Bridal Shower for Two Lorane Girls

Ladies of the Lorane Christian church were hostesses for a double bridal shower at the IOOF hall Friday evening honoring Miss Beverly Dotson, bride-elect of Russell Teel, and Lorena Tew, bride-elect of Dennis Mitchell.

Mrs. Homer Townsend of Eugene, accompanied by Dalene Mitchell of Springfield sang "I Love You Truly." Then the brides-to-be were seated at the front of the room and Barbara Jenkins dressed in a "gay nineties" wedding gown belonging to Dennis Mitchell's grandmother, the late Mrs. Ed Addison, entered to the strains of the wedding march and presented them with bouquets of gladioli tied with white satin ribbons.

The gifts were wheeled in large white crepe-paper covered wheelbarrows. After the gifts were opened and passed around to be admired, Mrs. Townsend sang another solo, "I Love You."

The 75 guests were then invited to the beautifully decorated dining room for dainty refreshments. The tables were laid in a U with the brides and their close relatives at the end of the U. The bridal table was laid with a lace cloth with a lovely centerpiece of white carnations and gladioli and tall white candles in double crystal candelabra.

The other tables were covered with white crepe paper. One had pink streamers with a centerpiece of pink gladioli and tall pink tapers in silver candlesticks while the other featured yellow streamers, yellow snapdragons and yellow tapers in crystal candlesticks. The stove was draped in white paper with a white bow-trimmed umbrella on top under which were piled gifts.

Out of town guests were Mrs. J. J. Pifer, Mrs. C. P. Pifer, Mrs. Walter Pifer, Miss Delores Pifer, Mrs. Glen McKay, Miss Phyllis Dotson and Mrs. Homer Townsend of Eugene, Mrs. Lottie Mitchell and daughters Elva and Dalene of Springfield and Mrs. Elwyn Doughty of Roseburg.

N OF W HOLDS PICNIC

The Neighbors of Woodcraft held a covered dish picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hawley, and also observed the birthday anniversaries of two members, Mildred Teich and Naomi Hill, with a decorated birthday cake for each and many birthday cards. Following the picnic dinner, the evening was spent in playing bingo.

The next regular business meeting was announced for September 5 in the IOOF hall.

Guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames John Trunnell, Charles Peck Jr., Robert Allen, Jack Carter, Mack Kinsland, Hugh Gatewood, Jim Thrasher, Ed Fraser, Herb Whitlock and Horace Wolfard.

Traditional Bridal Satin is Worn by August Bride at Baptist Church Rite

Miss Janet Lucille Jenkins became the bride of Roy Arnold Duerst Saturday, August 5, at two o'clock at the First Baptist church in a floral setting of white hydrangeas. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. Jenkins and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Duerst, all of Cottage Grove. The Rev. William Sutterlin read the impressive ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Robert Cherry sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Miss Virginia Hudson. Mr. Jenkins gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of traditional white bridal satin, fashioned with a tight bodice, long sleeves and sweetheart neckline. A Juliet cap of net and seed pearls and half crown of stephanotis held her fingertip veil in place. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Sarah Jenkins, twin sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her floor-length dress was of yellow taffeta, and she carried an arm bouquet of yellow carnations and maidenhair fern.

Charlotte Layng Weds Erle Thomas At Impressive Home Ceremony

Miss Charlotte Layng, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Layng and Erle L. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Thomas of Detroit, Oregon, were married Friday evening, August 11, at 8 o'clock at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Roy E. Hutchison on Knox Hill. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Hutchison, minister in the Church of God.

The couple stood in front of the fireplace which was decorated on both sides with vases of tall cat-tails and long green leaves. They were attended by the bride's parents.

The bride was attractive in a gold colored suit with white accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow carnations.

Mrs. Layng chose to wear to her daughter's wedding a lavender crepe dress and corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Hutchison wore a grey afternoon dress and a corsage of white carnations.

Those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Layng, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dotson and daughter Joyce, Mrs. Roy E. Hutchison and Ralph Hutchison. After the ceremony refreshments of cake, ice cream and punch were served.

The newlyweds left immediately to spend the weekend at the Unquaga beach near Winchester Bay. Mrs. Thomas is a graduate of the Cottage Grove high school with the class of 1950. Mr. Thomas attended the Gates high school near Salem. He is now employed by the Sears and Violette Logging Company. They will be at home in the Mount View district.

Striking Slacks Suit

Tropical worsted outfit.

By VERA WINSTON

CRISP looking tropical worsted is the fabric used to fashion an attractive slacks suit, neatly cut on tondor lines. The color is a rich oyster white, and the bone buttons match. The well-cut slacks have pockets at either hip. Worn with the suit is a navy blue sweater blouse. This is a charming outfit for the figure that is slim and trim.
