Wedding Showers For Brides-to-Be

A delightful double wedding shower, the largest shower of the season, was given for Evelyn Garman and Betty Youngman at the London 4-H club house, Wednesday afternoon, July 7 by Mrs. C. L. Powell assisted by her granddaughter, Phyllis Garman. Entertainment consisted of clever pencil games of wit with prizes going to the scholastic guests who were present, Virginia Dailey, Gloria and Marie Clark, Mrs. Nora Small won the character study and Mrs. Mable Funk was chosen as the best dressed "bride."

The brides-to-be, both attractive blondes, were escorted to their honored guest chairs and duplicate gift tables, as Phyllis Garman gave a reading. Decorations were of pink and white streamers woven as a background and miniature umbrellas over the tables where there were vases of white roses and pink rosebuds.

To be worthy of their gifts the prospective brides were submitted to a contest darning socks and giving basic recipes for biscuits and Johnny cake. Duplicate prizes of miniature vases were awarded. Each girl opened gifts from fifty-five friends and relatives. Thirty-four guests signed the guest list.

Virginia Dailey assisted as gift trolley for Evelyn and Mae Malcolm for Betty.

Strawberry shortcake with whipped cream and fruit punch were served for refreshments.

Out of the community guests included, Mrs. C. L. Leathers, Mrs. Roy Hutchison, Mrs. Harland Belcher, Mrs. Elmer Groat, all of Cottage Grove; Mrs. Marian Bridwell of Hebron, Gloria Clark recently home from Los Angeles, Mae Malcolm and Virginia Dailey also of Cottage Grove.

Miss Garman is the betrothed of Gary Leathers of Cottage Grove with indefinite wedding date for this summer and Miss Youngman is the betrothed of David Garman, brother of Evelyn, and the wedding date set for July 1.

N. OF W. PEP MEETING SATURDAY JUNE 17

Cottage Grove, Eugene and Springfield circles of the Neighborhoods of Woodcraft will hold a pep meeting in the local IOOF hall, Saturday night, June 17 at 8 o'clock. A state officer and several district officers are expected to be present.

Initiation will be held with the Springfield captain and guards in charge and the Eugene captain and team will have charge of the memorial service. A short program will be presented.

LOCAL MUSIC TEACHERS ATTEND 35TH CONVENTION

Mrs. Cecil Caldwell and Mrs. H. A. Hagen attended the 35th annual convention of the Oregon Music Teachers' Association held Sunday through Tuesday in Portland at Lewis and Clark college.

Highlights of the convention were a recital Monday afternoon by Fred Rothchild, pianist, Florence Vanderwicken, soprano, and Robert Hort, pianist. The latter two were from the University of Oregon. An artist concert was given Monday night by Randolph Holmanson, pianist.

Tuesday morning's program was highlighted by a lecture by John M. Williams and a musical interlude by Francis Bittner, pianist, of the University of Oregon.

Tuesday afternoon election of officers was held, and a six o'clock banquet at the Cosmopolitan club brought the convention to a close. Main speaker at the banquet was John Crowder and soloist was Lloyd Linder, tenor.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

The Catholic Daughters of America met in the Jefferson school cafeteria on June 8 for the regular meeting and installation of the new 1950-51 officers.

Installing officer was Lucille Kennedy of Eugene, state vice grand regent, assisted by Margaret DiPaolo. Installed into their respective offices were Lenora Langston, worthy grand regent; Neva Tonoli, vice grand regent; Hilda Tonoli, treasurer; Joyce Zerangue, financial secretary; Betty Mangin, lecturer; Evelyn Plueard, prophetess; Ericka Swoboda, monitor; Elizabeth Paquette, sentinel; Maude Gierau, organist; and Peggy Manley and Delores McCall, trustees.

A gift was presented to the outgoing worthy grand regent, Catherine Sederger. Several guests were present from Eugene.

The regular business meeting was transacted and refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

OES PLANS PICNIC

At the regular meeting of the Order of Eastern Star Friday night Aileen Rickard, associate matron, presided in the absence of the worthy matron. Plans were made for the OES-Masonic picnic to be held July 23 at Cottage Grove lake. All members of the Star and Masonic lodges and their families are invited, each to bring his own table service. Coffee, cream, milk and ice cream will be furnished. Games have been planned for the children. There will also be swimming and softball. Transportation will be furnished for those who do not have a way. Meet at the Masonic temple at noon for transportation.

Initiation was held for Helen Dungan. Harriet Horn announced that the Past Matrons club will entertain the 1950 officers, husbands and wives at a 6:30 dinner to be held on the next regular meeting night, June 23, in the clubroom of the Masonic temple.

Refreshments were served with Betty Rickard chairman of the committee.

WOM TO INSTALL OFFICERS

Installation of newly elected officers of the Women of the Moose and initiation of candidates will be held Thursday evening, June 15, at 8 o'clock in the Moose hall. All members who wish to wear formal may do so.

The refreshment committee is composed of Mrs. L. L. Bennett, Mrs. Bill Funk, Mrs. George McMurrick and Miss Sylvia Richardson.

Double Ring Rite Unites Joy Parrish And Delmar Fisher; Father Officiates

Courtesy Clark's Studio

Miss Joy Ann Parrish, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Parrish of Cottage Grove and Delmar E. Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fisher of Lynx Hollow, were married in a double ring ceremony at the Assembly of God church at eight o'clock Thursday evening, June 15. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, Rev. Parrish.

The church was decorated with large baskets of delphinium, pink and white snapdragons, sweet rocket, blue lupin and pink rosebuds. One hundred and fifty guests attended.

The bride given in marriage by her uncle, George Ring of Pendleton, wore a floor-length gown of white slipper satin with covered buttons down the back from the neckline to the waist. The full skirt fell into deep folds and formed the long train. The long tapering sleeves were finger-tip length. A graceful arrangement of seed pearl was on the shoulder for accentuating trim. The long veil was held in place with a coronet of seed pearls. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift from a maternal aunt, Mrs. George Ring. The bride carried a white Bible topped with a spray of white stephanotis and fern.

Mrs. George Ring of Pendleton was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of lavender organdie and carried a bouquet of pastel colored sweep peas.

The three bridesmaids were Miss Juanita Young and Miss Alma Potter both from Milton-Freewater, and Miss Barbara Ward. Miss Young wore a long gown of blue brocade organdie and Miss Potter wore a similar dress of yellow dotted swiss. Miss Ward wore blue satin. They had bouquets of pastel sweep peas.

Ring bearer was little Brian Fournier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fournier. Flower girls were Judith and Connie Ring of Pendleton gownned alike in long lavender color organdie formal. The little girls wore rosebuds in their hair and carried baskets of flowers.

Preceding the ceremony, the tall candleabra, lighted by Miss Irene Price of Springfield in pink net, Miss Janice Brown in blue, Miss Donna Strickland in yellow and Miss Joan Johnson in pink, formed the background for the wedding party. Mrs. Paul Kienel of Milton-Freewater sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony and also sang "Together" as the bride and bridegroom knelt for the final prayer. She was accompanied by Mrs. Vernon Kienel of Roseburg at the piano who also played the traditional wedding music.

Best man was Robert Naish. Ushers were Boyd Strong, Don White and James Boyce.

A reception was held in the church. Mrs. William Pruitt and Mrs. Lon Bell served. Following the couple's initial slice the wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Paul Kienel. Gifts and guest book were in charge of Miss Norma Norel and Miss Reba Jackson. Mrs. W. D. Lovegren was in charge of the bride's table.

The reception table was covered with a lace cloth and decorated with tall tapers and flowers with the three-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bridegroom and bride, placed in the center.

Mrs. Parrish chose a gown of sheer navy blue for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Fisher wore aqua crepe, both mothers having red rosebud corsages.

For a wedding trip to Seattle, Yakima and eastern Oregon, the bride wore a pink sharkskin suit with white accessories and had a carnation corsage. Following the honeymoon trip the young couple will be at home on South River Road. Mrs. Fisher attended local schools and also the Canyonville Bible Academy. Mr. Fisher was graduated from the local high school.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Iva Messenger of Coos Bay and Willard Urica of Eugene.

BAPTIST CHURCH MEMBERS TO PICNIC

Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock the First Baptist church will have its all church picnic in the city park. This picnic includes the Bible Vacation school and the whole church and friends. Mrs. Charles Parrett, superintendent, of the Sunday school is making the plans and preparations.

There will be transportation provided from the church at 3 o'clock and 6:30 o'clock for those who need it. The picnic meal will be potluck therefore, people will bring their own wieners and buns, but ice cream and coffee will be provided. Picnickers are also asked to bring their own silverware, but cups and plates will be provided. If it rains the picnic will be in the church basement.

There will be games and fun for all. Parents are invited to come with their children.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET JUNE 3, AT METHODIST CHURCH

Eighty-five mothers and daughters gathered in Friendship hall of the Methodist church the evening of June 3, for a mother-daughter banquet sponsored by the World Friendship Girls. The room was attractively decorated with pastel colored dolls. Harold Hicks prepared the dinner, and the men of the church served it.

Kay Leonard, president of the group, gave the welcome to the mothers and daughters, after which each officer was introduced, and they in turn introduced their mothers. The officers are: Kay Leonard, president; Ruth Coston, vice president; Lorna VanDenBosch secretary and Rosemary Hanks, treasurer.

Guest speaker was Miss Dorothy Harding, who spoke on the subject "Living in the Home." Kay Leonard rendered a solo, "That Wonderful Mother of Mine," accompanied by Kay Gates. Short talks on missionaries in other countries were given by Ruth Coston, Ida Coston and Rosemary Hanks.

Mrs. Frank Brown, leader of the World Friendship Girls, was presented a gift from the group, with Rosemary Hanks making the presentation.

POTLUCK DINNER SUNDAY AT MACREADY HOME

Members of the Episcopal church and their families, approximately 20 in number, gathered at the George Macready home on Sunday for a potluck dinner following the church service. Besides the local members, Dean Perry Smith of Corvallis was present. Additional guests were Howard Gilbert and LaSells Stewart.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS HAS SUPER AND CARD PARTY

Members of the Royal Neighbors enjoyed a 7 o'clock dinner Tuesday night in the Eagles hall which was followed by canasta and pinchle. Three tables of canasta were at play with Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Saug receiving prizes. Fannie Leabo and Z. Berger were high scorers at pinchle.

Music was furnished by J. C. Stanton on the guitar and his granddaughter, Christine Stanley, who played the accordion.

FINAL MEETING OF ALTAR SOCIETY

The final meeting of the Catholic Altar Society until September was held June 7 at the home of Mrs. William Zimmerman. At this time plans were completed for the Religious Summer Vacation school to be held at Jefferson school June 19-30.
