VALENTINE PARTY FOR BROWNIE SCOUTS

The Brownie Scout troop No. 140 was honored at a Valentine party Friday afternoon in the Harrison grade school lunch room by two of the mothers, Mrs. Goldie Gunn and Mrs. Jean Theil. The refreshment table was very attractive with a large red heart encircled by daffodils. Ice cream and cake were served the girls, and each given a Valentine candy favor.

The Scouts held their usual meeting which was followed by games and group singing. Plans were discussed for "Hands Around the World" program, to be held on March 24 at McArthur Court in Eugene.

OREGON MUSIC TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION MEETS

The February meeting of the Eugene district of the Oregon Music Teacher's Association was held Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Boughton on Sylvan Drive, Eugene. Mrs. H. A. Hagen attended from Cottage Grove.

Mrs. John Stehn, chairman of the Festival committee, announced that the adjudicator for the festival will be Berthe Ponce Jacobson of Seattle, music educator and member of the faculty of the Cornish school.

For the program a string quartet played the "First Shostakovich." The quartet consists of George Boughton, first violin; Mary Alton, second violin; Edmund Cycler, viola and Milton Dietrich, cello. Dr. Cycler gave an interesting talk on "Music Appreciation."

PAST MATRONS ENTERTAINED

The Past Matrons club was entertained Monday at a dessert course at the home of Mrs. Donnell Allen, and election of officers was held. President is Mrs. Francis Horn; vice president, Mrs. C. E. Dillman and secretary, Mrs. S. L. Godard. The March meeting will be a 1:30 dessert at the home of Mrs. Charles Hall.

COMPLIMENTS FOR SOLDIERS, SAILORS, AIRMEN AND MARINES—Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson hailed visiting servicemen on their first tour of Washington by declaring, "We know that out in the field with men like yourselves we have unification. We consider it a privilege to be able to meet you and tell you what our aims and problems are. It brings unification of the armed forces into a new era of understanding. Lunch is on me today. Good luck!" Left to right are, T/Sgt. William R. McLand, Fayetteville, N. C.; Secretary Johnson, Sgt. 1st Class Bennie M. Weeks, Newport News, Va.; T/Sgt. Miles W. Melvin, Wilmington, N. C.; Aviation Boatswain Mate 1st Class Donald J. Sailors, Commerce, Ga.; Cpl. Curtis Duco, Newport, Ky.
