Miss Donna Porterfield is Bride of Stanley Mellies at Church Wedding

The First Congregational church, Eugene, was decorated with large baskets of tulips, lilies, stock, daffodils and acacia on Sunday afternoon, March 12, at three o'clock for the wedding of Miss Donna Porterfield to Stanley W. Mellies. Two large candelabra held white flickering tapers on either side of the altar. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Porterfield of Springfield, formerly of Cottage Grove, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Mellies of Eugene. The Rev. Wesley G. Nicholson read the ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony the tapers were lighted by Wayne Hubbard and Phil Bevins. Elwin Myrick, organist, played the traditional wedding marches, and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Wesley Haines, who sang "Because" and "At Dawning."

Mr. Porterfield escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her gown was of white slipper satin with long train, fitted bodice with tiny self covered buttons down the back, sweetheart neckline edged with seed pearls, long fitted sleeves and gathered full skirt. Her veil was of French illusion, fingertip and edged with French lace. It fell from a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestone. She carried a white Bible, a gift of Theta Rho club, on which rested a white orchid with streamers of white satin ribbon tied in lover's knots. Her only jewelry was a necklace worn by her mother at her wedding, and for something old, she carried a handkerchief which was an heirloom of a friend of the family.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Wayne Hubbard, sister of the bridegroom. She wore yellow taffeta off shoulder neckline and full skirt, and carried a nosegay of mixed flowers, yellow predominating.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lavern Hess of Cottage Grove, wearing an aqua gown, Mrs. Theodore Fehley of Eugene, wearing light blue, Mrs. Harold McLain of Albany in pink and Miss Betty Sheets of Cottage Grove, gowned in lavender. Each bridesmaid carried a nosegay of mixed flowers matching the matron of honor's.

Flower girls were little Judith and Jacqueline Ayres, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Ayres Jr., of Medford, cousins of the bridegroom. Their dresses were yellow taffeta and patterned after the matron of honor's dress. They carried yellow baskets of rose petals and tied with ribbons matching those of the nosegays of the bridesmaids.

The ringbearer was Gerald Anderson, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson of Junction City. He wore a teal blue suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The bride's mother wore an aqua afternoon dress with black accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore beige with black accessories. They both wore corsages of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Best man was Russell Ayres of Eugene, cousin of the bridegroom. Ushers were Wayne Hubbard, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Forrest Plath, William Robinson and Phil Bevins, all of Eugene.

The reception was held in the Wheeler room immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Aaron Ayres Sr., of Medford, great aunt of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake. At the punch bowl was Miss Patty Rickard, assisted by Miss Norma Bradley and Miss Patricia Dawley, all of Cottage Grove. Mrs. Neal Hammond of Cottage Grove had charge of the guest book.

For their wedding trip south Mrs. Mellies wore a limeade green suit with brown accessories and her wedding orchid. They are now at home at 1470 1/2 Lawrence street, Eugene.

Out of town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. John Sinniger of Roseburg, great uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gray and son Bill of Newberg; Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Ayres Jr. and daughters of Medford; Mrs. Edna Roberts and Mrs. Ina Harrison, both of Yreka, California.

Mrs. Mellies was guest of honor at several showers preceding her wedding. Mrs. Frank Bennett assisted by Mrs. Claude Nelson, Mrs. Vivian Bailor and Mrs. Charles Harlow were hostesses at a shower at the home of Mrs. Bennett.

A shower was given in Cottage Grove at the Leo Rickard home, the hostesses being Miss Patty Rickard, Miss Betty Sheets, Mrs. Lavern Hess and Mrs. Neal Hammond.

Mrs. Arnold Hubbard entertained at her home with a shower assisted by her daughter Shirley and Miss Lois Schmidt.

Mrs. Gertrude Baker and Mrs. Angela Nichols entertained at Mrs. Baker's home with a shower.

Following the wedding rehearsal Saturday evening, March 11, Mrs. Albert Mellies entertained the wedding party and their husbands and wives at a buffet supper.

Miss Bobbie Yocum To Wed Dick Schmitt

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Yocum have announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Bobbie to Dick Schmitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmitt. Miss Yocum is a senior in the local high school, and Mr. Schmitt graduated with the class of '49.

The wedding is planned for June.

Couple to be Honored on Anniversary

Courtesy Register-Guard

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Teeters will hold open house Sunday, April 2, from two to five o'clock, in observance of their fifty-seventh wedding anniversary. The occasion will also be Mr. Teeters' eighty-third birthday anniversary.

A postponed celebration of the fifty-seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Teeters of Cottage Grove has been planned for Sunday, April 2. The anniversary was January 23, but on this date there was such bad weather, it was decided to forego any observance. Sunday will be Mr. Teeters' eighty-third birthday, and daughters of the couple have planned an "open house" reception from two to five o'clock, to which all relatives and friends are invited. Children of Mr. and Mrs. Teeters are Mrs. Robert Coombs of Springfield, Mrs. Clarence Peterson of Cottage Grove, and John Teeters of Mehana. Another daughter, Mrs. Carl Volgamore, is deceased. There are 13 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Teeters was Miss Cora McKibben before her marriage, and Mrs. Effie Lebow of Cottage Grove is a sister; Joe, Louis and Charles McKibben are brothers. At the time of their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Teeters lived on a homestead on Row river, and the creek which there joins the river is called Teeters creek.

Local Rainbows Receive Honors at Grand Assembly Held at Corvallis

At the Order of Rainbow for Girls grand assembly held at Corvallis last week end two of the local girls received honors as well as their mother advisor, Mrs. Percy Malcolm. Miss Pauline Dyksterhuis and Mrs. Malcolm were awarded the Grand Cross of Colors and Earline Daniels was elected grand nature.

Those attending from the local order besides their mother advisor were: the Misses Kay Gates, Carmen Grewelle, Bonnie White, Yvonne Ware, Sue Chadwell, Tyke Brady, Ida Rymerson, Lavonne Huggah, Reba Johnson, Earline Daniels, Della Jean Condra, Joan Long, Verna Eastman, Arlene Arthur, Sandra Sue Carlson, Mary Lou Wiese and Rosemary Rickard. Miss Pat Scott, grand treasurer, and Miss Laura Porter, both of Bend, joined the group.

Taking the girls to and from the assembly were Mrs. Malcolm, Mrs. George Witters, Mrs. John Long and Miss Elizabeth Workman.

At the regular meeting Monday night of the Order of Rainbow for Girls reports were given of the grand assembly. During the business meeting it was voted to sell Easter seals to the merchants. It was decided to have a card party April 22 at 7:30 p.m., with part of the proceeds going for the crippled children. It will be held upstairs in the Masonic temple, and the public is invited.

The girls were reminded that they are to attend the Presbyterian church Sunday, April 2, in a body.

The next meeting will be April 10 and will be semi-formal.

FRIENDLY CLUB HAS ANNIVERSARY LUNCHEON

The twentieth anniversary of the Friendly club was observed Tuesday with a 1:00 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. N. E. Compton with Mrs. H. B. Breedlove as assistant hostess. The luncheon table was attractive with yellow daffodils and green tapers, two of the club colors. Most of the women came dressed in costumes of 20 years ago or older, but Mrs. Breedlove and Mrs. Ed Hoyt chose St. Patrick's outfits.

Three charter members, Mrs. Fred Bressler, Mrs. William Watson and Mrs. Ella Zimmerly, were present, and a former member, Mrs. Lena Madden of Cold Springs also a charter member.

The April meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Mark Morgan.

HAROLD BARTON SPEAKS ON THE MENTALLY ILL

Harold Barton of Eugene, field secretary of the Oregon Mental Health Association, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Service Circle of the Methodist church Thursday night at the Methodist church. He gave an interesting talk on his work and told what could be done for the mentally ill. His talk was followed by question and answer discussion.

A short business meeting preceded the talk by Mr. Barton and the evening closed by serving refreshments.

The next regular meeting will be April 13 in the church parlors. Hostesses will be Mrs. Henry Minkler and Mrs. Fred Vohs Jr.

W.S.C.S. SUB-DISTRICT MEETING HERE FRIDAY

The sub-district meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will be held Friday in the Methodist church, beginning at 10 a.m., and continuing throughout the day. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon. Special speakers will be Miss Ruth Fields, returned missionary from India and Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton, conference president of the Woman's Society. Mrs. Alexander Hergert will present the high school choir at this time.

W.C.T.U. TO MEET APRIL 5 April 5, at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Palmer, 1254 E. Madison. The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet Wednesday.
