"Life" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 15.

The Golden Text is, "Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he called the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living; for all live unto him" (Luke 20:37, 38).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favor of the Lord" (Prov. 8:35), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Life is deathless" (p. 487).

LATHAM

(Mrs. Esther Trunnell, reporter phone 17-F-11)

Snow, cold, snow and then some more snow followed by rain and thawing kept residents busy clearing floors, making paths and doing many extra chores required by such weather. But we had a wonderful fall and we need the moisture now. We can only hope a flood can be avoided. Many valuable trees were broken down by the heavy snow.

Cecil Caldwell, who was taken to the Sacred Heart hospital Monday after he thought he was over the flu is progressing nicely and may be home before this gets in print. Mrs. Caldwell is improving at home.

How this independent businessman got his start

We'd like you to meet a man who has hung out his own shingle.

This Standard of California Distributor, like those all over the West, works as an independent businessman . . . and here's how we helped him get his start.

We first turned over a going business to him with a good list of customers. We helped him learn the best methods of serving his neighbors well . . . supplied the finest products, expert engineering help in meeting tough lubricating problems, the benefits of all our laboratory research and every other practical assistance possible.

He, in turn, supplied the ingenuity, skill and ambition of a man who is working for himself.

This teamwork between small and large business has benefitted everyone.

Your Standard Distributor has his roots and interests right in his own town; the money he makes stays in your community. And because he knows local conditions through long experience and is building his own business, he does a better job for us by doing an outstandingly good job of serving you.
