Attendance of adult Bible study has slumped. If you miss these interesting informative lessons you are the loser.

"Sacrament" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ Scientist, on Sunday, July 9.

The Golden Text is, "Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts; and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting" (Ps. 139:23, 24).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart" (Ps. 24:3,4), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christian Science brings to the body the sunlight of Truth, which invigorates and purifies" (p. 162).

DELIGHT VALLEY

Mrs. E. D. Sherrill, Reporter
Phone 648R4

The R. C. Oster family returned home Sunday afternoon from its vacation travels completing a 5000 mile trip. Leaving home on June 9, they went to Boise, then to Salt Lake City and on to Morbridge, S. D., where they visited relatives. They spent most of the time with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Oster. On the return trip, they stopped for a short visit with a brother, John Oster in Dupree, then made stops at the Black Hills National Park, where they enjoyed a trip thru the zoo located at the lodge. They also thrilled to the unexpected sight of a herd of bison. While at Mt. Rushmore, Elaine counted license plates from 45 different states of the union, 5 from the Netherlands, one from Alaska and one from Hawaii. A trip through Yellowstone National Park completed their vacation tour.

Erma McDonald and Betty Dunlevy, with Mrs. Ballou as chaperone, were co-hostesses at a wiener roast party on Thursday evening, June 29. Thelma McDonald, June and Billy Olson, Francis Hite, Dennis and Mardell Ballou, Dick McBee, Dick Harrison, Gary, Kenton and John VanNortwick shared in the evening's festivities.

Safe and sane Fourth celebrations, with picnic dinners the order of the day, were enjoyed by several groups throughout the valley this year with a party for 30 at the Wm. Schilling ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Glen McLachlan of Heppner remained as house guests of the family after the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Luten, Elaine Oster and George Stratton shared a picnic dinner with the Sherrill family in their grove by the river.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sears entertained at their home, enjoying the holiday with their children and grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sears and daughter, Dolores, Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Bales and Lawrence, Marie and Neal.

Mr. and Mrs. Olson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Schacht, while June Olson enjoyed the day at the home of Mrs. Ayanell Wicks of Dorena. Holiday vacation guests at the home of H. M. McBee include Mr. and Mrs. Dale Daugherty and children of Connell, Washington, Miss Alberta Lambert and Leighton Gehres of Lind, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holliday and children, Terry and Brett of Fresno are visiting relatives and friends during their vacation here spending this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hemenway.

An exchange of picnics was enjoyed by the R. C. Oster family when Mr. and Mrs. R. Hogan and children of Springfield shared in dinner at the Oster home, and the Osters shared in supper at the Hogan home. Mrs. Hogan and Mrs. Oster are sisters. Upon returning to their home, the Oster family further enjoyed the holiday with a fire-works display along with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harrison and son Richard.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley VanNortwick and children have returned to their home in the valley after a short stay at Culp Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Seebloom and family have moved into their home which their valley neighbors enjoyed having a part in, in the "raising bee," recently.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Earl Reed and family are temporarily housed on the Walter Tracy place, while waiting for the culmination of their plans towards the purchase of a permanent home in Cottage Grove.

Thelma McDonald was house guest of Charlene Mathews at the Mathews cabin at Waldport during the holiday week end.

A picnic dinner at the McDonald home was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Crane and daughter of Cottage Grove, Wayne Underwood and Rawly Stalkin.

Francis Hopkinson of Pennsylvania, rather than George Washington, in all probability was the designer of the American flag. He was a signer of the Declaration of Independence.

During the 161 years since the founding of the United States, there have been 90 justices of the U. S. Supreme Court, including the present members. This averages almost 18 years on the bench for each man.
