FORMER GUARD OWNER HONORED AT DINNER

On Friday evening the former editorial and society staff of the Register-Guard, when it was known as the Eugene Daily Guard, gathered at Elk Head mine, near Yoncalla, for a dinner party, to honor J. E. Shelton, one-time publisher and owner of the Guard. The party was held at the home of Mr. Shelton's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Hovey. The Hovey home is at their quicksilver mine.

Mr. Shelton was publisher of the Eugene Guard for ten years prior to 1924, and built the present newspaper plant. He is now living in Phoenix, Arizona.

Among guests were Manley Fuller, of the Cottage Grove Sentinel, who was a partner for 21 years with Mr. Shelton in the Shelton-Turnbull-Fuller Printing Co., Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. Georg Bjorset of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Stelle, Mrs. Floyd C. Westerfield, Mrs. Mary Ellen Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Turnbull, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Tugman and Mrs. Drusilla O'Day, all of Eugene.

"LAWNS" WILL BE TOPIC OF PDG GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Henry Arp will entertain the P. D. G. Garden club Friday, September 1, at a 1:30 dinner and monthly meeting. The topic for discussion will be "Lawns."

BRIDAL SHOWER HONORS MISS LORENA TEW

By Mrs. R. G. Conner
Mrs. Paul Estergard was hostess for a bridal shower honoring Lorena Tew, bride-elect of Dennis Mitchell, at her home Tuesday, August 15. A miniature bride and groom placed before a heart-shaped altar and bowls of sweets decorated the rooms. Several appropriate games were played, with Mrs. Leslie Ashley winning a can of tuna in a "can" contest. After the games, Carol Garner and Karen Lobek brought in the gifts on an umbrella-topped card table to be opened and admired. Guests in addition to the honor guest were, Mrs. R. C. Tew and daughters Lillian and Roberta, Mrs. L. S. Ashley, Mrs. Arthur Barker, Mrs. Manley Purdy, Mrs. C. B. Mitchell, Mrs. Bill Leach and Donna, Mrs. Ed Owens and daughter, Mrs. Norman Lobek, Mrs. Harry Garner and Carol, Mrs. Sven Lobek and Karen, Mrs. Ralph Lockie, Mrs. R. G. Conner and Mrs. A. H. Addison.

Mrs. Estergard assisted by Mrs. Garner and Mrs. Lobek served root beer floats and cookies for refreshments.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED SUNDAY

The second wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Hedge was observed Sunday with a potluck chicken dinner at the home of Mrs. C. W. Rosenthal. The occasion was also the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Rosenthal and Mrs. J. A. Kiker.

Those enjoying the dinner were: Mrs. Eliza Howe, Mrs. S. K. Adams, Mrs. Nellie Harman, Mr. and Mrs. John Hedge, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kiker and Mrs. Rosenthal.

What the bride should know, a free booklet for those ordering wedding announcements or invitations from the Sentinel.

Black Magic

As chic and cool as "little summer black" as you've ever seen is this rayon crepe dress featured in Cosmopolitan magazine for July. It has twin rows of buttons on front and back of the smartly plain, round-necked bodice. Jerry Parnis has given it a modified bat-wing sleeve, cropping it midway between elbow and shoulder. The skirt has soft, unpressed pleats at center front. About $35.00.

MISS BARBARA JENKINS GIVEN BRIDAL SHOWER

By Mrs. R. G. Conner
Miss Barbara Jenkins was the inspiration for a bridal shower given at the IOOF hall, Friday evening by her future sisters-in-law, Mrs. Howard Cabe, Mrs. Earl Loring and Mrs. Jerry Keep. Her wedding to Rex Keep will take place in the near future. Mrs. W. H. Mitchell won first prize and Mrs. Bill Jenkins booby prize in a memory test game and Mrs. Lloyd Counts first and Mrs. George Insley booby in a scrambled word game before the many lovely gifts were unwrapped and passed around to be admired. Many who were not present had sent gifts. The refreshments of ice cream and cookies were served in the dining room where the tables were covered with shower tablecloths. A miniature bride and groom stood on the bride's table with a background of mixed flowers. Mixed flowers were also used on the other tables. Out of town guests were Mrs. Verla Ellege, and Patty and Billy of Drain, Mrs. Cora Johnson of Veneta, Miss Violet Oliver of Hawthorne, Nebraska, Mrs. Mable Crooks of Cottage Grove, Mrs. Gene and Mrs. Earl Loring of Junction City and Mrs. Howard Cabe of Eugene.

51 GATHER FOR FAMILY REUNION AUGUST 20

The descendants of Margaret Fair and David Brock met Sunday, August 20, for their annual family reunion, at Bryant's park in Albany with 51 present. The oldest member present was Mrs. George Sutherland and the youngest was Vernon Doyle Eastburn, who was only two months old.

Coming from the greatest distance were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Gallagher, The Dalles, friends of the family. Others came from Gates, Salem, Scio, Lebanon, Albany, Crabtree and Cottage Grove.

After a bountiful dinner at noon the time was spent visiting and looking at old family pictures.

Ice cream and cake were served late in the afternoon before they departed for their homes.

Mrs. S. T. Eastburn and Mrs. David Munsell of Cottage Grove were Brocks before their marriage.

Afternoon Favorite

Blond crepe one-piece dress.

By VERA WINSTON

THE real, one-piece dress, so long a favorite for good afternoon wear is very much present despite all the interest in smart separates and afternoon-into-evening things. Blond crepe is used for this one, made with a low round neck and cap sleeves that are slashed under the arm. There is a jeweled clip at the neckline. The skirt is slim and straight with a tucked over-panel that flares out at one side, while the other side starts at the side seam.

Sandwich Filling
Left-over cooked meat and fish can be chopped up, combined with hard-cooked eggs and salad dressing, and used as a sandwich filling.

The best way to cook potatoes is in their skins. If you don't want to do that, put new potatoes first into hot water for a minute or two, then scrape and place in cold water to wash before cooking.

Navy Instructs Reserves Asking Delay in Recall

Instructions for members of the Naval Reserve requesting delay in recall to active duty have been issued by the Bureau of Naval Personnel.

Naval reservists who consider themselves to be within one or more of the deferment categories or their employers may submit written requests for a temporary delay in recall.

No requests will be considered prior to actual receipt of orders to active duty. Requests must be submitted within 48 hours after receipt of orders.

Reserve officers should address their requests to the Bureau of Naval Personnel, Washington 25, D. C., via the Commandant, Thirteenth Naval District, Enlisted Naval Air Reserve Training, Glenview, Illinois. All other enlisted Reservists should submit requests to the Commandant, Thirteenth Naval District, attention Review Board, 1611 West Wheeler St., Seattle 99, Washington.

Reservists whose requests for delay are denied or who have not received a reply to their request prior to the date they are ordered to report, must comply with their orders. After reporting on active duty, they may initiate a request for release to inactive duty.

Deferment categories, established by the department of Defense, may apply to Naval personnel who are:

- (a) Enrolled in educational institutions (depending upon the merits of the individual case, their recall may be delayed until completion of the school term in which they are registered);
- (b) Pursuing a professional graduate course or engaged in research in a technical or scientific field of primary interest to the Department of Defense;
- (c) Considered extreme hardship cases;
- (d) Engaged or employed in certain critical civilian occupations or essential activities identified as such by the Departments of Labor and Commerce.

(e) Considered key managerial personnel whose call to active duty would cause material loss in production, service or research to the national health, safety or interest.
