LONDON

Mrs. Gale Roby, Reporter
Phone 791R1

School activities are lively with good weather and the approach of the end of the school year, only five more weeks, to end May 26. Dorena school came over Thursday for softball at London, taking home the winning scores, 6 to 5 for boys and 19 to 8 for the girls. But they were good games. Friday two-bus loads of Cottage Grove grade school band and chorus visited London school and played and sang for an assembly in the gym. School pictures were taken last week of each individual pupil in school.

The community is anxiously anticipating the census nose-count said to be on the way. Rumor has it the enumerator's car was in for repairs of a broken spring. We didn't think our roads were THAT bad. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Eckenrode were over several days from Springfield, last week for a spring visit and garden lore with old friends, the McEwens. Mrs. Josie Phillips had visitors recently, all from Portland, but separate parties. Mr. and Mrs. Billy Cows, who formerly lived here neighbors of Mrs. Phillips, spent the weekend, and Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Edwards visited on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Riggs attended Hebron grange, Friday evening for the Grange plays and supper. What could easily have been mistaken for the yelp of wild coyotes in the hills back of Blackbutte, setting off crescendos of howling dogs in the night, was apparently only the yelping of dogs in the first place. Bill Eastham is building new fence against stock for a garden acre back on the hill, and has foundation laid for a new house. Company crews recently installed a new gate on the company road near the Shoestring road, a new type gate used now on fire roads of simple design, of railroad iron set in concrete and practically indestructible, with a protected lock. Jack Mills has a new car of two-tone color and took Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mills on a trip recently to Roseburg to visit relatives. The trip was especially beautiful this time of year with roadside wild flowers blooming and garden flowers more advanced over the mountain than here, where the season is always later. Lady-slipper hunts are popular with the young as well as a number of the adults hiking the hills. Reports of a few patches on the Shoestring hills this year. Among those out from town for the hunt were Mrs. Crawford Bost and Mrs. Vonnies Jones. First wild iris of the season was found Sunday, by Mrs. McEwen. A small dog, "Butch", belonging to Mrs. Josie Phillips, and her constant companion died Sunday, after being ill a few days and it is feared he may have been poisoned. The Bert Newton dog died in a similar way recently. Chester Parr celebrated his 11th birthday, Saturday afternoon with a party at his home for six of his school boy friends and a great time was had in true boy fashion, ice cream, cake and cool aid were served the hilarious troop for refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Max Bradford have moved from the Carl Small house to the Charlie Woods house back of London store. Mr. and Mrs. Bradford spent Sunday in Cottage Grove with cousins and friends from New Mexico. Sharon and Charlotte McCall of Cottage Grove spent Sunday with Zenda and Lynden Garman.

Glen Gilham is going to Port and this week for a check-up at a Portland hospital. Clyde Smith a brother-in-law of Mrs. C. C. Gilham is here visiting from Canada for a few days.

A good crowd attended the house dance at the Gilhams, Saturday night, the first given in quite a while.

A lovely spring bridal shower was given the Saturday afternoon before Easter for Marie Clark, by her school girl friends, Betty Clark and Mary Newton, at the Bert Newton home and attended by her classmates. Miss Clark will be a bride of early summer. The old Fletcher place has been sold by Mr. Andrews to the Paiki family of Latham, who lived at London last winter.

London 4H Mothers Club.

Quilting was the order of the day at the regular meeting of London 4H Mothers club, April 19, with ten energetic quilters finishing out another quilt and getting a new one in the frames for Mrs. Dave Hite of Delight Valley, a blue and white, block, patch work design in a three quarter size. Another in a crazy patch work design for Mrs. Hite will be put in next time in a second set of frames. The usual covered dish luncheon was held at noon, made gay with table bouquet by Mrs. Phillips, of flowering quince blossoms and narcissi. It was agreed to rent the club house for the usual fee for a community shower. Next meeting is May 3.

Hebron Home Extension Unit. Hebron Home Extension Unit met April 13, at the home of Mrs. J. A. Heath. This was the meeting previously announced to be held at Mrs. Alvis England's or Hebron hall for "Textile Painting", changed because of a change in the county agent dates for a Corvallis meeting.

Miss Virginia Carlson, new county agent, gave the lesson April 13, on "Broiler Cookery". Taste samples for the members, served as appetizers for the planned luncheon at noon. Mrs. Larry Brumfield, of Mt. View, member of the county Home Extension Unit, was a guest, and Mrs. Dale Doolittle became a member. It was voted that the Unit give a half-scholarship to either boy or girl 4H club member for 4H summer camp, for Latham school. Election of officers took place with the re-election of Mrs. Glen Banton chairman, and new officers, Mrs. Alvis England vice-chairman and Mrs. J. S. Crepeau secretary-treasurer.

Next meeting will be May 11, at the home of Mrs. Alvis England, east of Cottage Grove lake, with project leaders, Mrs. Ad Heath and Mrs. England giving the lesson on "Textile Painting". Those wishing to take part in the painting are to bring their own paint kit, old white material for practice work, thumb tacks and a smooth board for working on.

Small jars with lids for mixing paint may be brought that keeps the paint from drying out. A planned luncheon will be held at noon.
