RAINBOW GIRLS HOLD INITIATION FOR MASONS

The Order of Rainbow for Girls, by a special dispensation, held a formal initiation for the Masons Wednesday night, April 5. At the close of the initiation the Masons served refreshments.

At the short business meeting Monday night the worthy advisor, Elizabeth Workman, thanked those who participated in the selling of Easter lilies to the local merchants. Mrs. Percy Malcolm, mother advisor, presented Pauline Dyksterhuis in the East and awarded her the Grand Cross of Colors, the highest award a Rainbow Girl can receive.

April 24 will be the next meeting. This will be semi-formal at 7:30 p.m. All girls are urged to be on time.

Vows Exchanged at Church of Christ

The Church of Christ, Sixth and Gibbs, was decorated with baskets of pink and white flowers and candleabra with white candles on Sunday, March 26, for the wedding of Miss Juanita Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wright of Creswell, to Darwin D. Smith, son of Mrs. Bessie Smith, Cottage Grove, F. Sherwood Smith, pastor of the church, officiated.

Mr. Wright gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of white organdy, ballerina length, cap sleeves and scalloped neckline, a short peplum and full skirt. Her net veil was edged with wide lace and fell from a slipper satin fitted cap. She carried a nosegay of white rosebuds and carnations, tied with white satin ribbon. For "some thing old" the bride wore her grandmother's wedding ring.

Miss Ramona Nerlie, cousin of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, wearing yellow organdy, and Miss Betty Lou Wright of Creswell was bridesmaid in pink organdy. Both attendants' dresses were made alike with low neck, puffed sleeves and full ballerina-length skirts. They wore white ballerina slippers, and carried nosegays of pink flowers with pink satin streamers.

Best man was Clarence Sletager, and ushers were Howard Wright Jr., brother of the bride and Millard Smith, brother of the bridegroom. The ushers were also taper lighters.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Robert Beach sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Sherwood Smith. Mrs. Smith also played the traditional wedding marches.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Plueard, at 610 South Tenth street. Mrs. Zajic cut the wedding cake and Miss Frances Thrun and Mrs. William Plueard served. Miss Mary Lou Bailey had charge of the guest book. Pink and white carnations decorated the bride's table.

The couple left immediately for a wedding trip to Long Beach, California.

The couple was honored with a shower on March 18 by Mrs. Howard Wright, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Jimmy Steel of Drain at the home of Mrs. Wright. On March 17 Mrs. Bessie Smith, Mrs. Lula Babb and Mrs. Gorman Nerlie honored the bride-elect with a shower.

LONDON LADIES PLAN TO ORGANIZE WCTU

Several ladies from the London area were present at the regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John Palmer, and expressed their desire to organize a Union at London which will be organized at a later date.

Mrs. Charles Powell led the devotional service and read a poem entitled "The Parable." She took her topic from the Easter lesson. Mrs. Carroll Witherspoon presented the lesson, reading short articles on "The High Cost of Disobedience," "Am I Making Excuses?" "The Grace of God is All Sufficient," "What Makes An Alcoholic?" and "Religion at San Quentin."

Visitors from London were Mrs. Charles Powell, Mrs. Arden Powell, Mrs. P. Martin, Miss Martin and Mrs. C. Foster.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at the tea hour. The May meeting will be with Mrs. Witherspoon.

MRS. ANDERSON IS HOSTESS
St. Andrew's Episcopal Guild was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. Clifford Anderson. Dean Perry Smith of Corvallis was present and led the devotional service. Plans were discussed for the food sale for Saturday, April 15. An Easter egg hunt was planned for Sunday following the church service.

Mrs. Anderson served refreshments to the group at the close of the afternoon. The May meeting will be with Mrs. George Macready.

Mrs. Stanley W. Mellies of Eugene, who before her marriage was Miss Donna Porterfield. The wedding was an event of Sunday, March 12, at three o'clock in the First Congregational church in Eugene in a setting of tulips, lilies, daffodils, stock and acacia.

CLUB PLANS RUMMAGE AND MERCHANTS' LUNCH

The Constellation club was entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. T. C. Wheeler at a dessert course, business meeting and social afternoon. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Rex Wheeler, Mrs. Nelson Durham and Mrs. Floyd Hilliker.

At the business meeting following the dessert, plans were completed for a rummage sale and merchants' lunch for Saturday, April 15, at the Masonic hall. The rummage sale will start at 10:30 a.m. and the lunch will be served from 1:30 to 1:00 p.m.

YOUTH FELLOWSHIP ENJOYS EASTER ACTIVITIES

The Methodist Youth Fellowship, high school group, with their counselor, Miss Dorothy Jackson, enjoyed various activities throughout the day. The group attended the sunrise service at 6 o'clock in the nave, and then served breakfast to approximately 40 in Friendship hall. Assisting in the preparing of the breakfast were Henry Minkler and Harold Hileks.

At 9:30 they were present for the first worship service, and in the late afternoon they gathered at the church for an Easter egg hunt. The eggs had been hidden throughout the church by the Rev. Frank Brown, Miss Betty Thomas and Miss Jackson before the young people arrived.

At the close of the Easter egg hunt the young people met in Friendship hall and enjoyed a waffle feed.

Clarence Holmes Elected Governor Moose Lodge 4th

Clarence E. Holmes was elected as governor of the Cottage Grove Moose lodge No. 810 at the regular election of officers held April 4th.

Other officers chosen included: Dale Chapman, junior governor; Bill Anderson, prelate; Jess Forrester, reelected treasurer. Fred Kniekebocker was chosen as the new trustee for a three year term. Installation for the new officers will be held April 25th.

The lodge is participating in a membership contest and it was announced at the April 4th meeting that the quota of 45 had been reached, although the contest does not end until April 30th.

ALTAR SOCIETY MEETS

Mrs. J. W. Tarr, president of the Catholic Altar Society, presided Wednesday at the regular monthly meeting held at the parish house. At this time plans were made for the Easter Sunday service. The next meeting will be May 3 at the parish house.

Luxurious Cotton Gown

Dainty pink lingerie.

By VERA WINSTON

SOME of the daintiest, the prettiest lingerie seen in many a season is of cotton. All the loving care usually lavished on fine silk has been bestowed on this charming nightgown of pale pink cotton of very sheer, fine quality. Matching embroidered banding is worked into a pretty neckline and is set-in at the waist. The bodice is finely pleated above the waist. Below the waist tucks are released into the gentle fullness of the skirt. There is a matching ribbon sash in back.

SERVICE CIRCLE TO PASS POLLYANNA BASKETS

The Service Circle of the Methodist church met in the church parlor April 11, and opened with a short devotional service by the president, Mrs. Fred Vohs Jr., who also was in charge of the business meeting.

It was voted to pass a Pollyanna basket among the members during the next two weeks, and it was decided to help serve the B&PW dinner next Monday night.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Henry Minkler and Mrs. Fred Vohs Jr.

The next meeting will be held on the regular meeting night, April 27, at which time initiation will be held for two new members. Hostesses will be Mrs. Boyd Allen and Miss Hazel Tohlen.

P.D.G. CLUB ELECTS

Members of the P.D.G. club met at the home of Mrs. Albert Woodard Friday afternoon and elected officers. Chosen were: Mrs. Lee Cooley, president; Mrs. Ralph Sears, vice president and Mrs. Albert Woodard, secretary-treasurer. At this time plans were completed for holding a plant sale at Hansen Brothers garage on April 15th.
