"Where Smart People Shop"

There surely are a great many NICE PEOPLE in this world, and NOT only at CHRISTMAS time either! Some time ago, while we were, all away from home, my black mare ran our daughter's Palomino filly into the fence catching her in the wire. Some kind people passing by were NICE enough to stop and untangle the filly. We wish to express to them our sincere thanks. We also wish to express OUR APPRECIATION to those other NICE people, OUR CUSTOMERS, and wish you all a very MERRY CHRISTMAS and a PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

MRS. J. P. GRAHAM REACHES ANOTHER MILE STONE

The many neighbors and friends of Mrs. J. P. Graham wouldn't let her forget that she had reached the ripe young age of 81 last Sunday and they kept her side-walk and doorknob hot, calling to leave their congratulations, well wishes for another 81 years, and gifts galore. In fact, her living room looks like a flower and gift shop.

Mrs. Graham is still active in spite of her 81 years, hardly ever misses a meeting of the Order of Eastern Star of which she has been a member for 60 years, always at the Neighbor of Woodcraft meetings, and meetings of the Presbyterian Women's Association, an active member of the Eugene Button club, and a collector of buttons, bells, dolls and antiques. And for any information wanted of several years ago, all a person needs to do is give her a ring, and she can supply you with the needed data from her files.

Mrs. Graham came to Cottage Grove in 1889, and has been a member of the Order of Eastern Star nearly ever since, and has the distinction of being the first compiler on the Cottage Grove paper, then known as the Cottage Grove Leader, in the days of hand setting type. It was then edited by S. W. Chausse.

TURKEY DINNER AND CHRISTMAS PARTY HELD

Members of the National Letter Carriers and Clerks Association, 15 in number, gathered at the Sam Veatch home Saturday night for a turkey dinner and Christmas party. The Veatch home was attractively decorated with Christmas tree and other Yuletide ornaments.

Installation for the new officers was announced for the next meeting, January 2.

Miss Sydney Sheets and Miss Beverly Asher were on the entertaining committee.

LONDON HOME IS SCENE FOR CHRISTMAS PARTY

The home of Mrs. Jess Hill of London was transformed into a typical Christmas scene, including the brightly decorated tree, laden with gifts for the exchange, Tuesday night, when the Hills were hosts to the members of the Research club and their husbands at a turkey covered dish dinner. The dinner was served buffet style from the dining table to quartet tables, each centered with a large white candle made by Mrs. L. W. Coiner. Place cards were unique with hand painted Oregon scenes made by L. W. Coiner.

The evening was spent in lively games and gift exchange which was on the humorous side.

The committee planning the dinner was Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Carl Small, Mrs. L. W. Coiner and Mrs. Hagen. Present besides the committee were: Messers and Mesdames J. A. Kiker, Charles Clark, W. C. Martin, Roy Reed, Phil Higdon, Alvis Wicks, and Jess Hill, Carl Small, L. W. Coiner, Miss Lena Zendon and Miss Eunice VanDenberg.

The next meeting will be January 3, in the city library. Mrs. S. T. Rose of Springfield will give the book review and Mrs. Small will have the magazine article.

CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR GIRL SCOUT TROOP 124

A lovely Christmas party was held at the home of Mrs. J. P. Walker Thursday evening after school for the Girl Scouts of Troop 124. The table was beautifully decorated with small individual Christmas trees as place cards.

Refreshments of jello, cake and punch were served the 11 scouts, their mothers and seven little ones.

Each girl received a gift, and a gift was presented Mrs. Frank Richardson, the leader.

The girls received their second year pins.

AD LIBITUM CLUB HAS DINNER AND PARTY

Members of the Ad Libitum club were entertained last Thursday at a Christmas potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. P. C. Christensen. A former member, Mrs. H. B. Reed of Roseburg, was present, besides the regular members. The decorated Christmas tree was laden with gifts for the Christmas gift exchange which followed the dinner.

Deviled Shrimp Pie Is Unusual

By ALICE DENHOFF

OFFERED today is the popular grab-bag of recipes from which we hope our friends will extract a pleasing recipe or suggestion.

First is a Friday special, a Deviled Shrimp Pie that is different and delicious. To serve 6, mix 1/2 tsp. dry mustard, 1/4 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. paprika, and a dash of cayenne. Add to one c. medium white sauce with 2 tsp. chopped parsley, 1 tsp. lemon juice and 2 1/2 c. cooked shrimp or 2 Number 1 cans of shrimp. Pour shrimp mixture into 6 greased ramekins or one 9-inch pie plate. Pile 2 c. fluffy mashed potatoes around edges of casseroles or pie plate. Bake at 375 F. for 20 mins.

For another shrimp dish melt 8 tsp. butter or margarine; add 1/4 c. soft bread crumbs, one c. milk, 1 1/4 c. or a Number 1 can shrimp, chopped, and 2 tsp. chopped pimiento. Beat 2 eggs; add with salt and few grains of pepper. Pour into 4 individual oiled molds. Bake at 325 F. for 45 min.

Nice First Course

For a nice first course, with an appropriate holiday air, freeze cranberry juice in automatic refrigerator trays, then beat it with a fork, and serve in center of grapefruit halves. Or spike up Sunday breakfast with crushed peppermint stick candy on the grapefruit.

For another fine breakfast special, place slices of bread under the broiler and toast on one side. Butter the other side. Spread with jellied cranberry sauce and cover with sliced bananas. Sprinkle with brown sugar, and a small amount of cinnamon. Broil slowly until the bananas are a light brown, and the cranberry sauce is bubbling.

YOUNG MATRON IS HONORED

Mrs. Thomas Absher was the inspiration for a pink and blue shower Monday by Mrs. Ben Absher at her home in Gowdville. The honor guest received many lovely dainty gifts. Heat Stroke

In heat stroke, the temperature is very high—107 or over—the skin is hot and dry, the face is flushed, and the patient is unconscious. In heat exhaustion, the temperature may be subnormal or only slightly elevated, and the skin is moist, sometimes cool and clammy. Heat cramps are severe, painful spasms of the muscles. First aid for heat stroke is immediate cold water baths or spray and cold compresses. Bed rest is indicated for the other conditions. Water and salt or salt tablets are given for heat cramps.
