Surprise Bridal Shower Honoring Miss Charlene Young

A surprise bridal shower honoring Miss Charlene Young was given at the Charles Young home Friday afternoon, June 16, by Miss Mae Malcolm. Entertainment consisted of several amusing games with the character study prize going to Miss Lois Oviatt. Miss Cindy Gore and Miss Eunice Hand received prizes in the games for the most observant guests.

The honoree received her gifts in a large willow clothes basket. Decorations consisted of a clothes line strung along one corner of the room used as a "shower" corner with tiny clothes pins holding up various household articles and the words "good luck."

The bride-to-be received many lovely and useful gifts. Miss Carol Violette acted as gift tally. Cake and punch were served as refreshments.

Guests included the Misses Jackie Lemmer, Elizabeth Workman, Virginia Dailey, Evelyn Garman, Eunice Hand, Lois Oviatt, Carolyn Crane, Verna Thyfault, Cindy Gore, Nancy Quinn, Carol Violette, Nelda Schwarzer, the honoree, the hostess and Mrs. Charles Young. Invited guests unable to attend were the Misses Nadine Carlson, Peggy Ketcherside, Virginia Hudson, Barbara Kinsland and Mrs. Barbara Gleason Lowe.

Miss Young is the betrothed of Jerry Rhea of Cottage Grove. The wedding has been set for late June.

Gold Cross Heirloom Worn by Bride At Double Ring Church Ceremony

Courtesy Clark's Studio

Miss Louise Eleanor Walther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Walther of Cottage Grove, became the bride of George Everett Anderson Jr., son of Mrs. Harry Ward of San Francisco, California, and George E. Anderson of St. Helens, at a candlelight wedding in the Methodist church, Sunday afternoon, June 11, at two o'clock. The Rev. Frank Brown read the double ring ceremony. Baskets of peach gladioli and white delphinium and double candelabra on either side of the altar decorated the church for the exchange of vows of the couple. White satin bows marked the ends of the pews.

The bride wore a gold cross heirloom which had been in the family for five generations and came from Germany. This was borrowed from her mother. For "something blue," she carried a dainty blue handkerchief, and for good luck, a dime in her shoe. Her white Bible she carried was a gift of the bridegroom.

Mr. Walther gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of white slipper satin styled with a fitted bodice with net yoke edged with a lace-trimmed satin bertha her long fitted sleeves came to a point over her wrists. Her full gathered skirt had a lace edged peplum and a long train. A seed pearl tiara held her lace-edged illusion fingertip veil, and she carried a white Bible on which rested a white orchid and stephanotis. Miss Hazel Cooper was maid of honor. Her gown was aqua taffeta with net yoke edged with net pleating. The full skirt had a wide ruffle on either side of the center of the back extending from the waist to hem. She wore long matching mitts and headress of matching lace and taffeta. Her bouquet was pastel sweetpeas. Bridesmaids were Miss Frieda Schwarzer of Saginaw and Miss Nadine Smith, both in peach gown, mitts and headress, identical to the maid of honor's. They also carried sweetpeas.

Flower girl was little LeAnna Jean Potter and ring bearer was Rollo LeRoy Potter, twins, and children of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Potter. LeAnna wore a dainty floor-length dress of aqua taffeta with net yoke edged with a ruffle of the same material. Her headress was taffeta and lace. She carried a basket of flower petals and wore a corsage of rosebuds. The ringbearer wore a brown suit.

Best man was Raymond Hanson of Eugene. Ushers and taper lighters were J. M. Ohrling and W. R. Edwards, both of Eugene. Edward Twing of Dorena, close friend of the family, acted as the bride's mother.

The bride's mother wore an aqua silk crepe dress, and the bridegroom's foster mother wore a printed silk. Both had orchid corsages.

Mrs. Boyd Allen was organist, and played the traditional wedding marches. She also accompanied Miss Martha Roy, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with Mrs. C. L. Hanks in charge. A three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and surrounded at the base with yellow and rose colored rosebuds, centered the bride's table. Mrs. Charles Brown of Portland, sister of the bridegroom, cut the cake after the initial piece was cut by the bride and groom. Mrs. LeRoy Potter presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Frank I. Miller poured coffee. The Misses Florence Hickthier and Rowena Florence Hickthier and Rowena Florence Hickthier were in charge of the gifts and Mrs. William Schneider of Portland had the guest book. Large baskets of peach gladioli, blue and white delphinium and white carnations decorated the rooms.

For a wedding trip to California Redwoods the bride wore a white figured nylon dress, also white hat, gloves and shoes. They are now at home at 555 North River Road, apartment 31.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school with the class of '49 and is employed by Pacific Mill Co., Inc., at Creswell. Mr. Anderson graduated from the Oregon City high school and served four years in the navy in World War II. He is employed by Columbia River Log Scaling and Grading Bureau.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith of Portland, uncle and aunt and foster parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown and son, Chuckie of Portland, a sister of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. William Schneider, also of Portland; Mr. and Mrs.

J. M. Ohrling, N. M. Ohrling, Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Ohrling, Ray Hanson, arvin Hanson, Dick Axland, W. M. Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Olson, all of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morris of Springfield.

LONDON 4-H MOTHERS CLUB BUSY AT QUILTING

As busy as bees, thirteen members of London 4-H Mother club quilted on an old fashioned crazy quilt, at their meeting June 14, to be completed at the next meeting, to make way for a keepsake quilt for Mrs. Fred Mills, made from pieced scraps of her own and her daughter, Frances, cotton dresses, to be put in the frames for quilting next. It has been reminded that not only members who quilt need turn out as hand work on piecing a club quilt is still to be done so every one can be kept busy.

A tasty covered dish luncheon was served cafeteria style, and with Paul scarlet roses brought by Mrs. Emma Kelly and roses and azaleas brought by Mrs. Josie Phillips decorating the rooms.

A bulletin board is a new feature of the club rooms, where announcements, notes of interest and special cartoons or jokes are posted. Polly-annas were received by Mrs. G. A. Andrews and Mrs. Lavelle Quigley for birthday anniversaries and for Mrs. Lora Dayley, Mrs. Edith Gilman and Mrs. Marie Stein, all wedding anniversaries.

It is hoped the money making projects will soon finance repairs to the club building foundations. Next meeting will be June 28.

N OF W ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Horace Hatch entertained the members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft socially at her apartment Tuesday evening. The guests were served a delectable course and spent the evening with bridge and canasta. Mrs. R. B. Hill and Mrs. Fannie Leabo received prizes at bridge and Mrs. Hill, a guest and sister of Mrs. Lee Duffy who is visiting her from Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Bert Hatch received the canasta prizes.

What the bride should know, a free booklet for those ordering wedding announcements or invitations from the Sentinel.

Pupils Presented In Piano Recital

Mrs. F. Sherwood Smith presented her piano pupils recently in a recital.

A large number of parents and friends attended. The recital was given at the Robert Beach home, and refreshments of angel food cake, ice cream and punch were served.

Those taking part were as follows: Vernon Beach, playing "My Snow Man," by Tibbets and "Dutch Dance" by Herschberg; Sherry Smith, "April Flowers," by Stevens and "Spooky Hollow" by A. G. Brown; Edward Hemenway, "Evening Bells" by Thompson, "Excerpt from Magnificent Procession (Gounod-Schaum); Nancy Aubrey, "Valse Triste" (Sibelius-Thompson), "Dance of the Daffodils" (Adair); Gary Hughes, "Bicycle Built for Two" (Dacre), "Through the Woods," a French folk song, (Thompson); Carol Thiel, "Dream Ship" (Tschalkowsky-Schaum), "Starlight Waltz" (Thompson); Garnet Beach, "Pilgrim Suite" (Thompson), "Polonaise, Opus 53 (Chopin); Keith Campbell, "Off to Camp" (Anthony), "Londonderry Air," an Irish folk song.

DORCAS SOCIETY TO SEND CLOTHING FOR RELIEF

The Dorcas Society of the Seventh-day Adventist Church has around four hundred pounds of used clothing and bedding ready to ship to Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, for flood relief, according to Mrs. Grace Qualls. The donations from local people have been very much appreciated and have made this shipment possible. The freight for shipping will amount to about $8 a hundred pounds. If there are those who would like to help in sharing this expense, it would be appreciated. Donations or additional clothing may be left at Mrs. Qualls' Alteration Shop above Petersen's Department Store.

In local relief, the Dorcas Society has recently distributed 50 pieces of clothing to families who were out of work in Cottage Grove.
