LATHAM Mrs. Esther Trunnell, Reporter Phone 17-F-11

At the State Convention of the Federation of Garden clubs at Klamath Falls, June 13-15, Mrs. J. F. Godard was elected vice president of the Willamette district.

There were eight districts in the state, each presided over by a vice president who assists the state president. Mrs. Godard and Mrs. Ralph Sears were delegates of the Cottage Grove Garden club.

Catherine Heath and Myrtle Johnson attended the 4-H club summer school at Corvallis.

The Skelton ranch formerly owned by F. B. VanNortwick has been sold to Dr. and Mrs. Robert Merriek who will move there soon.

The Skeltons had made extensive improvements to the house. Dr. Merriek also purchased the other 15 acres. The original buildings were erected on a 100 acre tract by J. D. Anderson in 1906-7.

He had purchased it from John Coolidge who took up the first land claim.

Al Hinton has sold his sawmill on Mosby Creek to Ernest Tinkner and Merle Rose who will call it the M & E Lumber Co. Albert Lancaster will continue as sawyer.

Mrs. Fred Harris spent last week attending the State Grange sessions at Ontario, as delegate from Hebron Grange.

Robert Swearingen of Drain is spending the week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert St. Elmo.

Mrs. Vernon Patrick of Yoncalla whose husband was killed when a log rolled on him recently near Gunter, is a cousin of Hugh and Murrey Trunnell.

C. C. Hoskins has purchased the Roy Means home and moved in. The Roy Means left Sunday with their trailer home for North Bend where Mr. Means is supervising the construction of the M. E. church. Bob Means remained in Cottage Grove. He is assisting his brother Glen in the construction of a government fish hatchery near Dorena dam.

Mrs. Merle Porter and her mother, Mrs. Julia Watts of Springfield left Sunday for Lewiston, Idaho, where they will be joined by five sisters. Mrs. Porter for a family reunion. One sister will come from New York City.

Robert and James Richardson of Bellflower, Calif. are spending the summer at the home of their grandfather, O. M. Patten. They came with Mrs. Patten when she returned from California recently.

Mads Overgaard is in the Eugene hospital recovering from an operation on June 20.

Ronnie Bangle of Paso Robles, California is spending a couple of months with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Bray Sr.

Some Hebron grange members attended church at Hebron Sunday and the basket dinner of grange and church at the grange hall afterward.

June 25 the Jolly Workers are sponsoring a community picnic on the east side of the lake after church.

95 per cent of the voters of a community can and have shown the power of public opinion. Let us never lose this priceless American heritage. If we instill the principles of democracy in our sons and daughters, we need not fear for their future. If we do not, we already have glimpses of what we will have. This is an ever revolving process that must go on daily both at home and at school. Dare we as citizens fail to carry the light?

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Arne and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Plaster spent Sunday on a trip to Bend. They went by way of Willamette highway and returned on the McKenzie.

Latham voters elected Geo. McReynolds to succeed Merle Porter as director at the annual meeting Monday evening. Sixty-eight votes were cast in all.

As the next regular school board meeting falls on July 4 it will be held Wednesday evening July 5.

A Father's day picnic at the Gerald Beers home included beside their family, the R. Botleys, Roy Beers, Chester Morris, Ray Ross families, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Godard and Mrs. Rosa Martin.

J. R. Whitney spent three days in Dallas last week. He is employed by Sears, Roebuck & Co. in laying floor coverings.

Everyone is invited to the dedication ceremonies of the new W. A. Woodard Library in Cottage Grove on July 1 with Gov. Douglas McKay as the principal speaker. Open house will be held after the ceremonies.

With the Granges

DORENA GRANGE

The regular meeting of Dorena Grange was held at the hall on Thursday, June 15, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Larson, Kenneth Wicks and Jimmy Plaisted were fully initiated in the third and fourth degrees.

Tableaux were presented under the direction of Avanel Wicks, assisted by Dolah Plaisted.

Grange members, their families and friends are invited to a potluck supper and social evening at the hall on Thursday, June 29. It is hoped that music can be provided for some desire lessons in square-dancing.

The next serving committee for the meeting of July 6 will be Ed. Ellen, Shirley and Jean Ellen Sherrill, Mrs. Fritz Tanner and Joe Schneider.

HEBRON GRANGE

Hebron grange at its meeting Saturday night exemplified the first and second degrees.

Gladys Means, who is moving to the coast resigned as lady assistant steward and Hazel Roy was elected to fill her chair.

A report was made by Mrs. Wes Saunders on the expenditures of the money donated by the grange to the Latham 4-H Rodent club.

Nellie Harris, secretary, was in attendance at the state grange session and will make a report at the next regular meeting which will be held July 8 instead of the first, because of the holiday.

Hebron grange will have a special meeting Saturday, June 24, at 8 p.m. for the third and fourth degree initiation. If you have entered any names in the contest please be sure your candidates are present, as it will be their last chance to receive the degrees before the contest closes. Serving committee will be Mrs. Levey Harris and Marvyn and Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Patten. Patrons please bring sandwiches and cake.

The H.E.C. will meet Tuesday, June 27, at 1:30 p.m. at the Fred Harris home with Nellie and Levey Harris as co-hostesses.

William Henry Harrison was president of the United States for only 31 days. He caught pneumonia during his inauguration and died April 4, 1841.

Trucks supplied by Ford Motor Company are carrying replicas of the famous Liberty bell into every state of the United States to spearhead the U. S. Treasury department's Savings Bond Independence Drive. The bells were given to the Treasury by six United States copper companies. When they arrived in New York they were mounted on Ford trucks and sent to every state in the Union. The above photo shows one of the bells mounted on a Ford truck at the Brooklyn Navy yard, with the New York City skyline in the background.

CURTIN

Mrs. Grace Thompson, Reporter Phone 12F6

Mrs. Jerdon arrived Monday night via bus from California for a visit at the Ames home.

Monday overnight guests at the Roy Stephens home were his folks from North Bend, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Stephens who were enroute to board the train for California. Other Monday night visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stephens and three children of North Bend. Ted Stephens of McMinnville was also at home for a few days.

The primary pupils of the Curtin school received cards from their teacher, Mrs. Myrtle Gleason, who is vacationing in Florida, stating she would arrive home around the first of the month.

Russell and Terry Marquart of Cottage Grove are staying at the Ray Stephens home.

A log truck went over the grade Friday morning just after it turned off the state highway on the Bear Creek road. Luckily no one was hurt although traffic was blocked for some time. The truck couldn't make the turn and had to back up and in so doing the axle broke and the trailer hauled, thus putting the truck over. The logs were pulled and dumped into the pond by one of the lumber carriers.

Grandma Allison was removed from the hospital Thursday morning to Garber's Nursing Home at 2815 Potter St. in Eugene, where she will remain until June 21 when she will reenter the hospital for hip surgery on the morning of June 22. Just how long she will have to remain there isn't known at present, but it is hoped she will be able to return home before too long.

Mrs. Rhea Cosby entertained the Women's Hobby club Wednesday at the Holt home with the following persons present: Mrs. Ruby Meacham, Mrs. Dorothy Oleson, and Deanna, Mrs. Grace Thompson, Mrs. Flora Holt, Mrs. Dorothy Booher, Michael, Diane and Loren, Mrs. Emma Stephens, Mary Lou and Donna Faye, and the hostess Mrs. Rhea Cosby.

Everyone is invited to the dedication ceremonies of the new W. A. Woodard Library in Cottage Grove on July 1 with Gov. Douglas McKay as the principal speaker. Open house will be held after the ceremonies.

TWO LOCAL DRUGGISTS AMONG 335 VETERANS REGISTERED IN STATE

Two local druggists, Claude Kem and John Kelly are listed among the 335 veteran druggists of Oregon, who have been actively engaged in the drug business for thirty-five years or more. Both are eligible to attend the 11th annual session of the Veteran Druggists which will be held in connection with the O. S. P. A. convention at the Multnomah hotel in Portland June 22 and 23.

In looking over the 1950 druggist directory we find that John Kelly was licensed on June 10, 1913 and Claude Kem on September 6, 1909.
