

CRESWELL BRIEFS

(Mrs. Norman Skaggs, reporter, phone Creswell 353)

Creswell Council voted Monday to adopt daylight saving time when Eugene does. Cleanup week was set for the first week in May and definite pickup days will be announced soon. The budget committee has named H. W. Taylor, Earl Greenwood, J. M. Walkup, Clyde Hollemon, L. A. Whitney and H. H. Burke, taxpayers, to help draw up the budget for the year. The street committees plan for street work was approved by the council. People are reminded that they are to place their house numbers as quickly as possible.

A number of Creswell friends attended the wedding of Miss Mary Louise Stone and Dale L. Turner in Eugene Friday.

P-TA Elects

Mrs. Paul Manning was re-elected president of Creswell high school Parent-Teachers Association Monday evening. Other officers are: T. R. Graham, first vice president; Ellsworth Huffman, second vice president; Mrs. Maryvick Pettijohn, secretary; Mrs. F. A. Everson, treasurer. A box social and evening of square dancing was planned for April 22. A dinner to honor the athletes of the school was planned for May 9 with Mrs. H. H. Dersham as general chairman. Officers will be initiated at the May 1 meeting.

The sixth grade students honored their teacher, Vernon Peterson, with a surprise birthday party Wednesday afternoon. They presented him with an automatic pencil. Mrs. Paul Manning, Mrs. W. L. Scott and Mrs. Forrest assisted with the serving.

Mrs. Neva Gray's room presented an Indian lore program to Creswell Grade School Mothers' club Friday afternoon. The annual May Day program was planned for May 6 and committees were appointed. The Home Economics club of Creswell Grange has presented a plant to the Mothers' club for the Creswell school grounds which the club is landscaping. Next meeting will be May 8 and officers will be elected. Mrs. Gray's room and Mrs. Harvey Wright's room tied for the record player by having the same amount of mothers present.

The first and third Wednesdays of the month have been designated "Parents' Swim Night," and all parents are invited to meet at the U of O campus at 8 and enjoy a swim. Plans are underway to form a club.

The seventh and eighth graders will present "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," at Creswell school, Friday evening, April 14 at 8. Creswell chapter of Eastern Star entertained guests from Springfield and Junction City, Thursday evening. Mrs. E. S. Dersham was appointed to be representative to the state of Wisconsin for three years from the grand chapter of Oregon. A musical program was presented and refreshments in the Easter theme were served.

Cecilia Kelsch and Frankie Reich have been judged the best tumbler in Creswell grade school and will have their names engraved on the loving cups. Paula Erick and Timmy Bates were second.

Creswell Saddle club held an Easter egg hunt at the Leo Cole ranch Sunday afternoon. A buckaroo breakfast has been planned for April 30 and will be $1 a plate.

Creswell Grange will hold a grab box supper and program at the hall Thursday, April 13.

Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Auxiliary will hold joint installation of officers at Odd Fellows hall Friday evening, April 21.

Creswell Boy Scouts celebrated their twentieth anniversary this week with a potluck supper and court of honor. L. E. Ziniker, the boys leader, has been with the troop for the entire twenty years.

A daughter, Diane Marie, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Flowerday at Goodings, Idaho, April 3. The little miss is a granddaughter of Mrs. Gladys Flowerday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Susbauer and son of Hillsboro called on the Adam Schmitts Saturday. Susbauer is a nephew of Schmitt.

The Creswell baseball team will sponsor a benefit turkey dinner at the Creswell Grange hall Saturday evening April 15 with proceeds to be used for expenses of the team.

Presbyterian Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Norman Skaggs Wednesday afternoon and the birthdays of April were honored. It was announced that $41 had been cleared on the recent food sale.

Creswell people have combined their efforts with the Red Cross and built a home for the Bertram Reynolds family, who recently lost their home by fire.

Mrs. Walter Hager is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Warren A. Smith at 1590 Ferry street, Eugene.

Rev. and Mrs. Ward Woods and family have returned from an extended trip through the midwest. They attended the National Sunday school conference of the Assembly of God Church at Springfield, Mo.

Those going from here to Eugene Thursday to the extension club's spring festival were: Mmes. Sig Nelson, Arnold Duerst, Lester Rearrick, Lewis Layng, Leslie Scott, Francis Turner, Roy England, Henry Snauer, Everett McCoy and Harry Castle. The style review of wool dresses was a big feature of the day. Mrs. Henry Snauer and Mrs. Roy England took part in it from Mosby Creek club. Mrs. Arnold Duerst and Mrs. Lewis Layng arranged the centerpiece for one table in the lunch room which was a spring scene of pansies, moss, a frog and a bluebird. There were many beautiful centerpieces. Mmes. Leslie Scott, Howard Taylor and Everett McCoy made the candy and arranged the table for the display in the display room. There were several kinds of candy and also candy boxes tied with ribbons.

The pie social at the Blue Mountain played Friday night was well attended considering sickness and other causes. Mr. Davidson did a grand job of selling the pies and $33.66 was taken in. This will be used for some treats of ice cream and other things for the benefit of the children. We want to thank the teachers, Mrs. Small and Mrs. Wickendoll, for their months at Okinawa. He will now be stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Mrs. A. E. Rood has returned to Seattle after spending several months with her mother, Mrs. Opal Stott.

help in the program, and Mr. Davidson for his help and also for his musicians who played while we all ate pie.

While Mr. Davidson was selling the pies he was holding a pie up for all to see when it seemed he tripped and down went the pie upside down. Everyone looked so horrified till the kids ran on the stage and started picking up candy that had fallen out of the pie. It was a good joke. We want to thank everyone who helped: Verlin Ward who acted as cashier; Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Patten for helping with the dishes after the program.

Easter Sunday dinner guests at the Jay Blackmore home were Mr. and Mrs. Don Blackmore and two children of Blue Mountain and Mr. and Mrs. Park Hartzell of Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harnstedt and daughter Nancy of Sherwood were Sunday guests at the Ben Anderson home.

The primary grades had an Easter egg hunt at school Thursday. The teacher treated them to candy and Mrs. Everett McCoy baked cup cakes and put little chickens on as favors for the children. There were several preschool children attending. All reported a nice time. Bobby Green was absent with the mumps. Jay Miller also has the mumps.

Carlos Jones has bought a new 1950 sedan.

Mrs. Floyd Jones spent Thursday visiting Mrs. Nancy Linebaugh at the Harry Castle home while Mrs. Castle went to Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jones attended graveside services for John Sampson Saturday morning at the Shields cemetery. He was the husband of Clara Lebow who lived here several years ago. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Lebow are cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allingham of Bend were callers Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett McCoy. Mr. Allingham is a cousin of Mr. McCoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bostick of Eugene were callers over the week end at the Jim Bostick home at Blue Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thomas and daughter Wanda of Coos Bay spent the week end at the Floyd Jones home. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones and Mrs. Mary Ray and daughter Lottie May were also dinner guests Sunday at the Jones home.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sloan of London were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rearrick of Blue Mountain.

Mrs. Clyde Putman left Thursday for Halfway, Oregon to visit her parents and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cline and children of Oakridge were afternoon callers at the Arnold Duerst home.

YOU'RE ALWAYS AHEAD WITH MERCURY

You'll be miles ahead in economy with the big 3600 pound Mercury that swept the entire Grand Canyon Run at 26.5 miles per gallon. You'll be years ahead in performance with Mercury's exclusive V type "Hi-power Compression" engine that is favored for power and responsiveness by racing champions all over the world. In comfort you'll be far ahead because Mercury's "Lounge Rest" ride is smoothed by "Cushion Coil" springs and luxurious foam rubber seats. And Mercury's beautiful two-tone interiors are healthful and quiet — thanks to "Merco-Therm" climate control and Fiberglas insulation. Only Mercury has that extra margin of luxury and performance that inspired Detroit engineers to name it the "perfect combination" of 1950. Yet thousands of Westerners like yourself are driving this impressive new Mercury for as little as $49 a month.
