoke was outlined by a ruffled bertha of Chantilly lace. Her long sleeves were edged with Chantilly lace ruffles and her full skirt ended in a long train. Her fingertip French illusion fell from a tiara of crystal beads and seed pearls. She carried a white missal with an orchid on top, and wore a gold hand engraved cross, a gift of the bridegroom.

Her only attendant, Miss Mary Lou Knebel, a close friend, wore a gown of American Beauty taffeta fashioned with a low, round neckline and a peck-a-boo skirt, trimmed with matching velvet bows. She wore a headpiece of matching material and a gold hand engraved cross, a gift of the bride. She carried a basket type bouquet of rhubrum lilies and carnations in shades to match her gown.

George J. Knippen was his brother's best man.

A breakfast followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Knippen, a brother of the bridegroom, south of Delphos. At noon a dinner was served to about 40 relatives and close friends at the home of Mrs. Anna Bendele, Columbus Grove, an aunt of the bridegroom.

Following the dinner the couple left on a motor trip to Oregon, and are now visiting at the home of the bride's parents. Enroute west they visited the bridegroom's brother, the Rev. Charles Knippen, at Butte, Nebraska. For traveling the bride wore a grey suit. Upon their return to Delphos they will reside on a farm.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school, and the bridegroom attended Ottoville high school. He is engaged in farming.

WOM TO INITIATE

At the next meeting of the Women of the Moose, December 15, at 8:00 o'clock in the Moose hall, initiation will be held. Officers are asked to wear formals.

Silk Beauty

Dainty nightgown with lace insets.

By VERA WINSTON

WITH ALL THE emphasis on man-made fabrics still it isn't wise to sell silk short. For there is nothing to take the place of the luxury feel of lovely silk lingerie. Beautiful as a gift, or as a treat to oneself is this dainty nightgown of baby pink silk crepe. The round neckline and cap sleeves are trimmed with dainty matching lace. Little insets of lace at the waist, and an embroidered pastel flower spray on the bodice add an extra touch of charm. The string sash in back comes from the side seams.

"Where Smart People Shop"

I'm blue as indigo today! Just can't get a bright idea of what to give my mother for Christmas. Let's see — I could give her a PURSE — or GLOVES — a folding UMBRELLA — a warm SWEATER — a GOWN or a nice ROBE — but heck! I've been in this business so long that I've given her most everything that I carry in THE SMART SHOP — guess I'll go down and see what Gene Ware might have to suggest.

Odd Fact

When a man, playing shortstop on a local baseball team in Salem, N. H., leaned down to scoop up an easy grounder, a black snake slithered out of his glove, causing him to miss the ball and lose the game for his club.
