Present for the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hosman entertained Sunday at a family get-together honoring the birthday anniversaries of their two daughters, Mrs. Royal Abene Jr. of Sutherlin and Mrs. Derril Sarff of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Abene, Mr. and Mrs. Derril Sarff, Lloyd and June Hosman, Bob Raiser and Mr. and Mrs. Hosman.

Lloyd returned home with his sister, Mrs. Sarff, to spend his spring vacation.

MRS. WRIGHT TO ENTERTAIN

The Social Twelve club will be entertained next Thursday, April 13, by Mrs. Maude Wright at her home, 307 Second street. A 1:30 dessert will be served, and followed with a social afternoon.

MRS. ROSENTHAL ENTERTAIN FOR BIRTHDAY

When Delferd Kelly came home last week end from Corvallis he was surprised to find a crowd of young people who had gathered at his home to help him celebrate his birthday anniversary. His mother, Mrs. Rosenthal, had invited the guests for an evening of games and refreshments.

B & P W Club Will Sponsor Candidate For Rodeo Queen

Edna Piller, first vice president of the Business and Professional Women's club, acted as president Monday night at the regular meeting held in the city library, in the absence of the president, Miss Lottie Lee Lamb.

The group voted to sponsor a candidate for queen for the annual Cottage Grove rodeo.

The Southwestern Oregon district conference to be held April 15-16 was discussed and will be attended by some of the members. On the 15th a charter dinner will be served at Bandon and that new club will receive its charter. The conference will be held at Myrtle Point the 16th. Those planning to attend from here are Edna Piller, Lottie Lee Lamb, Alice Breedlove and Adelia Hatch.

Plans were also discussed for the state convention to be held at Corvallis May 19-21, at which time Dr. Scott, national president, will be the guest speaker at the Saturday night banquet.

Dorothy Schaffner reported on the Red Cross drive of which she is chairman for the club's solicitation on the west side.

The next meeting, April 17, will be in charge of the educational and vocational chairman, Ethel Krauss, and her committee.

P.D.G. OFFICERS WILL BE ELECTED FRIDAY

Mrs. Albert Woodard will entertain the members of the P.D.G. Garden club Friday afternoon, April 7, at her home. Election of officers will be held, and Posy Pais will be revealed. Plans will be completed for the plant sale to be held April 15 at Hansen Brothers garage.

New Coiffure for Square-Shape Face

An appearance of height on top is desirable for the girl with a square face. In this hair-do, short locks on top form a high, softly waved bang. The rest of the hair is medium-long, brought up at the sides, fastened with combs, and then let fall into a cascade of curls from high on the head in back. This coiffure is from the Master Handbook of 29 New Hairdos, a feature of the March issue of Good Housekeeping magazine.

W.S.C.S. Sub-District Attended by Many From Various Towns

Ninety-four women of the sub-district of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church gathered at the local church Friday for a meeting. This district includes the towns of Junction City, Eugene, Springfield, Creswell, Oakridge, Fall Creek, Marcola, Wendling, Riverview and Cottage Grove with representatives present from each place.

The morning session opened at 10 o'clock with Mrs. E. E. Cone of Eugene, sub-district president, presiding. The morning devotionals were led by Mrs. Howard Taylor, using the resurrection story as her topic. Mrs. Warren Ness sang "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone," accompanied by Mrs. Boyd Allen, organist. A round table discussion followed which was led by Mrs. Pascal Peck of Eugene, who answered questions pertaining to the various divisions of the W.S.C.S. work.

The noon-tide devotionals were in charge of Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton of Springfield, conference president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

A covered dish dinner was served in Friendship hall at the noon hour.

The afternoon meeting opened with three selections by the high school choir directed by Mrs. Alexander Hergert. The choir sang "Sheep and Lambs," "The Twenty-Third Psalm" and "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Ruth Fields, a retired missionary from Calcutta, was the speaker and spoke on "The Face of Christ," which was illustrated by pictures of the face of Christ. She demonstrated the native Tibetan costume complete with cap for high altitude, rosary and prayer wheel.

The meeting closed with the pledge service.

MOTHERS' CLUB APRIL 11

Members of the Mothers' club will meet April 11 for the regular monthly meeting and potluck dinner at noon. The meeting will be with Mrs. Glad Wallace. There is work to do and all members are urged to be present.

PNG CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Sixteen members were present for the regular monthly meeting of the Past Noble Grands club Thursday in the IOOF hall, including Lena Hamloth, a member now residing at Roseburg, and Opal Munson, a visitor from Roseburg.

At this time tea towels were turned in for the IOOF children's home.

During the business meeting Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Eastham were reported ill.

The afternoon closed with refreshments served by the committee, Lottie Asbury, Anna Adams, Eva Aubrey and Lucy Bennett.

KINDERGARTEN HAS EASTER EGG HUNT

Twenty-one little folk in the kindergarten of the Methodist Sunday school gathered on the lawn of Mrs. Paul Dyksterhuis on Tuesday afternoon for their annual Easter egg hunt.

Mrs. Dyksterhuis was assisted in entertaining the little tots by three teachers, Mrs. Leonard Hudgins, Mrs. Robert Carpenter and Mrs. Frank Brown. Three mothers were also present, Mrs. Howard Coomer, Mrs. Richard Kensit and Mrs. Strawsberger.

After the Easter egg hunt, games were played and refreshments of cookies and punch were served.

Beautiful Twosome

Blouse and skirt costume

By VERA WINSTON

WE JUST didn't think that here could be a different air about the blouse and skirt costume, but here it is. Fresh, soft and feminine is the name for this charming twosome. The blouse is of pale pink fine handkerchief linen with a plain neckline and a pearl buttoned front closing. This offers a nice contrast to the very full lantern sleeves which are gathered onto the shoulders. The skirt is of black paper taffeta permanently pleated. It is set onto a trim waistband that fastens in back.

IT'S THE WAVING LOTION that makes all the difference!

Richard Hudnut Home Permanent

• Tests made by nationally known independent research laboratory* show that Richard Hudnut Creme Waving Lotion (containing 22% more of the effective waving ingredient) leaves hair measurably springier and stronger... less apt to break... than most other home permanent waving lotions.

• It's the extra penetration plus the gentler conditioning action of the Richard Hudnut Creme Waving Lotion that gives your hair the wave you wish you were born with... stronger, springier, with greater natural sheen.

• This wonderful waving lotion is pleasantly fragranced, too.
