Folks pretended not to notice the snow squalls and white rimmed hills all week, hoping it was still spring. But they couldn't ignore the two inches of snow on their door step and freezing temperatures, Saturday morning. However, the brilliant sunshine soon took away the snow giving compensation and fair promise it might as well be spring.

London school boys basketball team spent an exciting week in Springfield, last week, at the basketball tournament. On Wednesday they beat Noti, 34 to 21 with Norman Alvord making 16 points. In a neck to neck game Thursday, ahead until the last minute the London boys lost 12 to 1 to Mount View. Friday was a push over with score of 46 to 1 win over Walton. Saturday with Noti again, winning 29 to 25.

Dorena school placed first and Mount View second in the tournament. The Willard McKays attended the games Saturday, from London and Grant Clark with a cowbell to make sure his cheers would be noticed.

Mr. Higdon, principal, took the team to Springfield each day in his private car, while the remainder of his pupils spent the afternoons in Mrs. Higdon's room. Mrs. Cary Hill, teacher at London school is ill and Mrs. Higdon is taking her place in the fifth and sixth grade room, until Mrs. Hill's return.

Mrs. Helen Currin has been home all last week with a cold and laryngitis but expects to be able to return to her teaching at Dorena this week. Mrs. Frank Taylor has been taking her place.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Moffat attended the 4H leaders annual banquet in Eugene, Thursday evening. Mrs. Matilda Parr, who has made her home the past six months with C. C. Galloway, who is in the hospital, returned to her home in Springfield, last week.

Mrs. Tressa Tullar of Springfield and Mrs. Angie Powell of Oakland, Oregon visited with Mrs. Marie Ewing, three sisters happy to be able to spend a day March 5 together.

Mrs. Ella Willis returned Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Alice Noth to Salem for a visit. Mrs. Willis intended to spend the winter there but the bad weather caught her at home, postponing her trip.

Shirley Wagner zigged when she should have zagged on her bicycle and hit some loose gravel near her home recently, and took a nasty spill, breaking off three front teeth, cutting her lip and bruising her face, with skinned knees and an elbow for good measure. She is busy growing new skin and has a dental appointment for repairs to her teeth this week.

Mrs. Jeanne Morton left Monday for Portland to shop for a new Easter bonnet, and will visit her mother, Mrs. C. E. Fisher.

Mrs. Fred Mills attended the Lane County Postmasters luncheon and meeting at Creswell, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills returned Thursday evening from a week at Boise, Idaho for the golden wedding anniversary of Mrs. Mills' sister. One hundred fifteen relatives and old friends attended the celebration, March 5. On their return trip over the Willamette pass the Mills came through a snow storm, used chains on their car with a foot of new snow, just like winter, in March.

A birthday dinner for Thomas Funk whose birthday was March 6, and Mrs. Lawrence Funk, March 4, was delayed because of illness until March 12, and was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Funk.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Riggs of Modesto, Calif., visited this week a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Riggs, a brother, before going on to Springfield to visit other relatives. Mrs. Della Goodwin is also a visitor at the Charlie Riggs home.

The Gale Robys called briefly on Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sherlock at Lowell, Sunday, on a trip to the new dam site near there.

London 4-H Mothers Club. It was voted at the regular meeting of the London 4-H Mothers club, March 8, that the club give $5 toward each of two half scholarships for one girl and one boy 4-H member eligible for 4-H summer camp.

In reply to a request to use the club house for 4-H young people's club parties, it was explained, due to the condition of the foundation of the building and parts of the flooring the request would have to be postponed until repairs could be made.

Mrs. Josie Phillips brought lovely, early daffodils from her garden for decoration of the table at the covered dish luncheon, attended by 12 members and one guest, Mrs. Dorothy Knauss and small daughter, daughter and granddaughter of member, Mrs. Lon Dayly.

Florence Riggs, Edith Gilham and Jeanne Morton received polyanthus gifts for birthday anniversary. It was reported the quilt would probably be completed at the next meeting, March 22, and a new one to be started for Mrs. Jeanne Morton.

Fourteen ladies called at the home of Mrs. Elvis Kelly, Friday afternoon for a Stanley party that didn't materialize, as the demonstrator failed to appear due to a mistake in date memoranda. A social afternoon of visiting resulted with refreshments served by Mrs. Kelly at 2:30 p.m.

Hebron Extension Unit

Hebron Extension Unit met as scheduled at 10 a.m. March 10, at the home of Mrs. O. T. Richey in Cottage Grove. During the morning, Mrs. W. W. Hileman prepared, with demonstration, a Danish luncheon which was served at noon and included: open face sandwich, hot potato salad, Danish coffee cake and deep-fat fry pastry and Danish Kelling.

In the afternoon the business meeting was held with chairman, Mrs. Glen Banton in the chair. Plans for the spring festival at Springfield union high, April 6, were made and luncheon, just before the meeting, with Mrs. LaLonde in charge.

An interesting display of Danish treasures were loaned by Mr. and Mrs. John Madsen and included antiques, many pieces of silver, old and new, Danish linen and a shawl and interesting pictures. Mrs. Overgaard also displayed several pieces of new silver.

Donation were received for Azalea House and will be received until March 21. Following the business meeting, Mrs. Walter LaLonde read a letter from a Danish housewife from near Copenhagen, Denmark. Mrs. M. C. Overgaard gave an interesting talk on Denmark, and Mrs. W. W. Hileman gave correspondence, with Mrs. LaLonde in charge.
