Creswell Couple United at Local Methodist Church

Miss Doris Rae Bates and Fred D. Wright of Creswell were married in the Methodist church here Saturday afternoon at five o'clock. Rev. Clark Enz officiated at the wedding.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Bates of Creswell. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wright, also of Creswell.

Miss Verla Jean Stott of Creswell was bridesmaid and Ellis Wultschleger also of Creswell acted as best man.

Only immediate relatives of the couple were present for the ceremony.

Miss Bates wore a flowered street length dress, with white hat and accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridesmaid wore a corresponding dress with pink carnations.

The bride graduated from the Creswell high school with the class of 1950 and was elected 1950 Queen of the Creswell school. The bridegroom graduated from Cottage Grove high school in 1945.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright left following the ceremony for a vacation at the coast. They will make their home in Eugene.

Couple Plights Troth at Church Rite

The Methodist church was decorated with white delphinium, pink snapdragons and purple iris Saturday, June 3, at eight o'clock for the wedding of Miss Bobbie Yocum and Dick Schmitt. The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Yocum and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schmitt, both of Cottage Grove. The Rev. Frank Brown officiated.

Soloist for the wedding was Miss Diane Morelock, who sang "Because," "Dearly Beloved" and "Yours is My Heart Alone," accompanied by Miss Virginia Hudson.

Mr. Yocum gave his daughter in marriage. Her dress was of white taffeta and lace and ballerina length. Her fingertip veil of net, edged with matching lace, was held by a tiny crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink and gold rosebuds with an orchid center.

Her maid of honor, Miss Barbara Buckles, wore a similar dress of yellow taffeta and carried a bouquet of lavender sweetpeas and yellow carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Norma Schmitt, who wore pale green taffeta, and Shirley Huff, in pale pink. Each wore ballerina slippers to match her dress and carried a bouquet of sweetpeas and carnations.

Charles Englert acted as best man. Ushers were Marvin Schaffer and Peter Ritter.

Mrs. Clarence Buckles, mother of the maid of honor, served the cake at the reception in the church parlor. Miss Morelock poured, and Miss Norma Bradley had charge of the guest book. The cake was prettily trimmed with small roses in pastel colors.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmitt went on a wedding trip to San Francisco. For going away she wore a suit of navy blue with white accessories. They will live in Cottage Grove.

Both young people are graduates of the local high school, the bride with the class of '50 and the bridegroom with the class of '49.

WEDDING VOWS EXCHANGED AT L. D. S. CHURCH

The Latter Day Saints church in Eugene was the scene for the wedding of Miss Charlene Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young of Cottage Grove and Jerry Edward Rhea, also of Cottage Grove, son of Mrs. Archie Ringo of Denair, California and J. Rhea of San Francisco. Elder Vern Marble of Eugene, missionary from Tremonton, Utah, read the ceremony Saturday evening, June 24, at eight o'clock, before immediate relatives of the couple.

The bride wore a white ballerina style dress of sheer eyelet embroidery fashioned with V-neck, victorian collar, short sleeves and a full skirt. For "something borrowed" she wore a fingertip veil belonging to Mrs. Clarence Lowe. A cap effect hat held her veil in place. Her flowers were pink and white rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served the wedding party at the Eugene hotel.

The bride graduated with the spring class at the local high school. They are making their home in Cottage Grove.

LOCAL COUPLE TELLS OF COMING MARRIAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Sheets announce the engagement of their daughter Betty to Vernon Richard Balch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Balch. Both families are Cottage Grove residents.

The wedding date has been set for July 14.

Miss Maxine Blue and Paul Reeve Exchange Wedding Vows on June 30

All white was carried out in the bridal party gowns and church decorations for the wedding of Miss Maxine Blue and Paul Reeve Friday evening, June 30, at eight o'clock at the Methodist church. The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Blue and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Reeve, all of Cottage Grove. Tall baskets of white gladioli and snapdragons were on either side of the altar. Clinton Storm, minister of the Church of Christ of Eugene, read the double ring ceremony.

Gowned in ivory satin the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress was fashioned with fitted bodice, Peter Pan collar, poplin with seed pearl trim and a long train. Her fingertip veil of nylon net fell from a Juliet cap of pearls. She carried white rosebuds and stephanotis, a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, was worn by the bride.

Mrs. Wilford Reeve was matron of honor and Miss Virginia Newton and Miss Betty Jo Johnson were bridesmaids, all wearing identical gowns of floor-length white taffeta with pastel sashes and matching flowers. Flower girl was little Bobby Jean Manning, also in white, and ringbearer was T. R. Manning Jr.

Mrs. Blue wore a sheer print and Mrs. Reeve chose a printed silk crepe. Both had corsages of rosebuds and gardenias.

Wilford Reeve was best man for his brother, and Bryan Blue, brother of the bride, and Donald Bost, cousin of the bride, were ushers. Charles Blue, another brother of the bride, and Abe Hanks, were candlelighters.

Mrs. Monte Pitcher sang "There's No Tomorrow," accompanied by Mrs. Boyd Allen, organist.

At the reception which followed in the church parlor Mrs. W. C. Bost, aunt of the bride, cut the cake, and Mrs. J. B. McCall presided at the punch bowl. A bowl of pink rosebuds and pink and white sweetpeas centered the bride's table.

The couple left for California and Mexico on a wedding trip, the bride wearing a navy suit and orchid corsage. After July 10 they will be at home in Cottage Grove.

Both young people are graduates of the local high school. The bride is employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., and

OREGON PUTS ITS OKAY ON THE '51 KAISER

Wherever you go . . . in town, on the open road, along our scenic coastline, up in the mountains . . . anywhere . . . you'll see sleek, glamorous new '51 Kaiser cars with proud, happy owners at the wheel.

The 1951 Kaiser was developed from a new kind of thinking, a new application of science, a new consideration for human needs and wants as they have changed with the growth of motor transportation.

It brings you the triumph of a great and needed thing, Anatomic Design — the designing of the anatomy of the car to suit the anatomy and needs of the human being. Anatomic Design results in a car that meets the needs of your senses, your reflexes, your arms, legs, nerves, and muscles . . . a car that is easier to control, more comfortable, safer for you and your family to ride in.

Yes . . . everywhere you'll see people admiring the sensational "Anatomic Beauty" of the only car in its field that is COMPLETELY NEW in every respect!

- ONE GLANCE and you KNOW it's the newest car in America.
- ONE MILE behind the wheel and you, too, will want to own one.

NO WONDER that motorists of the West have caught the enthusiasm being shown toward '51 Kaisers throughout every state of the Union. You'll know WHY when you've really taken time to inspect and get behind the wheel of a new '51 Kaiser with its great 115 hp. Supersonic High Torque Engine.
