Bumper to Bumper Know-How

YOU'RE TELLING ME!

By WILLIAM RITT

Central Press Writer

AN EASTERN university, we read, possesses a macaroni plant. What's so strange about that— isn't it the function of most schools to turn out good noodles? ! ! !
Corn is the top U. S. crop. This was true even before the development of radio and its comedians. ! ! !
Shorts, says a fashioneer, do not add to beauty. It's just a question of whether one prefers to be comfortable or comely. ! ! !
A Michigan State physicist says the temperature has nothing to do with the current home run epidemic. Maybe not, but homers sure affect the temperature of the victimized pitchers. ! ! !

Big league weather forecast: More slummy than clammy and rather sluggy than muggy. ! ! !
Zadok Dumpkopf guesses that the stuff the poet says we stand knee deep in during June must be perspiration. ! ! !
The man at the next desk wonders if maybe the reason so many people think they are flying saucers is because they've been reading so much about China lately.
