Candlelight Ceremony at Corvallis Christian Church Unites Couple

The Christian Church in Corvallis was the scene of a pretty candlelight service Sunday afternoon June 11, when Miss Janet Gebhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gebhardt of Long Creek, became the bride of Marvon Howard Harpole, son of Mrs. Marvon Harpole of Cottage Grove and the late Marvon Harpole. F. Sherwood Smith, minister of the Church of Christ of Cottage Grove, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Proceeding the ceremony, Delbert Kirk sang "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer." He was accompanied by Thomas Roberts, organist, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bridal couple exchanged vows in a setting of palms and candelabra, with baskets of white snapdragons completing the decorations.

The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a white satin wedding gown which she designed and made. It was fashioned with a fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves, high neck, and long, full train. A beaded tiar held her lace edged, finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of white baby gladioli, pink roses and stephanotis.

The bride's attendants were sorority sisters. Miss Sharon Griffith was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Rosemary Roth and Miss Gretchen Thompson. All wore short lace mitts, and were gowned in identical dresses of white dotted swiss, made bouffant fashion. They each carried nosegays of pink and white carnations.

Gerold Witherspoon, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man.

Ushers were Bill Bryan, Dick Green, Jack Harrison and Cal Cox, all fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a rose crepe afternoon dress, with white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother wore a qu a crepe with white accessories. They each wore a corsage of pink roses and stephanotis.

A reception followed the ceremony and was held in the bride's sorority house. A three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, centered the bride's table, which was also decorated with white syringa blossoms. Mrs. Gerold Witherspoon, sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake, after the bride and groom had cut the initial piece. Miss Marian Miller poured. Serving were Miss Gail Rist, Miss Betty Lou Kelly, Miss Barbara Wilson, Miss Jerry Dickey and Miss Marlene Frichtle. Miss Nancy Curry was in charge of the guest book.

For going away the bride wore a suit of royal blue, which she had also designed and made. With it she wore white accessories and

ROYAL NEIGHBORS MEET

At the meeting of the Royal Neighbors Tuesday night in the Eagles' hall, it was decided to meet twice a month in July and August, with the second meeting of each month being a social.

An election of officers was held. Nellie Blackmore was chosen recorder; Cora Berger, receiver; and Mary Lou Stanley, manager. Mrs. Blackmore was appointed to represent the Royal Neighbors at the dedication of the library Saturday.

Also during the meeting, the charter was draped in honor of Edna Burleson, who passed away recently.

After the lodge meeting, there was a shower for Christine Stanley. The guessing game was won by Mae Tennis and Cora Berger. Refreshments were served by Mildred Stanley and Lillian Stanton.

EAGLES AUXILIARY APPOINTS AND INITIATES

At the regular meeting of the Eagles Auxiliary on June 20 standing committees were appointed and initiation held for candidates. It was decided to have initiation on the first meeting night of each month, but due to the first meeting falling on the Fourth of July, it was voted to initiate on the 18th. The initiatory team will wear formal.

A membership contest just closed, and the losing side with Wreatha Hobbs as captain will entertain the winners.

The evening closed with refreshments served by Beryl Shattuck, Ada Pitcher and Lucy Grable.

PICNIC SET FOR JULY 4

The local Townsend club picnic is planned for July 4 in the city park. The potluck dinner will be served at 12 o'clock. Everyone is welcome.
