GOOD HEALTH

Answer to Question No. 1:

1. Hemorrhage has been the outstanding cause of maternal death but it is being conquered. Many hospitals have adopted blood transfusion programs so that childbirth is now much safer. For instance, after the Woman's Clinic of New York Hospital put in such a program only one death from hemorrhage occurred in 14,000 deliveries.

Answer to Question No. 2:

2. For the same reason that cancer and heart diseases are increasing—we now live long enough to develop such ailments. America has made astounding progress in recent years and, as one disease after another has been conquered and more and more health services are available to our people, medicine has been faced with the problem of attacking a new group of diseases. The attack on diabetes has triumphed—it can be detected early and often prevented, provided you follow your doctor's advice.

Answer to Question No. 3:

3. Not any more. Smallpox has been all but eradicated as a cause of death in the United States and in some areas is so rare a disease that many young physicians have never encountered a case. Diphtheria, typhoid fever, and whooping cough are other diseases which have been reduced radically by preventive techniques which are a commonplace nowadays.

Baptists to Keep Missionaries in China at Present

Baptist Missionaries will remain in China as long as they are allowed reasonable opportunity to perform their duties, the American Baptist Convention announced today.

Announcement was made as reports were being received from the Far East that the Communist Government of China had declared a reformation of Christianity in China under way.

Foreign Secretary Dana M. Abbaugh stated that if Baptist missionaries were required to leave China, work could be continued by competent Chinese trained for such an emergency. National Baptist conventions have been established in China to work with the missionaries in training Christian leaders among the Chinese people, he said, and for many years Baptists have stressed the importance of this national leadership and the self-support of its missions. He emphasized that Baptist missionaries would remain, however, as it was possible to carry on a distinctly Christian work among the people.

It was also learned that the Christians of China have adopted a pin to be worn to distinguish them as Christians. The popularity with which this pin has spread across China is considered an indication of the determination of the Chinese people to maintain their freedom of religion. The pin shows a cross on a blue and gold background and symbolizes the universal fellowship of all Christians.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

We preach the same gospel which Paul said he had preached unto the Galatian Christians and he pronounces the anathema of the Almighty upon either man or angel who preaches any other. Paul said there is no other gospel, but some men were troubling them and were perverting the gospel of Christ. Gal. 1:6-12. Any worship not based on a thus saith the Lord is vain and sinful.

"What Do You Mean—Only ONE True Church?"

Non-Catholics often resent the claim that the Catholic Church alone is the true Church of Christ.

"You Catholics," some of them say, "have a lot of nerve. The Church is universal. Anybody can belong to it who accepts Christ as his personal Savior and models his life after Christ's teaching. We can be members of the true Church without being Catholics."

Many who feel this way about it are, of course, sincere and devout people. And it is not our intention to challenge the various shades of Christian thought which they represent. We do ask them, however, to understand that the Catholic claim is not a matter of arrogance or intolerance—but of the deepest religious conviction.

Nearly all Christians agree that there can be only one true Church. Yet there are hundreds of different denominations—some of them miles apart in what they teach—all claiming to be the true Church. Certainly all of them cannot be right...in fact, only ONE can.

But which one? How can we identify it?

The Son of God made Himself recognizable to men by coming upon the earth with a body and soul like ours. It was in His physical body that He died for our redemption. Having thus so carefully revealed Himself to the people of His own time, would He not make equally sure that future generations should also know Him?

Catholics believe that the Savior did so, through the Church...in which he is "able at all times to save those who came to God through Him." The Church is, therefore, not merely a body of people believing in Christ...but the Body appointed by Christ Himself to continue His mission of redemption.

"He who hears you," the Savior said, "hears Me." For Catholics, this means that when the Church speaks it is Christ speaking. When the Church offers prayer and sacrifice and forgiveness of sins, it is Christ's prayer and sacrifice and forgiveness of sins. The Church, as Catholics see it, is Christ living in the world today!

Free Must the Church be an organized system? Is the Church invisible? Is it composed of saints and sinners? Can we reject the Church without rejecting Christ? Must I belong to the Catholic Church to be saved? The answer to these and many other important questions is available in a pamphlet which we will send you without cost or obligation—which you can read in the privacy of your home. Write today...
