Graduation exercises for eighth grade graduates were held at London school May 25. The stage in the auditorium-gym was decorated with cedar boughs and bows and streamers of the class colors, pink and yellow. The boys of the graduating class cut the boughs from the woods and the class girls added their touch to the decorations. The two girls in the class carried out the color scheme, by Doris Heyen being dressed in pink and Doreen Fox in yellow.

Program included: Processional, Anne Hill; invocation by S. T. Clark who took P. M. Campbell's place; "Juanita," by the school chorus, directed by Mrs. Hill and accompanied by Kathryn Clark; "I Got to Go to School," by John A. Murry; "America for Me," by George Clark. An interesting address was given by Superintendent Virgil Kingsley of Cottage Grove union high school. Presentation of diplomas was made by school board director, Willard McKay. Recessional, Evelyn Garman. Class roll: Johnnie Bechtold, George Clark, Doreen Fox, Doris Heyen, George Johnson, Wayne McKay, John A. Murry, Robert Pfaff. Class motto: "Control Yourself." A huge bouquet of lilacs represented the class flower.

Lilacs and colorful garden flowers in every window of the spacious new lunch room, added to the last day of school picnic held May 26, with huge amounts of delicious food and lots of ice cream. Many parents attended and small brothers and sisters and a special note for the fathers attending. A lot of excitement was created by Bobby Blackwell who fainted for no apparent reason, while filling his plate in line. He had been having a cold and playing hard and the day was more than warmish. Floyd Rothauge is much better from his recent illness, looks fine, and attended the last day of school.

Mrs. Bob Collins is here with her three children from Roseburg for the graduation this week of her sister, Doris Raisor, from high school.

Mrs. Jess Hill is returning to Dorena next year to teach the fifth and sixth grades, and music in the school.

Now that school is out, the James Youngblood family is moving to near Yoncalla, where Mr. Youngblood is employed. The family has plans for returning to Green Forest, Arkansas, in the fall where Frances will finish high school and the family will join another son and daughter there.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Andrews entertained Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Andrews, a brother, from Sacramento last week, and took the visitors on a trip to the coast, usually beautiful with blooming scotch broom and rhododendrons at this time of year along the roadsides. A. K. Andrews is a government engineer in geological survey, that has to do with making maps. They also visited her sister at Monmouth and relatives at Gold Hill and Ashland.

Mrs. Clifford Townsend and new son, Dennis Bryson, are home and doing fine.

Mrs. Loma Hicks returned from Portland for another stay with her sister, Mrs. Lora Townsend, who is improving.

Pat Geer is accompanying a group of young people to Portland for the ice arena Monday evening. J. E. Banton is leaving this week to attend lectureship meetings of the Churches of Christ at Yosemite national park, south of Sacramento.

Mrs. Richard Kelso, Mr. and Mrs. Will Copeland, Mrs. Vonn Jones and Paula were visitors at London Church of Christ Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Clark and family spent Saturday and Sunday at Grants Pass with Mrs. Clark's cousin and Mr. Clark spoke at the Church of Christ there for Sunday services.

Hebron Church Bible School Vacation Bible school will begin at Hebron Christian church by lake, June 5, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. The school bus will run on the regular route for all children from five years thru the eighth grade. Bus driver has not yet been secured, but it is promised one will be found. Teachers are to be Mrs. Zella Tullar and Mrs. Goldie Tullar who will have the primary and junior classes. Mrs. Mabel Campbell, pre-school youngsters, and Mrs. Marjorie Berggren, upper grade girls. Upper grade boys teacher will be masculine but has not been decided at this time. This is the first Bible school attempted by this church. Previous summer Bible study classes were held by the London church.

Humidity of 25 and 27 held down operations in the woods Thursday and Friday last week, felt just like summer.

Mrs. Jack Long has been down again with a back ailment, but was able to join a group of family and relatives for fishing at the coast over the week end.

Mrs. Glen Banton entertained at her log house home on the hill for a plastic party, May 23, with 11 guests. Mrs. Frank Coleman served as demonstrator. Home-made cookies and punch were served for refreshments.

Mrs. Nora Henderson had a houseful last week that she hated to see leave, when her four daughters and two sons and families were home to visit. They gathered from Oregon and California to see their brother Cecil Henderson, who flew here from New York, and included another brother, Willard Henderson and wife from Drain, a sister Opal, Mr. and Mrs. George Chaffin and two children from Lakeview, Vera, Mr. and Mrs. Ensley Seals of Lorane and their son Welmer Fields and two children, Jerry and Nancy of Eugene, Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Davis of Ashland and Lottie of Oakland, California.

Bobby Blackwell had a birthday party for his seventh birthday Sunday afternoon, given him by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Blackwell at their home. Fourteen children and five adults attended. Games were played on the lawn and refreshments of ice cream, cool aid and cake were served. One cake baked by his mother and one with "Heigh-Ho Silver," and a cowboy on the decorations, a gift from his father. An exciting time was spent opening his many gifts, topped by a brand new fishing rod from Dad.

Mrs. Fred Mills returned Friday from Sacramento, Calif. and a visit with her daughter and new grandson. She reports the weather as nice, a little warm but not as warm as expected.

Mrs. Jeanne Morton returned Wednesday from a visit with her daughter near Fresno in the San Joaquin valley and reports the weather was very warm and she was glad to get back to Oregon. Leon Morton and Chet Gilham laid out plots in the Taylor-Lane cemetery, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper Casler entertained at their home with a dinner Friday evening. The affair was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Higdon and family who will leave soon to spend the summer in Wichita, Kansas. The family will return to Cottage Grove the last of the summer and Mr. Higdon will resume his work as principal of London grade school. Mrs. Higdon will teach in Cottage Grove next year.

There were 22 guests invited for the farewell dinner.
