Several ladies who could not be present sent their gifts, and joined with the others in wishing Maxine and Paul much happiness.

Wedding Bells Ring At Reno for Two Cottage Grove Pairs

Wedding bells rang in Reno, Nevada, Saturday, June 10, for two Cottage Grove couples when Miss Nancy Lou Donner became the bride of Lloyd Earl Parrish and Miss Peggy Fynch was married to Clay Hughes. Both were married by the Rev. Brewster Adams at a candlelight ceremony at the home of the First Baptist minister. Each couple attended the other couple as witnesses.

Miss Nancy Lou Donner is the daughter of Mrs. Joe D. Glass of Cottage Grove and H. C. Donner of Campbell, California, and Lloyd Earl Parrish is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Parrish of Carson City, Michigan. They were attended by Miss Peggy Fynch and Clay Hughes.

Miss Donner wore navy chiffon over white waffle pique, blue picture hat and white accessories. Her flowers were white carnations.

Mrs. Parrish attended University High in Eugene and the University of Oregon. Mr. Parrish attended schools in Carson City, Michigan. They are making their home in Cottage Grove.

Miss Peggy Fynch is the daughter of Mrs. Wendell Fynch of Cottage Grove and the late Wendell Fynch, and Clay Hughes is the son of W. A. Hughes of Murphy, North Carolina. The bride wore a dress of white waffle pique, blue accessories and red carnations were her flowers. She carried a handkerchief of her grandmother's which was a keepsake.

Mrs. Hughes attended Cottage Grove union high school. They are living at 1142 Birch. Mr. Hughes is employed at Booth-Kelly Lumber Company.

When the couples returned a wedding dinner was served to them at Oakridge at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harford Hughes, brother of Clay Hughes.

Couple Exchanges Vows June 10 At Church Ceremony in Floral Setting

Courtesy Clark's Studio

The Free Methodist church was the scene Saturday night, June 10, for the wedding of Miss Cleo Elaine Stroh, daughter of Calvin H. Stroh, of Cottage Grove, to Leonard G. Barkemeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barkemeyer, also of Cottage Grove. The Rev. C. B. Starkey officiated at the candlelight ceremony. The couple exchanged wedding vows in a setting of white carnations.

The white tapers were lighted preceding the ceremony by Bruce Johnson and Marvin Schaffer. Miss Carolyn Moore sang, "Oh, Promise Me," accompanied by Miss Karen Madsen, who also played the wedding march.

Mr. Stroh gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white pique street-length dress with lace yoke, lace gloves, white picture hat and white accessories. Her flowers were white rosebuds and white carnations.

Miss Shirley Huff was maid of honor and Miss Vennie Stroh, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Miss Huff wore pink satin and Miss Stroh, pink eyelet embroidery. Both carried bouquets of sweetpeas.

Best man was Cecil Martin and ushers were Ross Adkins and Pete Ritter.

A reception was held in the church parlor. A four-tiered decorated wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple centered the bride's table. Miss Delores VanMatre and Miss Jean Rickard served the cake and punch, and Miss Carolyn Moore had charge of the guest book.

Mr. Barkemeyer is attending Eugene Business College and the bride will be a junior in the local high school next fall. They are making their home in Cottage Grove.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Russell and Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard all of Salem.

Miss Clark is Wed In Outdoor Rites

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Marie Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Thomas Clark of London and William B. Cantwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Cantwell of Cottage Grove, was solemnized Sunday afternoon, June 18 in an outdoor setting at the bride's home.

An old apple tree on the lawn of the family playground, served as canopy overhead; while a background of fir boughs, wood ferns, white streamers, candelabra with tall white candles and numerous bouquets of roses, ferns, blue bells of Scotland and white artificial carnations completed the setting. The bride was given in marriage by her father, in a double ring ceremony preformed by Mr. Clinton Storm, minister of the Church of Christ at 10th and Washington streets in Eugene.

Miss Clark wore a white rayon satin wedding gown made with scalloped neckline, cap sleeves and peplum, and a fingertip length veil of nylon net trimmed in wide nylon lace, falling from a headband of pale pink artificial roses. She carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Brunner rosebuds, white carnations and white stephanotis.

The bride was attended by her two sisters Miss Gloria Clark and Miss Betty Clark. Miss Gloria Clark, maid of honor, wore a pink rayon taffeta formal, made on the same pattern as the bride's gown, with a deeper shade of pink headband of artificial roses, and carried a nosegay of pastel colored sweetpeas. Miss Betty Clark wore an aqua formal of rayon taffeta, also made like the bridal gown, with a deeper shade of aqua flowered headband, and carried a nosegay of pastel colored sweetpeas.

Mr. Cantwell was attended by a brother, Richard Cantwell and Byron Blue, both of Cottage Grove.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Anne Hill sang, "I Love You Truly," and "O Promise Me." Wedding music and the wedding marches were played by Miss Evelyn Garman.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece dress of gray sharkskin trimmed in white, with a corsage of red rosebuds and white gardenias.

Mrs. R. E. Cantwell, mother of the bride, wore an aqua print rayon taffeta, with a corsage of Tallinn rosebuds.

Mrs. R. E. Cantwell cut the decorated wedding cake at the reception, held at the house immediately following the wedding ceremony. Mrs. James Quigley assisted in cutting the other cakes.

Mrs. Frank D. Overholser, aunt of the bride, served the punch. Miss Marjorie Newton had charge of the guest book. Assisting the bride and groom with their gift unwrapping were Miss Mae Malcolm and Miss Virginia Dalley of Cottage Grove.

Mr. Norman Kennedy took moving pictures of the wedding ceremony, the bride and groom cutting their first slice of cake, and later of their opening of the many lovely wedding gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Cantwell plan to spend a few days in Eugene, after which they will be at home in their little trailer house at the Cantwell Service station in Cottage Grove. A delayed honeymoon trip to California is planned for next winter.
