

Impressive Wedding Unites Pair; Will Make Home at Glendale, Oregon

Miss Ramona Amy Spartz, daughter of Mrs. Florence Werner of Cottage Grove, became the bride of Stanley D. St. Clair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen St. Clair of Glendale, at the home of the bride's mother, Saturday, September 2, at two o'clock. The Rev. Richard Gross, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, read the ceremony.

The bride wore a wine colored street-length dress with pleated skirt and plain bodice and a two-strand pearl necklace. She wore a corsage of gardenias and stephanotis and carried a white Bible.

Miss Helen Spartz was maid of honor. Her dress was aqua rayon gabardine with white waffle trim. Her corsage was pink carnations.

Donald St. Clair of Glendale, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

Members of WSCS At Junction City, 10th Anniversary

Seventeen members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met in the church parlor September 13 for a short business meeting, at which time plans were made for the food sale September 23 and the church dinner on Sunday, September 24. The ladies then motored to Junction City where they were guests of the Woman's Society.

Mrs. C. A. Pitney presided at the afternoon meeting with 40 present, and welcomed the Cottage Grove visitors. The occasion of the local ladies visiting the Junction City group was the tenth anniversary of the organization of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Mrs. Lynn Zumwalt led the devotional service, the theme being "Peace with Ourselves and All Nations. "The Garden of Prayer" was sung by the group and a hymn by John Oxenham was read.

A period of visiting followed, and the birthday party was held around the table. Mrs. Arthur Knudson read the goals for which the candles were lighted. Seven of the ten candles were lighted.

Various committees gave reports and Mrs. Walter Sorensen, Mrs. Mark Morgan and Mrs. ClarkENZ were called on for short talks.

Mrs. Mary Howard, Mrs. Empey and Mrs. O. F. Morgan were hostesses, and served the birthday cake, cup cakes taken by the visitors, coffee and sandwiches. Mrs. Pascoe Paine had the tables decorated with fall flowers.
