GEN. HART COMMANDS MARINE CORPS SCHOOL

MAJ. GEN. HART

Major General Franklin A. Hart, U. S. Marine Corps, holder of the Navy Cross for heroism on Kwajalein Atoll, is scheduled to take command as Commandant of Marine Corps School, Quantico, Virginia, early in July. Twice in 1918, the veteran of more than 33 years of Marine Corps service, was stationed at the Virginia base. As Commandant at Quantico, which is called by many, "the University of the Marine Corps," General Hart will direct the Amphibious Warfare Schools, Junior and Senior Courses, The Basic School, Marine Corps Aviation Technical School, and the Ordnance School, to name a few. In World War I, after being commissioned a second lieutenant on April 6, 1917, General Hart saw action in France as commanding officer, Company "B," Machine Gun Battalion, Fifth Brigade. During World War II, he distinguished himself at Dieppe, France; Roi-Namur, Kwajalein Atoll, Marshall Island; Saipan and Tinian, Mari-ana Island (where he was awarded the Legion of Merit) and Iwo Jima.

COOPER'S RENTAL EQUIPMENT

Our aim is to make available equipment which is un-profitable for you to own but which is profitable for you to have a few times each year.

If you have painting, plumbing, gardening, woodwork-ing, cementing and general jobs to do around the farm and home we can save you time and money.

Everything we have is for rent except my brother and I. On second thought—make me an offer on him.
