A. J. Collom of Pismo Beach, California is visiting his son, C. J. Collom and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Rippee and family of Hood River have moved into the Margaret Thornton house on South First Street.

David Kasper has been elected commander of Creswell Post Veterans of Foreign Wars; Basil Smith, senior vice commander; Ira Hockett, Junior vice commander; Ralph Crisp, quartermaster; W. C. Adams, post advocate; Norman Howe, chaplain; Bruce Fix, surgeon; and James Coleman, three year trustee. H. C. Johnston, Adams and Hockett have been elected delegates to the district convention and Ralph Crisp, institutional representative for the Boy Scouts. The men have purchased the cement and rustic cedar siding to complete the hall they are building, southwest of town.

Mrs. Annie Harrold and Miss Shirley Harrold have moved into their new home on West Oregon avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ardel Glinz have returned to their home in Russell, North Dakota, after spending the winter with her grandfather, Charles Goheen.

Upper grades of Creswell Grade school are preparing the operetta, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," for presentation in Creswell gymnasium April 14. Mrs. Nellie Lake is the director.

Officers of Creswell Saddle club have been elected as follows: president, Leo Cole; vice president, Stu Mosby; treasurer, Mrs. Hayes Burke; secretary, Mrs. Virgil Goodrich; Milton Irving, Theodore Walkup and Virgil Goodrich make up the board of directors.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Reynolds and family lost their home and entire contents by fire Wednesday afternoon. The cause of the fire is not known and Mr. Reynolds was outside at the time. The others in the family were not home. The Red Cross has set the family up with necessities in a near by empty house, and will also furnish lumber to build a small house for them. H. N. Traxler and F. A. Everson are heading a committee to work with the Red Cross and anyone wishing to help may contact one of these men. The family has been here only six weeks from Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Harper of Mishawaka, Indiana are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lower.

Mrs. Ival Wilson is spending several weeks in Seattle visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Rene LeClaer of Palm Springs, California are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Elmendorf.

The following honor roll of Creswell High school has been released for the past six weeks: Mary Ann Zinkler, Darlene Kinslow, Molly Holt, Harvey Peterson, Barbara Tiedje, Clayton Millsbaugh, LaVae Griffith, Jenenne Everson, Reba Clayborn, Carol Rand, Irene Klingensmith, Erma Keeran, Ruby Perkins, Robert Rounds, Betty Thompson, Dorothy Harris, Jim Pettijohn, Doris Bates, Helen Poole and Paul Hargis.

Print and cord week will be held the first week of April at the high school. A party will be held April 7 to wind up the festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hord of Williams, California are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Rand.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vaught have returned to their home after spending the winter in California.

The speaking choir of the Presbyterian church will present, "Christ's Mould of Prayer," at Central Presbyterian Church, Sunday evening, April 2. The group went to the Presbyterian Youth Rally at Salem this Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bayless and daughter of Mill City and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Denny Jr. and family of Sutherlin visited over the week end with the Arthur Dennys.

Consolidation of Creswell Grade school and Lynx Hollow Grade school was defeated in both districts Tuesday evening. The vote in Creswell was 38 no, and 16 yes. In Lynx Hollow the count was 37 no, and 18 yes.

Mrs. W. J. Polson, Mrs. Al Viking and Mrs. H. H. Brown were initiated at Honor Rebekah Lodge Wednesday evening. Six applications for membership were presented and Mrs. Loren Westrope was recommended for district deputy president. Mrs. Etta Hockett resigned as financial secretary and Mrs. L. C. Satter was elected to fill the vacancy. Ten visitors from Cottage Grove were present. CRESWELL ... CONT ...

A donation was voted to the Red Cross.

Mrs. R. D. Hartman and son of San Diego, California are visiting her sisters, Mrs. Richard Duyck and Mrs. Sidney Cooke.

Mrs. Basil Smith underwent major surgery at Sacred Heart hospital early this week and is now recuperating at home.

Mrs. Loren Westrope, chairman of the Red Cross drive in Creswell, has secured the following workers: V. W. Johnston, Mrs. Paul Manning, Mrs. Elmer Kivett, Mrs. Ted Green, Mrs. L. E. Zinkler, Mrs. Esmond Cartwright, Mrs. Barney Doyle, Mrs. H. H. Dersham, Mrs. Harold Marcotte, Mrs. F. L. DeBerry, Mrs. E. A. Applegate, Mrs. Frank A. Clark and Mrs. Norman Skaggs.

Members of the Methodist church have installed fifteen hearing aids in the church for the hard of hearing members of the congregation.

JUNCTION CITY BOY GETS GRADED CALF

Mervin Keeler of Junction City, Route 1, 13-year-old 4-H club member, was selected by the Lane County Market Milk Producers, incorporated, to receive a grade calf. A committee consisting of Elmer Grimes, Route 5, Eugene and Dick Lyon, Route 2, Junction City, reviewed applications submitted from various Lane County livestock clubs and chose Mervin Keeler on the basis of a letter of recommendation from his 4-H club leader, his 4-H club record, and a story submitted by the candidate on why he would like to have a superior quality grade dairy calf, and also his plans for the future regarding dairying.

Odd Fact

In Manistee, Mich., an 85-year-old man admitted burning down his house and four other buildings on his farm, explaining that it was the only way to stop his relatives from wrangling over who would inherit his property.

With the Granges

A special meeting of Creswell Grange will be held March 30 to confer the third and fourth degrees on a class of candidates. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Elmendorf, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cole and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Clark will serve refreshments.

The first and second degrees were conferred on Alfred Elliot, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliot, Larry Viking, Velma Edwards and Arthur Rhodes at a special meeting Monday evening.

Home Economics club met Tuesday afternoon and started plans for a benefit dinner to be held May 4 in observance of the eighth anniversary of the dedication of the present Grange hall. The Mohawk club will visit Creswell May 16 and Creswell will visit Long Tom soon. Mrs. C. Scarbrough, Mrs. Alice Taylor, Mrs. Joe Guth and Mrs. Ray Vincent will be hostesses for the April meeting and Mrs. Charles Wetzel will plan the program.

Fifty-one members of Junction City Grange and seven from the Doena Grange visited Creswell Grange Thursday evening. The agriculture committee announced the bulb and plant exchange will be extended. April 3 was announced as rodent control day in Creswell and F. L. DeBerry will be in charge. The youth group announced a party for Saturday evening, April 1 at the hall. A grab box supper was planned for the next meeting and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Manning and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Polson will be in charge. A shower of food and clothing was held for the Bertram Reynolds family.

Hebron Grange News

Next regular meeting of Hebron Grange will be Saturday, April 1 at 8 p.m. when Mohawk-McKenzie Grange will visit us and present the lecture hour and a drill. Pie and sandwiches will be served.

Everyone seems to be enjoying themselves at the meetings. You are missing out if you do not come, so come out to welcome the visitors and see how nice the hall looks.

Catching Cold

Polls and surveys show that more women catch colds than men. Only man and chimpanzees suffer colds. Dogs, cats, rabbits and other lower animals cannot catch cold.

Household Hint

When a hot dish sticks to cloth, pour a little hot water around it and in a few minutes you can pick up the dish without marring the oilcloth.
