Christine Stanley Weds David Belcher At Impressive Home Rites on July 21

Miss Christine F. Stanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stanley, became the bride of David L. Belcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Belcher, at the home of the bride's parents Friday evening, July 21, at seven o'clock. Both families are of Cottage Grove, Roscoe S. Musser, elder of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, read the ceremony.

Mr. Stanley gave his daughter in marriage. Her turquoise satin gown was princess style and ballerina length. Her accessories were black. She wore a small spray of pink rosebuds and orange blossoms in her hair and carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds, centered with gardenias. For "something old" she wore a 53-year-old friendship bracelet given to her by her namesake.

Mary Louise Stanley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her ballerina-length dress was of pink tulle, and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Kenneth O. Belcher, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The bride's mother wore a brown jersey dress, and Mrs. Belcher wore a pink and white print silk. Both had white carnation corsages.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Lérage route. Easter lilies, blue delphinium and shasta daisies decorated the rooms. Mrs. Carol Wood, cousin of the bride, served the coffee. Mrs. Lillian Stanton, grandmother of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. The guest book was in charge of Pat Malone of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Belcher left for a short wedding trip to the coast and are now at home on Lorane route.

The bride is a junior in the local high school. The bridegroom is employed as a carrier driver for Lorane Valley Lumber Co.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Thellon of Chicago; Mrs. Anna Stanley of Los Angeles, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Sutton of Medford, also grandparents; Christine Hales of Monterey Park, Calif.; Mrs. J. W. O'Dell and son, Central Point; Mrs. L. H. Bates and Walter Bates of Riddle; Elva Sutton of Medford; Rhea Numbers and Pat Malone, both of Los Angeles.

The engagement of Miss Sally Camille Hulst to Kenneth V. Hansen was announced at a party given recently in Oakland, California by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hulst.

Kenneth Hansen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hansen of Cottage Grove, and is now employed by the Standard Oil Company in Ilwaco, Wash. The young couple met at the University of Oregon. The wedding is planned for September 30.

ELECT VICE PRESIDENT
 Mrs. W. A. Strausborger was elected vice president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church at the regular meeting last Thursday night, which was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Strausborger will fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mrs. Damon Scott. Mrs. Brighton Leonard was elected secretary of youth and leader of the World Friendship Girls to succeed Mrs. Frank Brown, who moved to Grants Pass.

Hostesses who served a 7:45 dessert were Mrs. Edna Piller, Mrs. D. Swan and Mrs. Ethan Coston.

Mrs. S. L. Mackin led the devotional service and Mrs. Dale McMullin presented the lesson. It was announced that the executive committee will meet August 29 at 7:45 o'clock.

Jones Family Holds Sixteenth Reunion

The sixteenth reunion of the descendants of Charles and Candace Jones was held July 29 at the Shady Dell Auto Court north of Oakland, Ore. Fifty-five of the family and eleven guests were present. Seven of the nine brothers and sisters were present: Mrs. Lillie Copeland, J. D. Jones, Sam Jones, and Mrs. Alice Weatherly, all of Oakland, Ore.; Austin Jones of Cottage Grove; Mrs. Mabel Neal of Oakland, Calif.; and Kelly Jones, of Pendleton. Mrs. Mary William and Mrs. Kate Watkins were unable to attend on account of illness.

Others present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones and son David Lee of Coos Bay; Mrs. Lois Noel of Reedsport; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones of Coos Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Perkins and daughter Nancy of Mohave, Calif.; Mrs. Kelly Jones of Pendleton; Mrs. Mattie McCollum and sons Elmer and Carl of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. John William and family, Delmer, Charlotte, Dennis, and grandsons Ronnie and Donnie Glenn of Cottage Grove; Mrs. Myrtle McFerrin, Mrs. Sadie Ferber, Bud Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Copeland and children, Barton, Faye, Kent, and Carole all of Oakland, Ore.; Phil Weatherly of Oakland, Ore.; Roy Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Watkins and son Lester, Mr. and Mrs. Len Culver, all of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. George Keefeauver Jr. and Diane of Albany, Ore.; Judy and Jim Brady of Eugene; Percy Neal and Murray Hannon Jr. of Oakland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neal and children Michael and Norma Candace of Berkeley, Calif.; Rae Marie Neal of Klamath Falls.

Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hutchinson, Bobbie and Geryl Haines, and Geary Bullock of Oakland, Ore.; Erma Winders and Ernest Burkelo of Cottage Grove; Juanita Olen of Saginaw; and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lee and daughter of Yoncalla.

Mrs. Wayne Jones was elected president, and Mrs. Kenneth Copeland was elected secretary-treasurer for the coming year. Charles Neal was appointed publicity chairman to get a larger crowd out next year.

DOUBLE RING RITE AT BRIDE'S HOME

Miss Betty Ruth Denney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Denney of Creswell and Donald Eugene Rowland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Rowland of Drain, were married at a double ring ceremony at the home of the bride, Thursday evening, July 27. The Rev. James Smith of Yoncalla read the vows before an arch of ferns, ivy and gladioli.

The bride wore a plum-colored summer suit with white accessories and white orchid corsage. She carried a lace edged silk handkerchief which had belonged to her grandmother and is carried by all brides of the family.

Mrs. Cecil Rhodes, sister of the bride, and William Gaudern, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, were the attendants.

A reception followed for immediate members of the families. The wedding cake, baked by Mrs. Rhodes, decorated the bride's table.

After a trip to Yellowstone Park and the midwest, the couple will be at home in Drain.

MISS JOYCE HAMLOW WEDS CLARENCE LONG

A belated wedding announcement is that of Miss Joyce Hamlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Hamlow of Springfield, to Clarence (Buddy) Long Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Long of Cottage Grove. The wedding was solemnized by the Rev. Olson, pastor of the Danish Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents in Springfield on June 30 at eight o'clock.

The bride's father gave her away. Her street-length dress was of pink pique and her accessories were white. She wore a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Myron Wicks of Culp Creek, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Her dress was a pink print silk and her corsage was also carnations and rosebuds.

J. D. Long, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man, and ringbearer was Kenny Long, the bridegroom's nephew.

Bouquets of carnations and sweetpeas were about the rooms. Recorded music, "Always," was played preceding the ceremony.

At the reception which followed Mrs. L. D. Long cut the two-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride couple and four wedding bells. Mrs. Lorete Hamlow and Mrs. Guy Hamlow, aunts of the bride, served the ice cream, punch and coffee.

They are now at home at 87 South River Road.

REMEMBER WHEN

the stove was brought in for the winter? Pieces of pipe were bent and didn't fit. Fingers and tempers were bruised. The odor of the burning "black-ink" filled the house. But when the fire glowed through the isinglass doors—"twas worth the labor of putting up the stove. Remember?
