A hobby show is planned for the next grange meeting. Each member is asked to bring a sample of his hobby. However, if the hobby is riding, leave your horse home, please. A riding boot, hat, or your saddle will do nicely.

Master Paul Estergard appointed a weed control committee to investigate the possibilities of better weed control, especially of Tansy Ragwort and Canadian Thistle. The committee is composed of C. B. Mitchell, Leslie Ashley and Art Kragenbrink. Mr. Kragenbrink was appointed chairman of the Lorane booth at the county fair, with Mrs. Kragenbrink as co-chairman. All members are urged to save their choicest produce to exhibit at the Fair. Mrs. W. T. Moore was elected musician to replace Dalene Mitchell who has moved away.

Jack Purdy had a very close brush with death last week when a guylene on a pole which was being raised snapped and struck him. He was knocked more than 15 feet over a log pile into the brush. At the hospital it was found that he had a cracked vertebrae in his neck in addition to numerous welts and bruises. He is now home with his neck in a cast and is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Addison of Korb, Calif., drove up Friday to pick up their sons Larry and Marshall who have been spending a week with their aunt, Mrs. C. B. Mitchell.

Mrs. Martin Foster and Mrs. E. P. Inman of Eugene left Friday for a visit with Mrs. Inman's daughter in Santa Barbara, Calif. While there they plan to attend the Santa Barbara Pioneer Festival.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lacky are parents of a son born Aug. 10, at the Butler maternity home in Cottage Grove. He has been named Walter Michael. The Lackys have three daughters so the young man should be well spoiled in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Addison and son Thane Jr. have returned from Korb, Calif. to make their home here. For the present they will live in their trailer house on their ranch. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Taylor who now occupy the ranch house plan to move into a new home of their own later this fall when it is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bowling, honeymooners from Oakland, Calif., were overnight guests of the Paul Estergars Friday. Mr. Bowling is a nephew of Mrs. Estergard.

The J. H. Ladd mill was totally destroyed by a fire which started from power saw sparks last Friday. In addition to the loss of the mill about 80 acres of land was burned over, part of which was good second growth timber. The Ladd brothers, Hugo and Elmer, had just returned from Aitkin, Minn., the day before, where they were called by the serious illness of a sister. Mrs. Hugo Ladd has not yet returned home as she was ill on the trip and did not feel strong enough to come home with her family. They left their sister responding nicely to a new treatment.

Mrs. Janet Brown will again teach at La Blue school. Her term will start Sept. 5.

Mr. Tom Snyder has gone to Vallejo, Calif., for a visit with his son, Tom.

Jay Schurgen returned home Sunday after spending a week in a Eugene hospital for observation and treatment for a ruptured appendix. He is able to be up a little and is feeling much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Chambers are spending a few weeks at their ranch here before returning to Arizona for the winter.

This community extends sympathy to the Chester Purdy family on the death of his mother.

Mrs. Velma Stephenson arrived Saturday to visit at the R. C. Twomey home. Mrs. Stephenson is on her way to her home in Texas, having been sent home from Japan where her husband was stationed when he was sent to Korea. She is accompanied by her two small sons. On Wednesday they left for El Paso. Mrs. Twomey is going along to help with the driving. She expects to be gone about two weeks.

Miss Barbara Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jenkins, and Rex Keep, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Keep were married Monday, Aug. 21 in Tacoma, Wash. They returned to Lorane Thursday and plan to move to Yoncalla in a few days where Rex is working.

Mrs. Martin Foster has returned from a week's vacation spent in Santa Barbara, Calif. She and Mrs. I. P. Inman of Eugene were visiting Mrs. Earl Gravelle while there they attended the annual Santa Barbara Fiesta and greatly enjoyed the colorful Spanish costumes and entertainments. They also visited several of the old Spanish Missions. Mrs. Gravelle and her friends entertained the visitors with several garden parties during their stay.

Several Lorane people spent the weekend at the coast and enjoyed deep sea fishing although they report the catch was nothing to brag about. Those in the party were: the James Kotric, Sven Lobek, Lloyd Peterson, Harry Garner and George Roth families.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hayes of Cottage Grove spent the weekend with the B. W. Hayes family. On

We are sorry to hear that Joe Schneider has had a relapse. His daughter, Mrs. W. B. Layng, was called to Eugene Monday to be with him.

Mrs. Francis Harrison of McCook, Neb., and her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Harrison of Trent, Neb., were guests Wednesday of Mrs. Harrison's niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Seaver. Accompanying them were Mrs. Seaver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nelson of Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Layng and Walda Jane spent the week end in the Bohemia Mountains moving and salting their cattle. They visited Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Clair Hogate at Rujada ranger station.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Bales and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Taylor, of Carthage, N. Y., spent Tuesday at the coast. They motored by way of Corvallis, Newport, the Sea Lion Caves, and returned home by way of Scottsburg.

Phyllis Green left for Salem this week to make an extended visit. Mr. and Mrs. Wally Purcell had the misfortune to have their car wrecked while in Cottage Grove Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilder and Mike of Medford were week end guests of Mrs. Wilder's uncle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Tanner.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Duncan and family moved to Cottage Grove this week end and the Lemert family moved into the Duncan house Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Taylor are visiting with cousins of Mrs. Taylor at Westfir this week.

The Wyatt tire truck of Eugene hit a rough spot in the road Friday, causing the driver to lose control of the truck. It completely demolished the "Pat and Mike" fruit and vegetable stand, operated by Carl Hudson and Billy Seaver, tore down the Hudson and Mason mail boxes and ended up against a telephone pole. Fortunately the boys were not operating the stand that day or they would have been seriously injured.

We have a new land mark in our community. W. B. Layng has erected a large sign at the entrance of his road advertising his "Lazy Acres" registered Hereford farm. It always pays to advertise.

We have heard a number of times about riding a greased pig. But Dan Watts of the "Y" can tell you that one "ungreased" is no easier to ride. His pig got out the other day and after catching it he could not hold him, so he decided to ride it. Eventually the pig was back in the pen but Mr. Watts ended up with a badly infected arm and advising all "would be pig doggers" not to try to get their ham on the "hoof."

Mr. and Mrs. Benton R. Dailey of Woodburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Emory Dailey and Virginia and Eugene of Cottage Grove were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Downes. The two Mr. Daileys are brother of Mrs. Downes.

Friday Mrs. Charles E. Bales went to Salem to attend a reunion of her two sisters and a cousin they had not seen for 40 years. The sisters are Mrs. Chas. Bales, Mrs. Richard Buckner of Westfir and Mrs. Sarah Tennis, of Salem. The cousin is Mrs. Hollis Taylor of Carthage, N. Y. The three days were spent getting acquainted, picnicking at Silver Falls and visiting with other relatives. They were, Mrs. S. A. Randle and children of Salem (Dorothy Bales); Mr. and Mrs.

Chas. Mauritz of Portland (Albert Buckner); and Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Tennis of Salem. Mrs. Bales and her house guests returned home Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Taylor left Monday for Westfir for a few days visit with the Buckners and then will return to their home in New York.

Guests over the week end of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Ketcherside were Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Crase and two children of Gresham. Mr. and Mrs. Amos Ketcherside, and Mrs. Wilburn Dodge spent Sunday picnicking and swimming on Mosby creek.
