New Greek Premier

A NEW GREEK "caretaker" government was sworn in when John Theodorakis (above) took office in Athens as Premier and Minister of National Defense. The government will function until the new general elections are held in Greece. (International) after spending the holidays with their parents here.

The Lions club is arranging a "Community Calendar" for the benefit of all organizations in town and all are invited to visit the office of the New Era and place their dates to avoid any conflict in dates.

All officers were re-elected at Volunteer Firemen and include the following: president, C. Scarbrough; vice president, F. A. Everson; secretary-treasurer, J. O. Mortensen; fire chief, C. C. Hollemson; and assistant fire chief, V. W. Johnston. Reports of the year were given and 32 calls were answered during 1949. There are now 27 members with an average attendance of 26 per meeting. A new truck was acquired during the year with the cooperation of the Lions club and the city.

Mrs. George Ross entertained Mmes. Alexander Hawthorne, Louise Land, J. E. Smith, Irma Ogram, H. N. Traxler, C. I. Kent and Dora Martin at a "galloping tea" at her home Wednesday afternoon.

The annual meeting of the Creswell Consolidated Telephone Company was held at the Grange hall Monday evening and resulted in almost a new set of directors. E. A. Green, C. C. Hollemson and L. H. Brown resigned and J. A. Sartelle and George Ross had completed their terms. Ernie Grousbek, J. G. Griffith, M. E. Miller, Elmer Toblen, and E. E. Allen were elected and Ernest Bates was a holdover member. Allen however did not accept the position and later in the week Bates resigned. The board of directors will now have to appoint two new members. Officers were elected as follows: president, Griffith; secretary, Miller; treasurer, Grousbek. Membership certificates are new ready and will be exchanged for the original stockholder certificates. The members are asked to secure the material at the office and repair their lines as soon as possible.

Books are standing counselors and preachers, always at hand, and always disinterested; having this advantage over oral instructors, that they are ready to repeat their lesson as often as we please. —Chambers

LATHAM

(Mrs. Esther Trunnell, reporter phone 17-F-11)

Mrs. Murray Trunnell fell down in their dining room Sunday afternoon and hit the back of her head in such a way as to require a number of stitches to be taken. Neighbors and a doctor assisted. She is improving.

Mrs. Merle Porter's mother is expected soon from Idaho. She will keep house for Father Sohler in Springfield.

How did Latham residents take the recent storm? For the most part like pioneers. Almost everyone has a couple of kerosene lamps for emergency and there are those who repair their own telephone line when necessary without having to wait for a few over-worked men on the main line. Hot are off to the telephone and electric light men who worked night and day to restore service. It seems strange that people who consider themselves intelligent should over-modernize to the point where they are helpless in a storm like this. Shut off of power makes many people dependent on the work of a few men who are qualified to do it. More than one family had to bring in a good old wood heater to meet the situation.

As for passing the time when the snow shoveling and making of paths were done, people brought out almost forgotten games, popped corn and even played memorized piano music to the soft glow of the kerosene lamp when the radio was lacking for power. I wonder if there was not something gained after all.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Landers went to Coos Bay last Thursday and stayed until Saturday at the home of his cousin, Tommy Leaten. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Teeters and Mrs. Clarence Peterson and four children of Dorena were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McKibben. Mrs. Clarence Horn, recently Edna Ann Peterson, was one of the group. Her husband will be in the service for a short time yet.

Mrs. L. W. McKay has been on the sick list recently. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Claffoni (Lara Wilson) and child who have resided the past month in one of the Tomashek apartments moved to Springfield Saturday. He has employment there.

Everett Yearous and his mother, Mrs. R. O. Yearous left Friday to visit her sister, Mrs. Clarence Stoneburg at Eureka, California and her daughter (Jeanne) Mrs. Robert Finlayson at Los Angeles.
