

Couple United in White Setting at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Salem

An impressive wedding in all white setting was held in Saint Joseph's Catholic church in Salem, June 25 when Miss Cynthia Needham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Needham and Lawrence M. Orth, son of Mrs. Maxine Orth, were united in marriage by the Rev. T. J. Bernards at 11 o'clock. Donat Needham, brother of the bride, was soloist and Wayne Menzies played the organ. White abridal formed the beautiful background of the church front. The bride wore a white satin wedding gown with veil and train. She carried a bouquet of white roses, bouvardia and stephanotis. The maid of honor was Miss Patricia Orth, sister of the bridegroom and the bridesmaids were Miss Ramona Evans and Miss Patti Ray. All three were gowned alike in warm-gray organdy in ballroom length. The flowers of the maid of honor were white with lace border, the flowers of the bridesmaids were yellow with lace-trimming.

The flower girl was Carnia Harris in pale yellow floor length organdy dress and hat and ring bearer was Kemp McLean. The best man was Stanley Deaton of Portland.

Mrs. Needham was attired in a navy blue gown with white hat and corsage of pink orchids. Mrs. Orth, mother of the bridegroom, wore gray lace over pink tulle and corsage of pink orchids. Marie Absta, grandmother of the bridegroom attended in a gray crepe dress with corsage of fuchsias.

The white scheme of decoration was evident also at the wedding reception held at the residence of the bride's parents on South Commercial street, where bouquets of bouvardia and white sweetpeas were held in crystal candelabras.

For going away the bride wore an avocado green silk dress, a large green straw hat with beige rose, with gloves and bag matching the dress, beige gloves, and a set of furs and brown orchids.

After a trip to Mexico and Reno, Mr. and Mrs. Orth will reside in Salem.

Mrs. Frank Needham as a girl, Doris England lived in and near Cottage Grove for many years.

RECEPTION FOR REV. ENZ AND FAMILY JULY 7

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will entertain Friday evening in the church parlor at a reception honoring the new minister and family, the Rev. and Mrs. Clark S. Enz, and children. The reception will be from 7:30 to 9:30. A program is being planned and refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Lind, baby James, of Creswell; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pfeifer, son Steven, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Pfeifer of Salem spent the Fourth of July holidays at Glide with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Pfeifer, parents of A. L. Pfeifer, E. E. Pfeifer and Mrs. Lind. The men spent their time fishing in the Umpqua, and reported catching the limit of trout.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fisher and children Jeannine and Ernest Jr. of Roseburg came to spend the week end with her mother, Mrs. Claude Sheets and Mr. Sheets.

Glen McKibben arrived by plane Monday from New York to visit his father, Charles McKibben, who is ill, and his mother, Mr. and Mrs. McKibben are moving from New York to Boston where he is being transferred by Stone-Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Browning, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Ness and two children, Patty and Byron returned home Monday from a two weeks trip to their former home, Hettinger, North Dakota, where they visited relatives and friends. They also visited friends in Lemmon and Newell, South Dakota.

Miss Betty Arnest is June Bride of California Man at Pretty Wedding

A pretty summer wedding was that of Miss Betty Arnest and Charles E. Paulsen Sunday afternoon, June 25, at the Methodist church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Arnest of Cottage Grove and the parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Paulsen of San Francisco, California. Candelabra on either side of the altar and tall baskets of blue delphinium and pink snapdragons decorated the nave for the exchange of wedding vows in a double ring ceremony. The Rev. Frank Brown read the impressive service.

Preceding the ceremony the Rev. Frank Brown sang "I Love Thee," and "O, Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. Boyd Allen, organist, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Mr. Arnest escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a white marquisette wedding gown over tulle, styled with a round neck line, the yoke edged with self material ruffle, fitted bodice and long sleeves. Lace inserts in the skirt extended from the waist to the hem and through the train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion net was caught on each side of her lace headpiece with clusters of stephanotis. Her bouquet edged with French lace was white rosebuds, sweetpeas, stephanotis and was centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Gordon Dunaway of Reedsport was matron of honor and Miss Dorris Arnest, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Both wore identical gowns and carried nosegays of pastel shades matching their gowns. Mrs. Dunaway was dressed in pink organdy over lace trimmed tulle and Miss Arnest wore blue organdy over lace trimmed tulle.

The bride's mother wore a navy and white sheer afternoon dress and Mrs. Paulsen chose a pastel blue crepe with lace trim. They both wore orchid corsages.

Don Swanson of Portland acted as best man, and ushers were Harley Davenport of Corvallis and Gordon Dunaway of Reedsport.

A garden reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Knox Hill. Mrs. Marvel Geer served the wedding cake; Mrs. Willard Shives of Albany served the punch and Miss Eleanor Brunquist of Corvallis had charge of the guest book.

For a wedding trip to Yellowstone Park the bride wore a navy faille suit and white accessories. On their return they will make their home at Marysville, California where Mr. Paulsen is employed as civic engineer for the state of California, Division of Highways.

Both young people are graduates of Oregon State college.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Paulsen, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Roy, Mrs. Katherine Martin all of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Don Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Davenport, Mrs. C. J. Joerg and Jnuie, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Giddings, all of Portland; Miss Eleanor Brunquist, Mrs. Robert Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lilly, Mrs. M. E. Lilly, Mrs. Lola Light, Miss Julia Barnum, all of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dunaway and Mrs. S. S. Smiley, of Reedsport; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Shives, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Thompson, Klamath Falls; Mr.

and Mrs. H. L. Arnest, San Rafael, California; Mrs. Val Lawyer, Monterey, California; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis French, Encinitas, California; and Mrs. Ruby Mitchell, Eugene.

The Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Grimes and two daughters, Roberta and Shirley of Salem spent Monday and Tuesday here with the Rev. Grimes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Grimes, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Monroe and children.

Those enjoying a picnic dinner the Fourth of July in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin were: the Rev. and Mrs. Clark Enz, children Linnea, Jonathan and Karen; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sherman, Mrs. D. R. Hamant, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Land, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Akersblade, granddaughter Christie, Kenneth Cushman, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Adkins and Mr. and Mrs. Mackin. Chinese checkers, horse shoes and visiting occupied the afternoon.

Miss Laurita Lundbom, returned last Thursday from Medford, where she visited ten days with Miss Frances Thrun at the John Thrun home. While there she visited Crater Lake and other points of interest.

Visitors during the Fourth of July holidays with Mrs. Elsie Lundbom and family, were Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lundbom and Irene and Tommy and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lundbom and Carol Ann, all of Aberdeen, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. William Freed of Longview spent from Saturday to the Fourth with Mrs. Freed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Biggerstaff. On Sunday they were joined by their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Biggerstaff and daughter Sherron of Eugene, and all enjoyed a picnic in the Biggerstaff yard.

Two Lane Pastors Will Attend SDA World Conference

Walter Blehm, pastor of the local Seventh-day Adventist church, and R. F. Brease, pastor of the Eugene S.D.A. church, are among the Oregon delegates to the World conference of Seventh-day Adventists scheduled July 10-22 in San Francisco.

Others from Cottage Grove who will attend all or part of the conference, though not delegates, are: Dr. and Mrs. Stanton Ober, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doelman, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Darnell, Mrs. Grace Qualls and Mr. and Mrs. John Woodard.

The quadrennial meeting will attract an estimated 15,000 Adventists from all over the world. There are 850 official delegates representing Adventist educational, medical, welfare, and evangelistic work in 228 of the 252 countries of the world, a spokesman here said.

Plans for the next four years will be made, officers elected and resolutions adopted during the conference. Progress of the churches' work during the past four years will be reviewed.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rea and son, Glenn of San Jose, California spent the weekend with the Bob Beach family. Mr. Rea is music instructor at San Jose Bible college and is a musician and composer. One of his latest compositions, "Thy Will Lord Be Done" was presented as a special at the Gibbs Avenue Church of Christ Sunday evening. Jerry McCormack, a student at San Jose Bible college, sang while Mr. Rea played the organ.

Mrs. William Kirtley of Eugene visited friends and neighbors here for a few days this week. She has rented her home and will leave for Portland to visit her sister.

Mrs. C. W. Rosenthal entertained several friends at a picnic luncheon at her home July 4.

Miss Jeannette Workman spent the Fourth of July week end at the Otto Vollstedt home in Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Evelyn Thomson and son Mickey of Vida were here Saturday to attend the dedication of the new library. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mrs. Dan Hamant.

Mrs. A. P. Kepple of Portland accompanied by Mrs. William Keppel and son Bill Jr. of Trenton, N. J. visited at the Joe McKibben home the past week. Mrs. A. P. Keppel is a sister of Mrs. McKibben and Mrs. William Keppel is a niece who is spending the summer in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Coop drove over to Lakeview over the weekend, bringing home a fine registered Short Horn cow, which Mr. Coop added to his Short Horn herd on his Bennett creek ranch. Another registered Short Horn will be delivered on the ranch next week.

Warren Wade, son of E. L. Wade, left last week for Kearney, Nebraska to spend the summer with an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McGrath. He planned to return here this fall to reenter school.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins and three daughters Judy, Jeanne and Patti of Heppner spent the Fourth of July holidays here with Mrs. Collins' mother, Mrs. William Zimmerman.

Mrs. Sweet of Eugene spent the 4th in Cottage Grove visiting friends.
