Now you Know!

The Answers to Everyday Problems
By G. B. ARNEST

QUESTION: Every once in a while we read in the paper about a car being stolen and later being found wrecked or stripped of everything removable. After the insurance company recovers the car, who pays for the damage or for all the things taken off of it?
ANSWER: The insurance company pays for all the damage.
Its responsibility is to return the car to the owner in approximately the same condition as before it was stolen or to pay the owner for any lost value.

★ If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.

Bohemia Nuggets

The high mountains are still covered with snow, both Champion Creek and Hardscable roads are blocked, on the upper ends.

Hi-Potential Mines have started assessment work on the Hiawatha group, and found it necessary to re-open the trail which was badly filled with windfalls and brush the past season.

Frank Wyatt has gone to the Venus mine to get things in order for the season work. The upper workings are still snow covered.

Build today, then, strong and sure.
With a firm and ample base;
And ascending and secure Shall tomorrow find its place.
