B & PW Club Installs New 1950-51 Officers; Initiates New Members

The 1950-51 officers of the Business and Professional Women's club were installed into their respective offices Monday night following a dinner meeting at the Methodist church. Miss Lottie Lee Lamb, retiring president, was installing officers.

Heading the club this year as president is Edna Piller. Installed to serve with her were: first vice president, Hazel Tohlen; second vice, Dorothy Schaffner; recording secretary, Vivian Barkemeyer; corresponding secretary, Lenora Pyburn and treasurer, Clara Lee.

Initiation was held for two new members, Deloris Porter and Edna Bisher, with Miss Lamb in charge of the initiatory team.

Reports were given of the state convention held at Corvallis May 19-21 by Edna Piller, Hazel Tohlen, Vivian Barkemeyer, Nell Bukowski, Sharon Bush, Gladys Anderson and Miss Lamb. Other members of the club attended the convention, but were not present to report.

Clara Lee of Lee's Paint Store was appointed ticket manager for the club's queen candidate, Joan Long, and club members may obtain tickets from her.

Plans were made to attend a meeting of the Yoncalla club on June 14 and will install its new officers and exemplify initiatory work.

The club sponsored the concert presented Tuesday night at the

Miss Charlene Young To Be June Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young announce the engagement of their daughter, Charlene, to Jerry E. Rhea. Both young people are of Cottage Grove. Mr. Rhea is the son of Mrs. Archie Ringo of Denair, California, and John Rhea of southern California.

The wedding of the couple is planned for late June. The bride-elect was graduated from the local high school last week, and Mr. Rhea attended California schools.

The wedding of the couple is planned for late June. The bride-elect was graduated from the local high school last week, and Mr. Rhea attended California schools.

During the business meeting it was decided to meet just once during the months of July and August, but due to the July meeting falling so close to the Fourth, it was decided to meet June 26.

At the dinner table tokens of remembrance were at the place of each officer who served the past year with Miss Lamb as president. In recognition of Miss Lamb being elected state educational and vocational chairman at the recent state convention, Hazel Tohlen presented her with a corsage in behalf of the club. Joan Gallo presented Miss Lamb with a past president guard for her BPW pin, also from the club, and her officers remembered her with a lovely bouquet of carnations.

A potluck picnic was planned for the next meeting at the home of Hazel Tohlen.

CARL KEBELBECK TO HEAD KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Other officers are: John Mangen, deputy grand knight; Robert Gierau, financial secretary; Robert Stapleton, recording secretary; John Keibelbeck, treasurer; Robert Dorey, lecturer; John Nowak, chancellor; Joseph Bricher, advocate; Lee Premazzi, warden; Albert Tonoli, inside guard; Deibert Wertz, outside guard; trustees: Joseph Trembley, one year; Ira Morris, two years; Frank Gierau, three years.

The newly elected officers met at the home of Albert Tonoli Monday for a discussion of plans for the new year.

Miss Joan Huntington Is May Bride at First Congregational Church, Eugene

Given in marriage by her father, John C. Huntington, Miss Marian Joan Huntington, became the bride of Roger Anders Soderstedt in a double ring ceremony at the First Congregational church, Eugene Saturday evening, May 27. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Huntington of Cottage Grove and Mr. Soderstedt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nero Soderstedt of Jasper.

Baskets of pink and yellow snapdragons at the altar decorated the church for the ceremony which was performed at 7:00 o'clock by Rev. Claude O'Brien of Springfield, pastor of the First Christian church. Organ music was by Elwin Myrick and the solos, "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Mrs. Marvin Reynolds.

The bride was gowned in white frosted organdy over taffeta with French illusion veiling at the yoke. The dress was styled with short off-shoulder sleeves, fitted waist with two rows of scallops at the hip line. The full skirt and train was outlined with a row of small scallops. Her fingertip illusion veil edged with Chantilly lace, fell from a headpiece of illusion veiling and seedpearls.

With white prayer book and white orchid which she carried, she also carried a letter of "Best Wishes" from Sweden. She wore an heirloom pin which is 130 years old of Sarah Woodén. Her pearls were the gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Floyd Mouney, sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor, wearing frosted white organdy over yellow taffeta, made with fitted bodice, full skirt and self-trimmed with scallops. She wore a cap of stephanotis and sweet peas. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and sweetpeas, centered with gardenias.

Jack Gleason of John Day was best man and the ushers were Jasper Hills, Richard Kintzley and Neil Jones.

Mrs. Huntington chose a big dressmaker suit, navy blue accessories and a deep orchid corsage for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a blanchiangi with white and brown accessories and a light orchid corsage.

The reception was in the Wheeler room of the church where the bride's table was centered with the wedding cake. The cake was cut by Mrs. Robert C. Good and Mrs. Jasper B. Hills, sister of the bride. Pouring was Mrs. Morris L. Stewart, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Allen Haynes had charge of the guest book.

The couple will be at home after June 10th in Pleasant Hill, following a wedding trip to points south. For going away Mrs. Soderstedt chose a navy blue gabardine tailored suit with navy and white accessories and wore an orchid. She is a former student of the U. of O. and Business college.

He is a graduate of Grant Union high school and the Portland Barber college. At present he is a partner of the Jasper Lumber Co. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Mouney, Gary, Lynn, Dennis and Rose Mary of Merril, Oregon; Mrs. Emma Sloan, Mrs. Erma Miller, Mrs. Martha Burke of Drain; Mrs. Gertrude Gleason of John Day and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Herbert and daughter, Canyonville, Oregon.

Cost of Homes

In 1949 the average American house and lot cost a little under $5000. It now costs more than double that.

OES INITIATES SIX CANDIDATES

At the regular meeting of the Order of Eastern Star held in the Masonic temple May 28 initiation was held for six candidates: Lela Perini, Ila Sibley, Herma Absene, Uleta Absene, Gladys Kelly and Horace Cochran.

The officers honored Wolff Allen, worthy patron, with an addendum, each in fishing costume including straw hats and fishing poles. The occasion was Mr. Allen's birthday anniversary. Each fishing pole had a gift attached, something pertaining to fishing, for Mr. Allen.

The next meeting was announced for June 9 when initiation will be held.

Committees of the Eastern Star and Masons met Tuesday evening and made arrangements for the annual picnic to be held July 23, the nearest date to the 70th anniversary of the chapter of Eastern Star. The place will be announced later.

GIRL SCOUTS CAMP FOUR DAYS AT CLEAWOX

Girl Scout Troop No. 139 sponsored by Ladies of the Moose spent four busy days troop camping at the Girl Scout camp located on Lake Cleawox near Florence.

The girls took advantage of the extreme low tide Thursday morning and went beach-combing. In spite of the cold wind and heavy fog, a fine collection of sea life was found.

The remainder of the time was spent exploring the peninsula on which the Girl Scout camp is located, swimming in Lake Cleawox, climbing sand dunes and camp games. The troop did all its own cooking and camp kapers under the supervision of their leaders Mrs. C. W. Cottrill and Mrs. R. H. Longfellow.

Many badge requirements were earned by the girls and valuable experiences gained. A good time was reported with a reluctance to pack up to come home.

Goldenweds Cut Anniversary Cake

A recent golden wedding anniversary was that of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Swearenger of Trent.

"CAN YOU GIVE MORE?" IS TOPIC FOR MEETING

"Can You Give More?" will be the subject for the program of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church Wednesday, June 14, in the church parlor, when the group meets for a 7-45 dessert with Mrs. Albert Woodard, Mrs. Robert Frye and Miss Hazel Tohlen as hostesses.

Mrs. J. H. Minkler will be program leader and devotionals will be led by Mrs. N. E. Compton. The program will be followed by the annual pledge service. All women of the church are urged to attend.

CLUB ENTERTAINED AT DESSERT AND BRIDGE

Mrs. Harry Metcalf entertained the LaComus club Tuesday afternoon at a dessert course and bridge at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Faye Stewart. Mrs. T. C. Wheeler won high score at bridge.

Mrs. K. E. Mickey will entertain the club members at the next regular meeting, June 20.

Miss Doris Bates To Wed Fred Wright

The forthcoming marriage of Miss Doris Bates to Fred Wright, both of Creswell, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Bates.

BRIDE-TO-BE HONORED

Miss Maxine Blue was the guest of honor at a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. L. R. Goodwin Friday, June 2. Mrs. Crawford Post was co-hostess for the affair. Following an afternoon of appropriate games Miss Blue opened her many lovely and useful gifts and refreshments were served the 20 guests.

Miss Blue and Paul Reeve plan a late June wedding.

LOCAL K OF C'S ATTEND SPRINGFIELD INITIATION
